SENATE KILLS DIRECT VOTE

DALTON MAY LOSE HIS LAND

Straightening 'Death Curve' Will Necessitate Condemning of Strip.

S. P. Co. Will Probably Seek Right of Way Over Area Now in Dispute

Condemnation of a right of way through the foundry of Henry Dalton and Sons at Cedar and Ninth streets is foreshadowed by the filing of an application for a franchise before the city council last night, a complete account of which is published in another column of THE TRIBUNE, for a line running directly through the Dalton land on the western waterfront. The railroad asks for a right of way to be substituted for the well known "death curve" from the Sixteenth street station to the mole on the main line of the Southern Pacific. The new route would swing the tracks out toward the bay in a curve of only about eight degrees in place of the present reverse curve which has such a heavy toll of deaths to its record.

Should the Southern Pacific will invoke the right of eminent domain to obtain a right of way through the property of Henry Dalton, County Assessor Henry P. Dalton, and Frank N. Dalton, his sons, is freely predicted by engineers and attorneys who have followed the course of events. In the face of the suits filed by Dalton & Sons against the city, claiming rights extending out from the foundry property to clear water, and attempting to prohibit the city's work in creating a harbor in the Key Route basin, the prospect of Dalton being made defendant in condemnation proceedings, opens up interesting possibilities.

Dalton & Sons filed their suits against the city within the past two weeks, and it was thought at that time the foundry people would put up a hard fight for the riparian rights they claim out beyond the actual line of their property.

WILL PROBABLY CONDEMN.

That the railroad has been quietly planning to replace "death curve" by a curve that would be less dangerous and would increase the running time and efficiency of the road, has been known for some time. The corporation purchased from William Hinshaw and others property south of the Dalton land and adjoining the mole, including a number of old shacks and the old historic bath house. How the company was to get around the Dalton strip was a puzzle to the engineers, however.

The application filed last night shows that the company has no intention of going around, but will attempt to pass straight through. The dangers of death curve are recognized, and with the land on each side of Dalton, and a franchise from the city, the company will be in a good position to urge a condemnation suit with considerable hope of success.

The franchise calls for a line that will partially skirt the bay shore, and will partially run on made land. A four trackage franchise is asked, and the plans show two of the lines rising on a four per cent grade to ten-foot platforms at the new Sixteenth street depot.

Henry Dalton, when asked whether he had been approached by the railroad, said this morning:

"We have been apprised of the intentions of the Southern Pacific, but no attempt has been made to negotiate a purchase. It appears to be indicated that a condemnation suit will be started. We shall fight to the finish any attempt to condemn a right through our land."

HEIRESS TO MILLIONS TODAY BRIDE OF MULTI-MILLIONAIRE

The Crocker-Irwin Nuptials This Afternoon

Four O'Clock the Hour Set for Simple Ceremony

Under the soft glow from stained-glass windows before an altar heaped with snow-white orchids and blazing with candles in the Irwin mansion in San Francisco, Archbishop Riordan will read the impressive service of the Roman Catholic church at 4 o'clock this afternoon which will unite in matrimony the heads of two colossal fortunes. Miss Helene Irwin, daughter of Millionaire William G. Irwin, and C. Templeton Crocker, heir to the vast Crocker possessions, valued at over $15,000,000, are the leading figure in a marriage which is a momentous event in society and in point of beauty and social importance will long remain conspicuous in the annals of California's history.

Will Witness Ceremony

From the broad landing of the stairway leading from the great entrance hall which fills the center of the house in full view of the guests gathered in the hall below the wedding service will be witnessed by a company of the most exclusive and wealthiest men and women of the country.

The scheme of decoration will be followed in the bride's favorite flower, orchids, in tones of pink and mauve, except on the altar, where only the white orchids will be used, entwined with delicate fern in wonderfully odd and beautiful designs.

Hundreds of Orchids

In the hall, which is large enough to accommodate several hundred guests, hundreds of white orchids will be banked massed heap on heap, with shadings of pink and mauve.

Entrance of Party

The bride will enter the hall preceded by her attendants from a small drawing-room on the arm of her father, and Prescott Scott, Stanford Gwin and A. R. Van Rensselaer of New York will make an aisle with broad bands of satin ribbon through which the party will pass to the stairs, which will be a riot of bloom. The party will be met at the altar by the bridegroom and his attendant, Walter Martin.

Beautiful Gowns

A tinted dome from above will light the scene and bring out the exquisite beauty of the gowns, which in point of magnificance will be unrivaled.

Preceding the bride will come the maid of honor, Miss Jennie Crocker,

THUGS ATTACK WOMAN AND ROB STORE

Oakland Grocery Store Is Looted in Broad Daylight.

Taking advantage of the fact that Mrs. J. B. Farrell was alone and defenseless in her grocery store at 1552 Fifth street at 11 o'clock this morning, two thugs entered the place and robbed the till, escaping after striking the woman when she tried to save her money. They obtained $60 from the till. Mrs. Farrell was not seriously injured in the scuffle.

The robbery was reported to the police immediately, and a posse of patrolmen and detectives went in search of the thugs, but failed to find a trace of them. A good description has been obtained, and the search will be continued.

$60 IS STOLEN.

Mrs. Farrell told Captain Petersen of the attack upon her this morning after the search was made for the thugs. She said:

"I was in the front of the store about 11 o'clock when two men entered. They asked me for an empty box, and I went to the rear of the store to obtain one for them. When I returned the cash till was wrenched open and one of the men was behind the counter. I started after him, but he caught me as he came from behind the counter and threw me out of his way. The two then ran from the store and I followed, calling for help. They were young men, unmasked, and apparently did not carry any weapons. When I looked in the till I found that $60 had been stolen."

Maricopa Theatre Is Destroyed by Fire

Most Pretentious Playhouse in Oil Fields Now Mass of Smoking Ruins.

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 28.—Fire was discovered in the opera house at Maricopa at 5 o'clock this morning and the building was completely destroyed. The Burton Opera Company, filling an engagement there, lost all its effects. Loss $500 no insurance. The theater was the most pretentious playhouse in the oil fields.

Railroad Reduces Its Working Force

Drastic Action of Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Follows Rate Decision.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—The retrenchment order of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, issued following the recent rate decision, has resulted, it was learned today in the discharge of 25 per cent of the force on the main line engaged in construction, car repairing, roundhouse work and maintenance of way.

In St. Paul alone it is estimated that 700 men have been taken from the pay rolls. It was stated at the general office here that there had been no reduction of the Puget Sound extension force.

Converts Baptized During Snowstorm

Zero Temperature Fails to Cool Ardor of Eight Religion-Seekers.

CARBONDALE, Colo., Feb. 28.—Zero temperature, a blinding snow storm and the freezing waters of an ice-covered river failed to cool the ardor of eight converts to the Christian Church, five women and three men, who Sunday waded out into the Crystal river to be baptized. Men with poles pushed back the ice floes while the baptism took place. None of those baptized has suffered any ill effects.

Murderous Redskin Gets Fourth Victim

Renegade Indian Qushe Puts Another Notch in Gun When He Kills Prospector.

CARSON, Nev., Feb. 28.—Word was received today by Governor Oddie that the renegade Indian Qushe had scored his fourth murder of a white man during the year when he shot a prospector named James Patterson at Big Bend canon, Indo river near Big Bend canyon. A posse has been on Qushe's trail for the past two months, but the redskin has eluded search. A heavy reward is to be put on his head and the state police will be sent out in a determined effort to bring him in.

RESOLUTION DOWNED AFTER SESSION THAT LASTS ALL NIGHT

Filibuster at Capitol Takes on Serious Proportions When Lorimer Case, Reciprocity and Popular Ballot Are Tangled Up

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Senate, in accordance with a previous agreement, interrupted the Lorimer battle today with a vote on the joint resolution for an amendment to the United States Constitution providing for the direct election of Senators. The resolution, which required a two-thirds majority, was lost, receiving a vote of 54 to 33.

The case of Senator Lorimer and the question of his title to a seat in the Senate stood this afternoon apparently where it has stood for many days. His supporters confidently believing in the existence of a safe majority in his behalf if only a vote could be reached. His opponents, for one reason or another, are fighting, inch by inch, to prevent a vote.

SENTIMENT MIXED.

Some of the "antis" believe that in an extra session Lorimer would be rejected and for that reason they want adjournment to find the matter still pending; others are willing to have a vote on Lorimer if they can have also a vote on other matters, especially the permanent tariff board bill, to which some of Lorimer's supporters are bitterly opposed.

The Senate was in continuous session all night and faced today's work and possibility of another all-night session in a mood anything but amiable.

FRIENDS CONFIDENT.

The friends of Senator Lorimer have by no means surrendered hope of getting a vote in his case before final adjournment.

Senator Stone, who last night refused absolutely to consent to a vote, said today that he would not stand out, and Senator Bailey, who hitherto had taken a position against a vote on the tariff board, declared himself so much disgusted by last night's filibuster that he never again would resort to dilatory tactics, unless the interests of his own constituents or the fundamental principles of the government should be involved.

HOW THE VOTE STOOD.

Following is the vote on the direct election of senators:

Yeas — Bailey, Beveridge, Borah, Bourne, Bradley, Briggs, Bristow, Brown, Burkett, Burton, Carter, Chamberlain, Clapp, Clark (Wyo.), Clarke (Ark.), Culberson, Cullom, Cummins, Curtis, Davis, Dixon, Dupont, Frye, Gamble, Gore, Gronna, Guggenheim, Jones, LaFollette, McCumber, Martin, Nelson, Newlands, Nixon, Overman, Owen, Paynter, Perkins, Piles, Rayner, Shively, Simmons, Smith (Maryland), Smith (Mich.), Smithe (S. C.), Stevenson, Stone, Sutherland, Swanton, Taylor, Thornton, Warner, Watson, Young—54.

Nays—Bacon, Bankhead, Brandegee, Burnham, Burrows, Crane, Depew, Dick, Dillingham, Fletcher, Flint, Foster, Gallinger, Hale, Heyburn, Johnston, Kean, Lodge, Lorimer, Money, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Percy, Richardson, Root, Scott, Smoot, Tallaferro, Tillman, Warren, Wetmore, Bulkeley—33.

ABSENTEES.

The absentees were Senators Aldrich, Crawford, Frazier and Terrell of Georgia.

It was announced that had they been present Frazier would have voted aye, Terrell nay. There was no announcement about Aldrich. Senator Crawford entered after the roll call was completed, said he had been delayed by a stalled car, and would have voted aye.

WORK ALL NIGHT.

All night long the Senate struggled with the Lorimer case, the friends of the junior Illinois senator seeking to break down the determination of his opponents not to permit a vote unless important concessions were made to them in relation to important measures pending.

The basis for the proposed agreement is understood to be that a vote would be taken on the Lorimer case at a fixed hour Thursday and that at a later hour the same day a vote would be had on the permanent tariff board bill; that the amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill, proposing an increase of the postal rates on the advertising sections of magazines will be eliminated, and that still other concessions will be made.

PLAN DIVISION.

At one time it was suggested that an agreement might be reached by a division, which would permit a vote on the Canadian reciprocity agreement with a pledge in advance that enough members pledged to vote for the commercial pact would absent themselves and encompass its defeat.

The purpose of this suggestion was to avoid an extraordinary session if possible. It is not believed, however, that there will be any trade by which the Canadian reciprocity agreement will be sacrificed, although it is not likely that a

FOUR LOST IN NORTHERN WASTES

DAWSON, Y. T., Feb. 28.—A police expedition of four men which left Fort McPherson and Herschel Island in the Arctic Ocean, a week before Christmas, with police advices and mail from whalers, traders and trappers, has not yet arrived here, though the journey should have been made in thirty days.

The party, which was composed of Sergeant Fitzgerald and Constables Carter, Turner and Kinney, was met by a band of Indians just after Christmas. The white men had then lost the trail along the Lower Peel. An Indian guided them for five days to the entrance to the Wind River country, which is only fourteen days from Dawson. The Indian has since arrived in Dawson.

It may be that the policemen's dogs gave out and the men returned to Fort McPherson, or the party may have become lost again and gone into camp. A relief expedition has gone out from Dawson. Indians report one whaler at Herschel.

400 PERISH ON ICE FLOES AT SEA

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 28.—According to the official report of the fishing district in the Gulf of Finland, 600 persons were engaged fishing several miles off the shore of Lavensari Island when, on February 23, the ice broke from the shore and drifted away, carrying the fishermen with their families, horses and outfits far to sea.

Ice breakers were sent in pursuit. A three-days' search proved futile. In the meanwhile the floe broke into several parts, each bearing 40 or 50 persons. In the breakup many fell into the water and perished. Two parties totaling 120 persons were subsequently driven ashore. No news of the remainder has been received.

Woman Kills Negro Who Attacks Her

PARAGOULD, Ark., Feb. 28.—When Louis Meadows, colored, attacked Miss Emma Wilson, a white woman, in the hallway of a downtown business house yesterday she shot and killed him. Immediately following the shooting Miss Wilson surrendered to the sheriff. She is staying with the sheriff's family.

Hear Arguments In Rate Advance Cases

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Oral arguments were heard today by the Interstate Commerce Commission in two important cases involving advances in rates in the Western and Southwestern territories. The one concerned the increase on cement from Kansas producing points to Colorado common points, and the other was in the matter of the advance on live stock in states west of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers. In both instances the rates have been suspended.

Large interests, both railway and industrial, are affected by the cases, which have been pending for several months. It is scarcely likely that a determination of them will be reached before late in the approaching spring.

Red Necktie Brings About Dismissal of Assault Case

BOULDER, Colo., Feb. 28.—Carl Diamiani, a striking coal miner, who has been on trial for assault with intent to kill A. M. Brown, a mine guard, is enjoying his freedom today, and owes it to the color of his necktie.

Diamiama has been in the habit of wearing a red necktie. Practically all the witnesses for the prosecution knew him as the man with the red necktie. Carl's cousin Mike Diamiami, affects blue shades in his neckwear.

Carl conceived the plan of confusing the witnesses for the prosecution by changing neckties with Mike. Nearly every witness in the case at once identified Mike, who was in the courtroom, as the assailant of Brown, and even the district attorney was fooled, for Mike was placed under arrest at his command. After realizing his mistake the district attorney ordered the case dismissed.

$5,000 Petition Officials To Put Exposition in Park

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The executive committee of the Panama-Pacific Exposition Company held its first meeting since the victory over New Orleans in the Merchants' Exchange building this morning, and a preliminary discussion was held regarding a site for the fair. A petition, signed by 35,000 citizens, was presented, urging that the park be selected. Today's meeting was executive and no definite action of any kind was taken.

CITY COUNCIL DEBATES ON NEW AUDITORIUM SITE

EAST SIXTEENTH FRANCHISE REPORTED TO CITY COUNCIL

Committee of Whole Discovers That Coveted Grant Is Valuable, and Matter Is Not Recommended

Meeting in committee of the whole, the city council last night took up the consideration of the application of the Oakland Traction Company for a franchise in East Sixteenth street and the foothill boulevard in East Oakland, and incidentally of the failure of the company to place cars enough on the East Fourteenth street line to give efficient service. The application for the franchise was reported out of committee without recommendation, and will be taken up in open council next Monday night.

Before the franchise application is again taken under advisement, however, members of the city council will make a tour of inspection of the proposed route named in the application. It is understood that the franchise would give over to the traction company a portion of the route of the foothill boulevard, and would take away from the public for boulevard uses one of the few through avenues of traffic from central Oakland to the eastern limits of the annexed district.

FRANCHISE VALUABLE.

Councilman L. N. Cobbledick explained the situation to the committee of the whole. He said:

"I took the time to drive over the route of this proposed line and I have come to the conclusion that the franchise over it is a very important one. It is not pioneering to go into that territory. The population to make the line valuable is already there, and while it is important that they should be given service, the council should proceed slowly and carefully in this matter so as not to run the chance of giving away a valuable privilege lightly.

"The route runs from Thirteenth avenue out East Sixteenth diagonally through private property to Twenty-third avenue, out the old county road, through the Steinway terrace property as a continuation of the boulevard. In a real sense it could not be called a boulevard at all as there are places hard to navigate even with a horse and buggy. But it is a continuous street through a populous territory and could be converted into a boulevard.

TRAFFIC CONGESTED.

"The traffic on East Fourteenth street is badly congested, and this might relieve that condition to some extent. We must consider all these things carefully."

"The congested condition of the cars on East Fourteenth street is not due to there being but one line," declared Councilman Oliver Ellsworth. "The company does not place a sufficient number of cars on this line and as a consequence the cars are crowded. If the company tried to give efficient service by increasing the number of cars, that could be done and there would be less trouble. I think we should not permit extraneous matters and conditions to cloud our judgment in considering this line."

The application was reported back to the council without recommendation, and a resolution was made that every member of the council should personally inspect the route named in the application.

ELLIOT IS INVITED.

The absence of Councilman A. H. Elliot, which has been complained of by his confreres night after night, was observed with some displeasure by the council last night, as it has become habitual for Elliot to absent himself during the preliminary proceedings, and then to ask that matters are re-referred back to committee for his benefit.

"I move you that a special invitation be extended to Councilman Elliot," said Councilman A. P. Stiefvater, "for him to visit the territory through which this line is to run. I move that the clerk notify Mr. Elliot to be among those present. Then he can't kick afterward, and say he did not know anything about the matter."

The motion was carried. If the application is finally granted a fight will be made in council headed by Councilman M. R. Bronner, to have a provision in it to permit mail carriers while in uniform to ride free on the cars. Councilman Bronner brought the matter up in connection with the final granting of the franchise to the Oakland Traction Company for a line on Grand, or Ninetieth avenue.

WOULD DEFINE "ON DUTY."

"The Oakland Traction Company is not an eleemosynary institution," responded Attorney E. W. Engs. "The postmen are permitted to ride when on duty, but I do not know that they should be permitted to ride at other times."

"I presume that you consider a man is on duty when he is carrying his mail bag," said Councilman Bronner. "But it is very often the case that he is on duty, or on his way to his work when he may not have his bag with him. I shall make an attempt to have a clause protecting him placed in the franchise."

TRACTION COMPANY EXPLAINS DELAY IN PAVING

Failure to Improve Market Street Criticized by City Council.

HARDSHIP ON PEOPLE MAY BE ELIMINATED

Necessity of Paying for Work After Completion to Be Done Away With.

Having been cited to explain to the City Council why the paving of Market street along the car line had not been completed after months of delay, the Oakland Traction Company, represented by Chief Engineer E. M. Boggs, stated last night that the contractors doing the work for the property owners had not completed their share until late in the season and as rain was expected at that time the paving between the rails was put off. He also stated that the company was busily engaged in reconstructing the Broadway lines at that time and that the work required their whole attention. It was assured that within three or four weeks the job would be undertaken.

Nevertheless, it is unjust to the property owners to keep them waiting so long after the other part of the contract has been accepted by the Superintendent of Streets," said Councilman Steifvater.

"The cars stir up a large amount of dust along Market street owing to the present condition of the thoroughfare and it is too bad that we cannot compel the traction company to complete their share. This is about the only city in the country where a corporation could be delinquent in this manner."

"The people are compelled to pay for the work as soon as the Superintendent of Streets has accepted same and before it is entirely finished. The council cannot accept it until the whole street has been completed."

CALL IT HARDSHIP.

That brought before the body a condition of affairs which, it was stated, has wrought a hardship on property owners in various parts of the city on numerous occasions.

"I desire to introduce a resolution which will provide that owners will not be liable to payment until the whole of the street has been accepted," said Councilman Bronner. "It will eliminate a great deal of trouble and dissatisfaction when it comes to the payment of bills for the work, to which in several cases exception has been taken. I would have it so that owners are not forced to pay for the work until the whole has been accepted by the Council."

Councilman Vose stated that the same trouble had been experienced on East Fourteenth street, where several months had elapsed between acceptance by the Superintendent of Streets and final action by the Council. Property owners had been forced to pay interest on their share dating from the first action to the time of the Council's accepting of the street and also pay costs of taking out liens, all of which added materially to the expense of improving the street.

BLANKET FRANCHISE.

The franchises applied for some weeks ago by the Oakland Traction Company under a blanket franchise were again asked for in applications segregating the different lines into separate propositions and laid before the Council last night. The applications were referred to the railroad committee.

Each of the applications asks for a 35-year grant. The omnibus application made several weeks ago was turned down by the Council on the ground that an undesirable franchise might be railroaded through under favor of a more desirable one. The company has seen fit to separate the various lines applied for into the districts in which each is asked. The applications are for the following:

Clay street, from San Pablo avenue to Eighth street.

Market street, from San Pablo to Fifty-eighth street.

DEATH CURVE WILL BE ELIMINATED BY S. P. CO.

Notice of Proposed Move Was Given Council at Last Night's Meeting.

PLANNING FOR FOUR-TRACK ARCH THERE

Danger of Accident Will Soon Be Minimized at Point Long a Menace.

"Death curve," the well-known danger point on the Southern Pacific main line and Berkeley local line from Sixteenth street to the Oakland mole, is to be replaced by the company with a curve of much wider arc. The change will increase the efficiency of the railroad and insure the safety of the traveling public.

Notice of the proposed improvement was given the city council last night in the form of an application for a franchise covering the route of the proposed change. The matter was referred to the railroad committee.

By a provision of the city harter, covering applications for changes in route of rights-of-way already granted the period of revised franchise shall be the same as that of the original grant, and for this reason the application filed last night was for a term of fifty years. This may be reduced so that the life of the proposed changed route will end with that of the Oakland mole franchise.

The application filed last night asks for a four-track franchise on the curve. This sharp turn of the railroad, where the swing is made into the mole from Sixteenth street, has been the scene of several accidents, and is considered a dangerous strip of track by railroad men. The change will make a more gradual turn by swinging a wider arc out toward the bay shore, partially on reclaimed land.

The change is in conformance with the general plans for the electrizing of the local system, and will be made to swing into the proposed new Sixteenth station. The road is described as follows:

From western line of Bay street curving to left and crossing private property and intervening streets to a point 304 feet westerly at right angles from western line of Cedar street and also distant 5 feet southerly from the northern line of Eighth street if produced westerly; thence northerly in a straight line, crossing private property and intervening streets to the right-of-way near Sixteenth street."

AUDITORIUM SITE SUGGESTED BY COUNCIL

Favor Location in Peralta Park South of Twelfth Street Causeway.

$500,000 BOND ISSUE WILL BE NECESSARY

Asserted That Building Would Harmonize With Plans for Beautifying Tract.

A resolution passed by the city council last night provided that $500,000 be incorporated in the contemplated bond issue for the construction of a municipal auditorium. Upon recommendation of the Park Commissioners and the special committee of the council the building will probably occupy a site in Peralta Park, south of the Twelfth street dam. It was pointed out that the location would in no way conflict with the general scheme for beautifying the lake front.

Councilmen Ellsworth and Steifvater objected to that site, complaining that the extra cost for constructing a foundation would detract considerably from the efficiency of the amount provided in the bond issue. Ellsworth intimated that he would oppose the plan of locating the auditorium in Peralta Park, suggesting that other squares in the city were more suitable. Councilman Vose said:

"It should be located there, for it would not destroy the beauty of the lake and I think that site the most practical of any in the city."

Soundings made in that vicinity several years ago determined that firm ground existed about 30 feet beneath the surface and that a pile foundation could be built within the limits of the $500,000.

HOBSON'S SPY BILL PASSES THE SENATE

Measure to Prevent the Disclosure of National Defense Secrets.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Hobson bill to prevent the disclosure of national defense secrets, which has passed the house, was passed by the senate without discussion.

The measure is commonly known as the "spy" bill, and provides that persons unlawfully gathering information concerning any part of the national defenses shall be subjected to a fine of not more than $1000 or imprisonment for not more than a year, or both.

If the communication is communicated to a foreign government or any attempt is made so to dispose of it, a penalty of not more than ten years' imprisonment is provided.

'OLD BILL' MINER STILL IN GAME

Early-Day Bad Man Breaks Out of Prison and Resumes Career of Crime.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—That "Old Bill" Miner, second only to Jesse James in notoriety as a train robber, was one of the White Sulphur, Ga., bandits arrested at Gainesville, Ga., last Thursday, was asserted at the bureau of identification of the National Detective Agency here today. Miner was notorious for a decade as one of the "bad men" of the Northwest. He was sentenced to life imprisonment several years ago at Vancouver, B. C., for robbery of Dominion express trains. He escaped in 1908.

NOT ENOUGH COIN SO WIFE LEFT HUSBAND

Howard Ray Robbins of Berkeley has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Tillie Robbins stewardess of the Athens Hotel, on the ground of willful desertion. The couple were married in San Rafael in 1905 and according to Robbins' testimony in the Superior Court his wife left him in November, 1909. Her complaint was, Robbins told Judge William H. Waste, that he was not making enough money for them to live on. She said she was leaving home to go to work and would probably return to Robbins in about six months. At the expiration of that time Mrs. Robbins was asked by her husband several times to return to him, he claimed, but each time she declared that the separation would have to be final.

COMSTOCK BARS NUDITY IN WAX

Modest Anthony Orders Lingerie-Draped Figures Taken From Windows.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The latest activity of Anthony Comstock, secretary of the Society for the Suppression of Vice, is against the wax figures which pose in the show windows of lingerie dealers and dry goods merchants along Broadway and Fifth avenue.

As a result of several complaints received by his society, Comstock announces that he has served notices on the offending merchants that the figures must be removed. He informed the dealers that they would be liable to be arrested and tried, and, if convicted, to fine and imprisonment, if they permitted the wax women to appear any longer in public. The merchants, it is said, promptly agreed to comply with Comstock's wishes.

UNITY CHAPTER WILL ENTERTAIN

Eastern Star Has Tonight as Guest of Honor, Prominent Official.

Unity chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, will tonight at their regular bi-monthly meeting in Alcatraz hall, West Oakland, have an important official visitation made to them by Emma Blanchard, deputy grand matron of the Sixteenth district. For the occasion many preparations have been made, the hall being beautifully decorated with flags and flowers. Elaborate plans of entertainment have been arranged.

FRIENDLESS BOY TAKEN UNDER POLICE WING

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—His attention attracted by a woe begone expression on the face of a little newsboy shivering in the cold at the ferry building, at 6 o'clock this morning, Policeman Thomas W. Maloney accosted the lad and learned a pitiful story. The boy, who said his name is Alfred Smith, 10 years old, told Maloney that he had arrived in this city Sunday, accompanied by a man named Kelly and the latter's wife, and had put up at a local hotel.

Last night Kelly had left town, giving him $2 and telling him to shift for himself. He declared he had no other friend but the man who left him, and that he had never known father nor mother. The officer took pity on him and took him to the station, from whence he was sent to the detention home.

STORM BUFFETED VESSELS ARRIVE

Drop Anchor in Oakland Harbor After Tempestuous Voyages Along Coast.

The schooner Santa Monica from Gray's Harbor, Captain Olsen, docked at Long Wharf yesterday afternoon, unloading a portion of her cargoes of lumber for the Southern Pacific company. Later the went to the Sunset Lumber Company wharf.

While the Santa Monica was at Long Wharf a drunken sailor, George Peterson, fell off the end of the pier, and but for the efforts of some lumber hands, who threw him a rope, would have drowned.

The wind-jammer F. M. Slade, Captain Johnson, docked at the City wharf yesterday with 1000 tons of coal for the J. P. Taylor company. She was eighty-two days out from Newcastle, Australia, and stopped at San Francisco on her way. In high winds encountered on the passage she lost part of her upper works.

The Brunswick, Captain Hammer, unloader lumber for the Union Lumber company at Long wharf yesterday. She came from Fort Bragg and ran into tremendous seas in the big wind storm of Sunday. No damage was done.

The Talac, Captain Hansen, is loading cement at Long Wharf for Seattle. The Aberdeen is also at Long wharf taking on a miscellaneous cargo for Field's Landing, Humboldt county.

FRANK E. HERING TANGLED IN SUIT

Wife No. 1 Sues Incumbent for Alienation of Husband's Affections.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 28. — For the alleged alienation of the affections of Frank E. Hering, his bride of one year, Mrs. Clarabella Orton Hering, was sued for $50,000 damages in the Circuit Court by Mrs. Florence M. Hering, who secured a divorce from Hering sixteen months ago.

Hering has just retired as national president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. He was formerly prominent in State Democratic politics and last fall supported Theodore A. Bell for Governor of California.

The present Mrs. Hering was the widow of William Osgood Orton, who was a famous Yale football player.

The complaint does not blame Hering, but Mrs. Hering is accused of having used artifice, cunning and temptation to allure and alienate his affections from his wife.

It is claimed that as a result Hering became so abusive a divorce was imperative.

The present Mrs. Hering is alleged to have paid frequent visits before her marriage to the office of Hering and to have left the city at intervals in his company. Following the death of Orton in August, 1908, she is declared to have put forth every effort to separate Mr. Hering and his wife.

The complaint recounts the plaintiff secured a divorce in October, 1909, and that the defendant married him about eighty days later in Milwaukee.

SUITS AGAINST WATER COMPANY TO BE DISMISSED

Councilman Ellsworth Asks City Attorney to Prepare an Opinion on the Subject

Dismissal of the water rate suits brought by the Contra Costa Company and the Peoples Water Company against the city of Oakland, which have cost Oakland in the past nine years over $500,000, is foreshadowed in a decision handed down by Judge W. W. Morrow of the United States court of appeals, in the opinion of Councilman Oliver Ellsworth. If this decision, as Ellsworth believes, is applicable to the Oakland situation, the litigation of the past decade will be definitely closed. Oakland will have won her case.

TO PREPARE OPINION.

A resolution was put through the council last night by Councilman Ellsworth instructing the city attorney and the special corps of attorneys representing the city in the water cases to obtain a copy of Judge Morrow's decision, and prepare an opinion as to whether it would not apply to the cases now pending against Oakland in the circuit court. The decision, according to the information given to Councilman Ellsworth, was to the effect that the federal courts had not jurisdiction in certain proceedings analogous to those from Oakland, coming up in this instance to the court from Seattle, Wash.

"This is a very important matter," declared Councilman Ellsworth. "If it be true that this decision removes jurisdiction in water rate matters from the federal court, as I have been led to believe, then a motion to dismiss is in order from Oakland. The statute of limitations has run against the water suits in the state courts, and I believe there would be no recourse for the water company but to refund the difference between the rates charged by them and those fixed by the city, which would mean in the aggregate to the consumers a refund of many thousands of dollars.

COSTLY LITIGATION.

"But of almost more importance to the city than this refund would be the relief from the heavy expense of litigation, which has been piling up from year to year. From $45,000 to $48,000 has been expended annually by the company in prosecuting its fight against the city. This is charged to operating expenses and according to state law, the expenses are included in the data for the fixing of rates, and the company is paid by the consumer the costs of counsel.

FOUR SUITS PENDING.

There are at present four suits pending by the water company against the city which would be affected by the Morrow ruling, if Councilman Ellsworth is correct in his information that the cases are analogous to those decided by the United States court of appeals. When the city council in 1904 fixed the water rates, the company protested that they were so low as to be confiscatory, and obtained an order in court restraining the city from enforcing the rates fixed. The restraining order thus embodied not only a raising of the rates, but an attack upon the city's rate-fixing power.

Both to gain a refund of what was considered an overcharge and also to uphold the principle that the city had the right to fix the rates, the city accepted the challenge, and the matter has been appealed and carried to higher courts and reappealed and demurred to until there are thick volumes of briefs and opinions devoted exclusively to the Oakland water rate cases.

RESOLUTION BY ELLSWORTH.

The resolution fathered by Councilman Ellsworth was as follows:

"Resolved, That the city attorney and city special attorneys be and are hereby instructed to notify this council, whether in his judgment under the recent decision of the United States court of appeals, rendered by Judge W. W. Morrow, affecting certain proceedings coming up from Seattle, Wash., the suits now pending in the United States circuit court, wherein injunctions have been issued against this council enjoining it from establishing certain water rates, cannot be dismissed for want of jurisdiction."

INDIANS BURIED ON BATTLEFIELD

Youthful Squaw and Papooses Captured Are Puzzle for Authorities.

RENO, Nev., Feb. 28.—Captain J. P. Donnelly of the state police and his possee will arrive late today at Golconda, Nev., from the scene of the Indian battle of Sunday.

The bodies of the Indians were buried yesterday on the battlefield. The body of Ed Hogle the member of the posse killed by the Indians, will be taken to Eagleville, Cal., for interment. Hogle was 27 years of age and was soon to have been married.

Coroner Buckley will hold an inquest at Golconda. What disposition will be made of the 16-year-old squaw and three papooses taken prisoners has not as yet been determined.

SANITARY DISTRICT MAY COST $100,000

On the recomendation of the drainage and sanitary committees the city council last night directed the city attorney to prepare resolutions and ordinances for the creation of a sewer district in Elmhurst for the construction of sanitary sewers, the same to be paid for by bonds to be called for at an election in this district.

This will create perhaps the largest sanitary sewer district in the State and will alleviate a very unhealthy and dangerous condition. This work may involve a bond issue amounting to approximately $100,000.

PLAGUE RAGING IN MANCHURIA

Two Hundred Victims Succumb Daily to Dread Disease.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 28.—Pestilence, about 50 miles from Harbin, is being ravaged by the plague. The deaths there are reported to number 200 daily.

The disease is raging at Kirin, Hulancho, opposite Harbin, and at Bodume, 100 miles southeast of the Manchurian capital.

Bread riots have occurred throughout the stricken district. The foreign consuls are preparing to leave. Troops have refused to march into the plague places and martial law has been declared.

The Chinese emperor has reprimanded the Manchurian authorities for not having dealt more energetically with the situation. The far eastern press is filled with apprehension of a recrudescence of Boxerism.

Eight Horned Owls Attack Gamekeeper

PITTSBURG, Feb. 28.—Attacked by eight big horned owls, which were enraged when he disturbed a female on a setting of eggs, Assistant Keeper Frank Luddeake battled against the owls powering odds in a small cage at Riverview Park Zoo, North Side, until other keepers heard his screams, and dragged him out, torn and bleeding from a hundred wounds.

PEARL BUTTON FACTORY HANDS OUT OF WORK

MUSCATINE, Ia., Feb. 28.—Two hundred operatives in the pearl button factories are idle. Saturday evening notices were posted in all but three of the largest factories and most of the smaller ones announcing a suspension of work for an indefinite time. Manufacturers declare overproduction is responsible for the steps. Members of the newly organized Button Workers' Union say it is a move against that organization.

HEIRESS WILL WED HEIR TO CROCKER MILLIONS

Miss Helene Irwin Today Becomes Bride of C. Templeton Crocker.

ARCHBISHOP RIORDAN IS TO OFFICIATE

Ceremony Will Take Place at 4 O'clock This Afternoon in San Francisco.

id the four bridesmaids, Miss Julia ingham of Ione, Miss Marion Newhall, ss Marion Zellie and Miss Mary ency. All are beautiful girls and ll present a rare picture.

Gowns of Bridesmaids

The bridesmaids will be gowned in pink satin, veiled in a delicate harmonizing shade of mauve in mousseline de soie. Small hats will be worn, trimmed in orchids and mauve tulle, and flower muffs will complete the costumes.

Miss Crocker's Gown

Miss Jennie Crocker's gown will iffer but little from the quartet of ridesmaids. She will wear pink ulon made with insertions of rare ce with a hat in delicate shades of ink.

The Bride's Dress

The bride, who is of brunette eauty, will wear white satin made with an overdress of silver. The long ourt train will be of cloth and silver lovely embroidered in pearls. The bodice and skirt will be trimmed with old point lace and over all the folds of the long bridal veil will fall to the hem of the gown, while a shower bouquet of orchids will be carried.

In spite of the elaborate setting, the wedding will not be marked by the ostentatious display which often makes large New York weddings so spectacular.

After the Ceremony

Immediately following the ceremony in which the priests of the Cathedral parish will assist Archbishop Riordan, the young couple will proceed to the reception hall to receive congratulations from their friends. Here, priceless art works collected from two continents are gathered and a small fortune has been expended in the decorations where, besides orchids, festoons of roses will be suspended, the same flower being garlanded at the sides of the curved balustrades of the stairway, which is rarely carved.

The marriage which unites two fortunes that will top the twenty-million mark, has as one of its displays the gorgeous presents beginning with the million dollar check given the bride by her father and the gift of the Crocker country seat, "Uplands," by the groom, and including in its list priceless jewels, bric-a-brac, silver and gold ornaments, crystals, glass and some wonderful china and presents of every kind and description.

Many families went to San Francisco yesterday morning to remain for the wedding.

The Prominent Guests

Among other prominent guests are Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, whose gift was a valuable ring, their daughter, Hon. Mrs. John Ward, who presented a jewel studded gold purse, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rathbone.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence I. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens of Piedmont, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Martin and Mr. Van Renssalaer.

On the Honeymoon

The couple will stop at Santa Barbara on their honeymoon and will continue to Europe, where, during the coronation festivities, they will be the guests of Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid.

Both are young, the groom being 25 and the bride 23 years of age and the matrimonial alliance today will excite interest at home and abroad, being ideal from the standpoint of romance and finance and having the added advantage of representing the union of an American heiress with not only an American, but ever better than that, a Californian.

The bride's mother has given her an automobile and another costly gift is a rare necklace of emeralds and pearls from which a large emerald set in a network of exquisite pear shaped pearls is suspended.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS WILL BE AT CROCKER-IRWIN NUPTIALS

Distinguished guests at the Crocker-Irwin wedding in San Francisco this afternoon.

"THE GREATEST KIDNEY REMEDY ON EARTH" SAYS A GRATEFUL WOMAN.

I want to tell you how much good your Swamp-Root did me. About four years ago I suffered from what the doctors called fistula and for two years of that time I endured what no tongue can tell. I also had inflammation of the bladder and I tried doctors' medicines without receiving any help. Someone told me about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

After giving it a thorough trial, I received relief, so kept on using it and today I am a strong and well woman. If I ever feel badly or out of sorts I take Swamp-Root and it always straightens me out. I honestly believe that this medicine would cure all troubles you recommend it for and it is a pleasure for me to send my testimony and photograph to you. I think Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is one of the greatest medicines on earth.

Respectfully yours,
MRS. JOHN BAILEY,

ONE KILLED IN ELECTION FIGHT

Chicago Primaries Marked by Bloodshed in One Precinct.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—One killing and several less serious disturbances marked the municipal primaries today.

Arthur Quinn, son of James A. Quinn, the former city sealer and a well known politician, shot and killed Richard Clark, a union hodcarrier, in North Clark street, near West Chicago avenue, after the man had shot Quinn in the foot.

The shooting was the climax of an election row. Quinn is a leader of the Carter H. Harrison forces in the Twenty-second ward, and was acting as a special deputy sheriff.

Charles Fleming, an election inspector in the Sixth ward, was arrested on a charge of irregularity.

Election Commissioner Czarnecki ordered election clerks in the Eighteenth ward to remove their candidate's badges and commanded various inspectors to cease challenging voters.

DIRECT VOTE IS KILLED BY UNITED STATES SENATE

Resolution Is Quickly Voted Down After Filibuster That Lasts Throughout the Night

vote can be had in the Senate on this measure.

The Senate at 5:09 a. m. took a recess until 11 o'clock, Senator Bristow holding the floor. Unanimous consent for the recess was requested by Senator Bailey in order that important conferences might be held.

When the Senate convened at 11 o'clock it was stated that all efforts to effect a compromise had failed.

The battle over the resolution affecting Senator Lorimer's seat was exactly where it stood when the Senate recessed at 5:09 a. m., after its all-night session—where it stood, for that matter, yesterday morning.

Immediately after reconvening Senator Brown of Kansas rose to resume his fight against Lorimer.

WANTS NO COERCION.

He at once gave way to Senator Money, the Democratic caucus leader, who stated that the responsibility for the reciprocity situation lay with the Republicans. Not even the President, he said, by threats of an extra session, or otherwise, could coerce the Senate.

Senator Money said he had been informed that he took the position that he would not submit to any vote on reciprocity pre-arranged with a view of passing it. Mr. Money said he had no such feeling. He would be glad of a vote, whatever its result.

Senator Money concluded with an appeal for abandonment of the filibuster and the resumption of public business. He took occasion, however, to express his unyielding opposition to the permanent tariff board bill.

NEWLANDS FOR TARIFF.

Senator Newlands concurred in Mr. Money's view about the filibuster but expressed his desire to have the tariff board bill passed.

At 11:20 the senate adjourned until 11:50 a. m., to close the legislative day of yesterday and provide for the vote on the direct elections of senators set by agreement to follow the reading of the journal today.

From 8:15 until 10:30 o'clock today the chamber was deserted. Senators lost no time in getting away after the beginning of the recess, but they were not prompt in returning and the hour for reconvening which was 11 o'clock was rapidly approaching when they began to make their appearance on the floor and in their committee rooms.

For the most part they looked surprisingly fresh, considering the ordeal through which they had passed but showed great fatigue.

Most of the early arrivals were Democrats. They came to attend a party conference in which it was hoped a program might be agreed upon which would permit a disentanglement of the snarl.

The conference was called at the instance of Senator Stone, who insisted that before he would agree to any program he must have behind him a decision of his party in the senate.

The Missouri senator freely assumed responsibility for last night's failure to reach an understanding, and while he did not talk for publication he let his friends know that he would hold out indefinitely unless he could be assured of co-operation.

He said he was not willing to act on the individual responsibility of any one senator, meaning Senator Bailey.

WILLING TO SURRENDER

It appeared that Bailey had indicated a willingness to surrender his position against a vote on the tariff board providing a vote could be assured on the Lorimer resolution. Stone vigorously opposed Lorimer, and while he did not go so far as to say there should be no vote in that matter he indicated there should be a party concert. The Missourian was among the first to reach the conference room, but the Texan was not so prompt.

Vice-President Sherman, who had had sufficient time to go home and change from evening clothes to an ordinary business suit, was again in the chair when the senate resumed the session of Monday at 11 a. m. About fifty senators were in their places at this hour.

YIELDS TO BEVERIDGE.

Senator Bristow, who was acting as relief for Senator Crawford the leading filibusterer against the Lorimer resolution, was recognized by the Vice-President, but immediately yielded to Senator Beveridge, who wanted to know if the continuance of the legislative day of Monday past the hour of 12 o'clock noon would vitiate the special order for a vote on the direct election of senators fixed for that hour. The chair held that it would. Senator Nelson then moved that when an adjournment of Monday's session were taken it be to meet at 11:50 today. This was agreed to.

Senator Money of Mississippi pleaded with both sides not to delay action on important matters before the senate. He declared the President's announcement of an extra session must be taken as sincere, and he did not think the matter of a tariff board or the reciprocity agreement were of sufficient importance to tie up the public business.

NEWLANDS SPEAKS.

Senator Newlands also consumed time with a brief speech. He said he was for a tariff board and he did not believe it could embarrass the Democratic party in its revision of the tariff even if all its members were appointed by a Republican President.

Senator Gallinger at 11:20 moved adjournment until 11:50 o'clock and it was ordered.

During the interval between adjournment and the reconvening of the senate it was ascertained that the Democratic conference served no purpose except to develop the fact that any agreement on a legislative program was quite out of the question.

In the secret meeting expression against an understanding was emphatic. A number of Democratic senators expressed the view that as the senate was Republican by a two-thirds majority that party should be left to work out its own problems without the aid of the Democracy.

MAKES VIEWS KNOWN.

The meeting also afforded Senator Stone an opportunity to make his views known. He not only wanted the advice of his party friends, but confessed to anxiety lest an agreement to vote on the Lorimer resolution and the tariff board bill might also involve a vote on the reciprocity bill. Senator Stone voiced the opinion that that vote might mean its defeat.

At 11:50 o'clock the new legislative day began in the usual way with prayer by the chaplain and the reading of the journal.

During the reading a number of members of the house came into the senate chamber, prominent among them being Champ Clark of Missouri and Ollie James of Kentucky two of the Democratic leaders. It was 12:10 o'clock when the journal was completed.

BORAH GRATIFIED.

Senator Borah, who has been in charge of the resolution for the election of senators by direct vote, was gratified over the result notwithstanding he lacked four votes of getting the requisite two-thirds.

Senator Lorimer now rose unexpectedly and the entire senate was attention while those in the galleries craned their necks. He presented telegrams in substantiation of his assertion that Governor Deneen had undertaken to organize the Illinois legislature in 1909.

Following Mr. Lorimer Senator Stone took the floor. He protested against the action of Senator Brandegee in the chair last night in putting to a vote the motion of Senator Bailey, that when a vote was reached on the Lorimer resolution it should be taken by the yeas and nays, and had the effect of stopping debate when the time for taking of the vote arrives.

Mr. Stone then turned to the Lorimer case. He was still speaking at 3:15 o'clock and there was nothing to indicate an intention to cease.

During the afternoon it developed that Senator LaFollette was the chief obstacle to fixing a time for a vote on Lorimer. It was said he was not unwilling to have a vote, but unwilling to have a vote but unwilling to go on record as agreeing to fixing a definite time.

STRANGER PROVES THIEF.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—George Morr, of 1205 Laguna street, notified the police that he had met a stranger at Market and McAllister streets and had gone with him to visit a poolroom where the pair were joined by two other men and that he was mulcted out of $255. A description of the culprits was furnished to the officers.

A woman is most successful with man by letting him think the success is his.

Boynton's Constitutional Amendment Passed Senate

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—Late in the morning the Senate plunged into a debate over Senator Boynton's constitutional amendment providing for a verdict in criminal cases, except those involving the death penalty or life imprisonment, on a verdict of ten out of twelve jurors.

Senator Finn made his maiden speech in the Senate against the measure, but the San Francisco delegation was not a unit in the final vote. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 21 to 9.

Senators Tyrrell, Ifurd, Estudillo, Jullhard and Larkins spoke against the theory of the amendment.

Senators Gates, Curtin, Burnett, Rosebery, Shanahan, Cartwright and Boynton upheld it.

HOW THIN FOLKS CAN GET FLESHY

New Accidental Discovery Gives Startling Results—Puts Flesh on Thin People and Rounds Out Imperfect Figures.

Simple Prescription Given.

For women—and men too, for that matter—who can never appear stylish with anything they wear, because of abnormal thinness and angularity, this remarkable prescription is destined to solve the problem. As a beauty maker for the figure it is simply wonderful, while it adds brightness to the eyes, and color to the cheeks and lips. It requires no particular dieting, but acts as an aid to nature by its peculiar action on the nerves and blood supply. The blood and nerves distribute over the body all the nourishment or flesh building elements obtained from the food. The trouble with thin people has always been that they do not absorb or retain enough of the fleshy matter to make them gain in weight even to a normal extent; but this new discovery of blending certain harmless drugs is a revelation to science, and hundreds have gained from ten to forty pounds in a few weeks. There is no danger of becoming too fat. When you get the right weight then stop using.

The general health and strength is greatly improved in anyone from the age of sixteen to sixty. Women soon get plump, with well rounded arms and full bust and men become straight, strong-looking and healthy.

In a half pint bottle get three ounces of essence of pepsin and three ounces syrup of rhubarb. Then add one ounce compound essence cardiol, shake and let stand two hours. Then add one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamon.) Take a teaspoonful before and after meals and weigh before beginning.

ARGONAUTS GATHER AT REUNION FEAST

Men Who Came to State on First Steamer Recount Experiences.

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—A half dozen surviving pioneers who were passengers on the first steamer to San Francisco in 1849 were guests at a reunion and banquet given by Dr. Samuel H. Willey, former president of the University of California, at Berkeley Inn this afternoon. It was the sixty-second anniversary of the arrival of the pioneers.

Speeches full of reminiscences were features of the program.

Among the guests invited were H. F. Williams, General W. H. Pratt, J. B. Price, and A. C. Mack. Dr. Willey was the oldest of these, having been born in 1821. Mack was born in 1823.

HAYWARD PUPILS IN VAUDEVILLE STUNTS TONIGHT

HAYWARD, Feb. 28.—Everything is in readiness for the up-curtain on the society vaudeville show to be presented tonight by the members of the junior class of the Hayward high school, assisted by Oakland talent, under the direction of Hal Angus, who has successfully staged several productions here. For more than a month those who are to take part in the production have been rehearsing earnestly and the production promises to be a success.

When the curtain raises Louis Lagoria, composer of "Little Miss Someone From Somewhere," which was presented last Wednesday night under the auspices of the Oakland Club, will open the program in original songs, assisted by the clever little dancer, Miss Retta Potter. Lodi and Joe Hunt will appear in the sketch, "The Swell Cracksman," while George Damais and Moylan-Fox will present a bunch of laughs in comedy and acrobatic feats entitled "In Jungle Town." Edward Lemiert, known throughout this State for his clever impersonations of Hebrew and German characters, will display his skill.

Miss Helen Cutting, who has a pleasing voice, and Hal Angus will appear in a potpourri of songs and dances, including all the latest hits. Various musical instruments will be played by Hunt and Sargeant and Myrtle Kelsey and G. Nielsen will sing and dance in costume the popular songs. The one-act farce, "Who's Who, or All In a Fog," will be presented by the members of the junior class.

CLUB TO RECEIVE COLLEGE STUDENTS

Large Reception Planned for Tonight at Newman Clubhouse in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—A reception, for which 700 invitations have been sent out, will be tendered tonight by the active members and alumni of the Newman Club to the Catholic college students of the university, at the clubhouse on Ridge road.

The final plans for this, the largest affair held in the new club building on the northwest Berkeley slopes, were arranged at a joint meeting of the club's social committee, comprised of undergraduates and a committee from the Alumni Council.

The California branch of the Alumni Council, which is a national organization, was but recently organized at the Newman Club.

Dr. M. C. Lynch of the Department of Law at the University of California is president of the Alumni Council and Tone R. Gray, San Francisco, is president of the Newman Club. The alumni committee assisting with the reception plans comprises Miss Abrira Johnson, Miss Margaret Nesfield, Miss Agnes Cleary, Miss Edith Carew, Miss Mary Thompson, Miss Alma Tobin, Thomas Chace, William J. Hayes, Stanislaus Riley and J. R. Riordan.

The officers and executive committee of both the active and alumni organization will assist in receiving the guests.

The committee for the Alumni Council comprises the Misses Helen Weber, Mary Connelly, Marie Tibbets, Margaret Hurley, Marie Mitchell, Ellen Ord and Tone R. Gray; William Conlin, Alexander Leonard, Adolph Van Maren and Edward Harrison.

PROFESSOR FRYER MAY ESTABLISH BLIND SCHOOL

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb 28.—Professor John Fryer, Agassiz professor of Oriental languages and literature at the university, declines to discuss the report published several weeks ago that he is to found a new college for the blind in China. He says, however, that he may go to China this summer to look over the ground.

It is said that he has already been promised an endowment. There are now but two small blind schools in China.

Professor Fryer is 72 years of age and has been connected with the State University for 20 years. He has spent half of his life in China, having been professor of English at Ting Wen University at Peking, and later translator for the Chinese government at the imperial arsenal at Shanghai. In 1884 he was appointed viceroy's examiner at the imperial naval college at Nanking.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THEFT OF DYNAMITE

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—R. R. Smith of the Contra Costa Construction Company, 2328 Shattuck avenue, reported today the theft of dynamite caps and fuse belonging to the company from a store house at the foot of Camelia street on the West Berkeley beach, some time last night. Entrance to the structure was gained by breaking a lock off the door. It is believed that the dynamite, of which fifty pounds were taken, was carried off in a row boat which appeared to have been used.

AGREES WITH JUDGE; ESCAPES SENTENCE

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—Howard Murphy, a youth, charged with disturbing the peace by Charles Minton, a clerk in Al Zeimer's cigar store and pool room on Center street, escaped serving a three-months' sentence this morning when Judge Edgar postponed the sentence until May 24, on condition that Murphy keep out of billiard parlors for that length of time. The defendant showed his satisfaction to the arrangement, and said that he would make money by carrying out the conditions.

WORKING WOMEN

Here Is a Helping Hand; A Newton Woman's Experience.

You know just how it is yourself—when you are tired out, perhaps a little run down, and hardly able to drag around. Life is a burden. You are irritable, nervous, depressed and every little task seems like a mountain.

Miss Katharine Burns of Newton, Mass., says. "About six months ago I was in a run-down condition and my blood was very poor. I had taken several medicines prescribed by physicians, and they seemed to do me no good. Finally Vinol was recommended, and from the first bottle I noticed a great improvement. I have taken six bottles and I feel as well as ever, and I would recommend Vinol to anybody needing a good tonic to build them up and make them strong." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

We want to ask every woman who finds herself in this condition to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not help them.

We know Vinol will create an appetite, aid digestion, make pure, rich blood, and in this way build up and strengthen the run-down, overworked, nervous system. You take no chances. Try it. The Owl Drug Company, Oakland, Cal.

F. J. WOODWARD IS NOT TO BE A CANDIDATE

Well Known Business Man Declines to Enter Race for Mayoralty of Berkeley.

IN LETTER OUTLINES REASONS FOR REFUSAL

Chosen President of Newly Organized League for Good Government.

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—Although a demand came from all parts of Berkeley for Frank J. Woodward to become a candidate for mayor, and returns were coming in rapidly from the canvass of the city in his favor, Woodward last night gave his decision not to run, when interviewed at his home, 2102 Piedmont avenue, in this city.

In a letter which he had prepared and addressed to George H. Richardson, president of the Citizens' Progressive League, he gave his reasons for declining the nomination.

Woodward said he believed the best interests of all would be conserved by his refusal, and by the permanent organization of the Citizens' Progressive League, which was formed to promote his candidacy.

MUNICIPAL BETTERMENT.

He outlined a tentative platform for the organization, calling for a more efficient fire department, more lights in the residential districts, more policemen, and more progressiveness on the part of public service corporations; clean streets and sidewalks, and a more satisfactory method for the disposition of garbage.

A dozen members of the Progressive League, headed by President Richardson, called at the Woodward home to receive his decision, and the letter was read to them.

In compliance with Woodward's suggestion, steps were taken to make the organization permanent.

WOODWARD PRESIDENT.

On motion of C. A. Sherman, Woodward was unanimously chosen as president of the league, following the resignation of Richardson, who desired that Woodward's efforts and policies be embraced by the organization.

Woodward accepted, and will preside at the first meeting of the new civic body at 2011 Shattuck avenue tomorrow evening, when preliminary organization will be effected. The league has more than 400 members at present.

LETTER OF DECLINATION.

Woodward's letter declining the mayoralty nomination follows:

Berkeley, Cal.,
February 2, 1911.

To Mr. George H. Richardson, President Citizens' Progressive League, Berkeley, Cal.:

My Dear Mr. Richardson—I have given a great deal of thought during the past few days to the request of yourself and the other gentlemen who called upon me at my home, asking that I consent to become a candidate for the office of mayor.

I can not tell you how much I appreciate your kind offices and how gladly I would like to be of service to our beautiful city of Berkeley and her loyal citizens, did I feel that the best interests of all would be conserved by my so doing, but after a careful consideration of the matter I cannot bring myself to a realization that such is the fact, and with a heart full of gratitude for the confidence reposed in me by you and the many good citizens who have joined with you in the request that I become your candidate, I feel that the right course is for me to decline.

GOOD WORD FOR MAYOR.

Our present mayor, Mr. Hodghead, a candidate for re-election, has, in my judgment, "made good" and is therefore entitled to another term should he wish it. During the past two years in the administration of the city under our new charter he has governed us well, and while many of us may feel that certain departments of the city government have not been given all the efficiency necessary for the proper safeguarding of our homes, let us hope that our city fathers will without any further or unnecessary delay, give us a thoroughly equipped and efficient fire department, more lights in the residential districts, let us see a policeman occasionally in our respective neighborhoods, see to it that our public service corporations keep abreast of the times and growth of our beautiful city, adopt a thorough and efficient campaign for clean streets and sidewalks, properly covered garbage wagons and a satisfactory method for the disposition of the refuse they gather, in other words, a period of action and progress—not content with the present but in an earnest desire and determination for better things.

Now that the proposed annexation to Oakland has been voted down, and rightfully in my judgment, let us not be afraid of a few extra cents in our tax levy (provided they are necessary) and have the protection and comfort to which we are entitled and will receive, I am sure, from our present mayor and his able lieutenants.

Again thanking you for your kindness and expressions of confidence in asking me to be your candidate, I must decline, feeling that the best interests of all will be conserved, and assuring you of my earnest hope that the "Citizens' Progressive League of Berkeley" will perfect its permanent organization, and that I may have the privilege of entering myself, as a private in the ranks for all that is good for Berkeley, I subscribe myself, my dear sir,

Faithfully yours,
(Signed) F. J. WOODWARD.

HODGHEAD RALLY.

While the Progressive League conference was in progress at the Woodward home, the first campaign rally of the Hodghead forces was being held at Masonic Temple.

Arthur Arlett presided and speeches eulogistic of the Hodghead administration were delivered by L. H. Lewars, Earl H. Webb and Oscar T. Barlar.

Lewars declared that Hodghead had been a mayor for all of Berkeley, and not for any particular section.

SPEECH BY HODGHEAD.

Mayor Hodghead in a speech which was punctuated by applause, declared that he had once made up his mind not to run a second time, but had been persuaded by his friends to be a candidate, and he accepted with the belief that he might be of further use to the city.

"I place confidence in these people who have asked me to again take office," he said, "and I am encouraged to continue activity. If I am supposed to represent a faction or favor my own district to the neglect of other section of the city, my purpose has been misconstrued. My administration has not been and shall not be one of favoritism. We must make a success of the new charter, the fame of which has become wide throughout the west."

The Hodghead Club was organized with Arthur Arlett as president; Clyde Abbott, first vice-president; Benjamin Bither, second vice-president; Professor Guerdon Bradley, third vice-president, and Dr. C. P. Price, secretary.

MEESE FILES FIRST PETITION UNDER CHARTER

Candidate for Commissionership No. 1 Goes on Record.

VEITCH MAY SEEK OFFICE, IS REPORT

Five Declarations of Candidacy Are Handed to City Clerk.

The first petition of nomination to be filed under the new charter was presented to the city clerk today by Edwin Meese, city treasurer, with approximately 100 signatures certified. Meese stated this morning that he had not planned to be the first to file his petition of nomination, but that friends had been coming to him so fast that he had decided to close the proceedings before he should be swamped with signatures. He is a candidate for commissionership No. 1.

VEITCH MAY RUN.

Rumor was on the street today that W. T. Veitch, head of the prominent firm of Oakland contractors of that name, would come out for Commissionership No. 4.

Five declarations of candidacy were filed with the city clerk today. Councilman Harold Everhart filed his declaration as a candidate for commissionership No. 4, and Stuart W. Booth, editor of the Oakland Times, filed on the same number. G. E. Aitken also declared himself for fourth place in the commissionerships.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

Frank E. Covey filed a declaration of candidacy for school director No. 1 and Charles Quayle filed on the fourth place among the school director nominations.

This brings the total of candidates up to date to 31, and a host of men who have planned to run have not yet filed their papers. Indications point to the short municipal ballot being a rather lengthy paper at the primaries.

BOOTBLACK IS ARRESTED AS OLD MAN'S ASSAILANT

BERKELEY, Feb. 28. — Daniel C. Smith of 2247 Grant street, who was a gymnasium instructor in the old California College of Oakland, which preceded the State University yesterday caused the arrest of Alfred A. Kenzie, a bootblack in the rear of 2147 Center street, on a charge of battery. Smith is 76 years old.

He told Judge Robert Edgar in swearing to a complaint that he was talking to Kenzie about a patent which he (Smith) was working upon. Kenzie made some disparaging remarks, to which Smith replied by saying the other was "foolish." Then Kenzie, it is alleged, struck the aged man, knocking off his eyeglasses and hat.

Kenzie was released on $20 bail and was arraigned in the Justice Court this afternoon.

ENTERTAINING GUEST FROM LOS ANGELES

ALAMEDA, Feb 28.—Mrs. Eugene Alexander, formerly Miss Ethel Brown, a society belle of this city, is entertaining as her house guest Miss Florence Provard of Los Angeles. Miss Provard made her home in this city many years ago with her family. She is one of the most beautiful girls in the southern city. Many affairs are being planned for Miss Provard by her hostess and other friends, who are giving her a royal welcome.

Mrs. Alexander is now making her home in San Francisco. She entertains extensively.

MUSICAL HALF HOUR PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—The half hour of music program which was to have been rendered in the Hearst Greek theater, Berkeley, Sunday afternoon by Count Wachmeister, but which was postponed on account of inclement weather, will be presented in the chapel of St. John's Presbyterian Church, College avenue and Derby street, this evening.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL TEAMS TO PLAY FIRST GAME

ALAMEDA, Feb. 28.—The first game of the grammar school baseball league will be played Thursday on the Lincoln park grounds between the Wilson and the Porter school teams.

These nines are evenly matched and a fast game is expected.

TOWN AND GOWN CLUB TO PRESENT DRAMA BY SHAW

MISS FRANCES WOOLSEY, who will whistle selections between acts of play.

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—The play chosen by the exclusive Town and Gown club for its next annual production is George Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell," which is to be given at the clubhouse on the corner of Dwight way and Dana street next Tuesday evening, March 7.

Rehearsals have been in progress for some time under the direction of the dramatic committee, whose members are: Miss Ruby Morse, chairman, Miss Fannie McLean, Mrs. Alfred G. Bailey, Mrs. Geo. H. Mott Jr. and Mrs. Hubert Bryant.

Admission to the performance is to be by invitation, and the privilege of witnessing the annual play is one that is coveted, owing to the success of the past entertainments. The productions are of some of the best works of master playwrights, one of the most successful having been Ibsen's "In a Balcony."

It is not improbable that the play will be repeated one night next week so that the general public may attend.

Between the acts of the play next Tuesday evening Miss Frances Woolsey will whistle "The Open Secret" and "To the Wild Rose."

The cast will be as follows:

Philip Clandon.....Mr. Clark H. White
.....Mrs. Alfred G. Bailey
Gloria Clandon, their sister.....
.....Miss Ruby Rose Morse
Mrs. Clandon, their mother.....
.....Mrs. Hubert Bryant

BERKELEYANS TO WED IN AFRICA

Miss Emily Pitchford and William Hussey to Plight Troth at Johannesburg.

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—Miss Emily Pitchford, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Pitchford and a well known photographer, will become the bride of William Hussey at Johannesburg, South Africa, early in April. She went to South Africa a year ago to visit her brother, W. J. Pitchford, who is engaged in mining and who was a close friend of Hussey when both were living in Berkeley.

An old friendship between Miss Pitchford and Hussey was renewed when she met the former Berkeleyan there while visiting her brother, and a romance and recent announcement of the engagement followed. Mrs. J. B. Pitchford will leave within a few weks for South Africa, to be the guest of her son and daughter. The late J. B. Pitchford, her husband, was a miner in the same country.

Miss Pitchford was a graduate of the Girls' high school in San Francisco and later attended the University of California. She afterward was identified with art organizations.

STOLEN AUTOMOBILE FOUND AFTER MONTHS

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—The police yesterday located for M. R. Daniels, who lives at Thousand Oaks, North Berkeley, a Hupmobile which had been stolen since October 14 of last year. The machine was taken from in front of Idora Park, and has since been in the possession of A. H. Patty, 1819 Addison street, who says he bought it from Richard T. Wilder, who gave his address as the Elks' Club, Oakland.

Daniels positively identified the machine, and it was immediately turned over to him. Patty and Daniels will arrange a settlement.

Detective Jamison inquired at the Elks Club as to Wilder's identity, and found that he had left there some time ago, although his mail still comes to that address. Inquiry at the Secretary of State's office in Sacramento reveals the peculiar fact that Wilder had applied for and obtained the number which appeared on the Hupmobile when it was recovered here yesterday.

MILLIONS TO ADVERTISE STATE

Postcards in Flood to Be Sent East on Railroad Invitation Day.

California Will Receive Great Benefit From Publicity Campaign.

Four million artistic illustrated postal cards, bearing photographic reproductions of typical California scenes, have been distributed among every commercial and promotion organization, improvement club and development association and to every railroad station master and express agent in the state. These postal cards have been printed for free distribution among the people for mailing to their eastern friends tomorrow, March 1, which has been specially designated as "California Invitation Day," which it is proposed to make a permanent feature hereafter on the annual state calendar.

WORK OF S. P.

The publication and distribution of these California picture postal cards is a promotion enterprise planned by James Horsburg, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific company, with the express purpose of calling attention abroad to the special low colonist rates of transportation to California over the Harriman lines which go into effect March 10, and will be maintained until April 10. These rates are fixed for colonists at $25 from Missouri points and $53 from points along the Atlantic coast. For nine years past, the policy of low colonist transportation rates has been carried out by the Southern Pacific company, and the beneficial effects of it have been felt in every part of the state.

DOUBLES POPULATION.

Indeed, it may be said to have been the prime agent in doubling the population of California and in settling vast areas of its previously undeveloped agricultural lands during the past decade. It is reasonably claimed that 75 per cent of this increase of population is traceable directly to the homeseekers that have taken advantage of the colonist rates to California of the Harriman lines. Every well-wishing citizen of California is, therefore, directly interested in the campaign for advertising the wonderful natural resources and attractions climatic, agricultural, commercial and industrial—of the state and the marvelous developments which have been made and which are now in progress in it, for every new settler that is drawn to California adds to its importance and to its wealth.

EFFECT FELT EVERYWHERE.

[redacted] mailing to friends in the states between the Rocky Mountains the Atlantic seaboard of these "Invitation day" pictorial postal cards constitutes an inexpensive and effective contribution to the work of California promotion by every citizen within its confines. The good effects of this general circulation of the postal cards will quickly manifest themselves. Every card contains an impressive California scene which is sure to rivet the attention of the receiver. And it is reasonable to assume that a large percentage of them will have the effect of inducing multitudes who have for years looked to California with longing eyes as a land of fruits and flowers and sunshine to gratify the desire to see it by seizing the advantages of cheap transportation which the colonist rates of the Southern Pacific company afford them to pay it a visit.

WILL DERIVE SHARE.

Oakland, as the "City of Opportunity," will most assuredly derive its share of benefit from it, for every stranger that enters its gates these days is deeply impressed by the signs of growth and progress and prosperity which greet his gaze on every hand.

Every section of the state is represented in the scenes depicted on the postal cards that have been prepared for "Invitation Day." From all parts of the state where the cards have been distributed their great value to California generally of the advertising propaganda which they represent is enthusiastically recognized and there is a general desire that it shall become a permanent feature of each year's future promotion work.

MILLIONS OF CARDS.

These millions of illustrated invitations, every one a suggestion of the beneficent conditions existing in California, will serve as eloquent missionaries in the central and eastern states acclaiming the rare virtuts and attractions of the state, for they will reach those to whom they are addressed at a time when they are experiencing the rigors and hardships of a snow and ice bound winter.

THIS CHAP USED BRIDE FOR A PUNCHING BAG

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Charging that her husband kicked and beat her, struck her with his fist, and made her black and blue while she was still a bride Mrs. Caroline Burris brought suit for divorce from E. C. Burris of the Mission Lumber Company, in the Superior Court today. Just a month after their marriage in September, 1909, the wife complains the cruelty commenced. She alleges that her husband's property is valued at $20,000, and wants suitable provision made for her.

FILIPINO MUSICIAN IS CHARGED WITH MURDER

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Charged with the murder of his friend and countryman, as the result of a trivial quarrel, Chaon de la Cruz, a Filipino musician, was placed on trial before Judge [illegible] today. On January 27 De la Cruz and Pio Micol quarreled over which was the better player in the band which had just arrived in town. Knives were drawn, and in the duel which followed Micol was fatally stabbed.

MUST STAND THIRD TRIAL.

AMBITIONS? NOT MANY,' LAUGHS MABEL M'KINLEY

VAUDEVILLE STAR TALKS OF HER LIFE

She's Very Happily Married, But Wants Her Secret Kept.

(By LOUISE COOPER.)

"Come right in; I'm so glad to see you," said the small person sitting on the big trunk. "Of course there's no room—there never is in a dressing-room—but perhaps you can find a place to sit down."

Obediently I entered, and found a seat on another trunk. The small person was Mabel McKinley, and the place was her dressing-room behind the scenes of the Bell theater, where she is appearing this week.

"I've always been told that I was a very poor person to interview, but perhaps if you ask me questions we shall get along all right. I never can think of anything to say about myself, and they tell me that's what one should do wherever interviewed." The smile on her cheerful face grew a little broader at some recollection. "David Bispham's accompanist said to me once, 'You should learn to talk about yourself. Why, Bispham can do it for hours on end without stopping.'"

NIECE OF MARTYR.

Of course the burning question could not be slighted long, and here was a chance. "Just what relation were you to President McKinley, Miss McKinley?" Ah! Now it was out, and we all felt better.

"His niece." The carefree smile faded for a minute, and the voice grew serious. "I was born in Grandmother McKinley's house at Canton, Ohio. Quite an honor to have been born in the same house as the President, wasn't it?

"But we did not live in Ohio long. When I was two years old my father and mother moved to New York, and that has been my home since—when I have any time to be home." The laugh again. Silvery, clear, rippling and easy as a child's—if she laughed like that before her audiences no wonder they all liked her.

"I've gotten so now though that I don't feel natural when not traveling, during the season. If I'm going to stay over a week at any place I pack my bag just the same without thinking. Of course in the summer I take a long rest of three months or more."

A pause, while the smiling little woman began arranging the powder-puffs and impedimenti of the dressing-table. Here was a chance for the other burning question. "Are you—are you married, Miss McKinley?"

AND SHE IS MARRIED.

"O yes! Very much so, and very happily! But I do not think somehow that it is any help in the profession to emphasize that fact. Do you? People always seem to lose interest in you somehow!" And she laughed again at her own statement of the case. "My husband is a practicing physician in New York.

"Isn't it strange I always feel as if San Francisco were my home in a professional sense. I chose it for my debut as a professional and came all the way from New York to open there on July 5, 1903. I remember even the day, you see so I always have a warm spit in my heart for it.

"I sang in Newport this summer and was treated beautifully. They are very odd there—if they don't like you they turn their backs on you and talk out loud. That's the result of being so high-toned, I suppose. But it is a beautiful place, and I enjoyed it very much."

It was drawing near the time for the plump little singer's act now. The weird music and red fire of the Cobra dance had come and gone, the strident voice of the soubrette and the hysterics of the sketch actress had echoed in the wings and ceased. The dimpled hands commenced to ply deftly the rouge-paw and the powder-puffs and the pleasant face began to take on the tints and points of emphasis made necessary by the footlights.

AMBITIONS? NONE!

"Have you any particular ambition, Miss McKinley?"

"No, I haven't!" The answer was frank and direct. "I always think if one just goes along from day to day doing the best they can, whatever they deserve is sure to come to them, so I just plod along that way and hope that the best will come some day.

"Of course I do a good deal of musical composition, you know, and perhaps that will help out some day. That is in the summer time, when I am at home."

"Did you ever have any grand opera training?"

"O, yes. My teacher was Victor Capoul. Last year I was out in concert for several weeks and this summer I sang in several oratories. 'Fancy', Oratorio in summer and vaudeville in winter. I sang in the 'Messiah' and in 'Elijah.'"

The eyebrow were traced, the lips were rouged, the pink gown was hooked—it was time to go on. "Those horrid steps! Well, goodbye. So glad I saw you. Come again." And the bright smile and dimpled hands bid me adieu.

JUSTICE SMITH'S WIFE IS DEAD

Well Known Oakland Woman Passed Away Last Night After Short Illness.

After an illness of three weeks duration, Mrs. Anna Louise Williams Smith, wife of Justice Mortimer Smith of this city, died last night in the East Bay sanitarium following an operation on last Sunday afternoon for a complication of stomach trouble from which she failed to rally.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woolsey Williams and was born in Lake county July 22, 1874. Eighteen years ago she married Mortimer Smith, and has resided in this city since that time. Besides the husband, she is survived by two children, Lelie May, 15 years old, and Mortimer Smith Jr., 11 years old. Her mother, Mrs. W. Williams, and three brothers are also residents of Oakland.

The funeral will be held next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence at 686 Thirty-second street.

ACCUSED DEPUTIES DENY BRIBERY

McMillan and Wood Declare They Never Accepted More Than Cigar.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Deputies E. M. McMillan and C. B. Wood of the Fish and Game Commission made emphatic denials yesterday at the Walker legislative investigation of all the accusations made against the shy Chinese shrimp fishers, and even went so far as to accuse not only the Chinese but many others who violate the game laws of being lavish in the offer of bribes. The deputies, according to their sworn testimony, never have accepted anything of more value then a cigar.

T. T. Gintjee, a cigar manufacturer and an interpreter for the shrimp men, gave additional testimony concerning the attempts made to interest the Chinese in the Goss invention and declared that threats were made that unless the shrimp men financed the project they would be "put out of business" by the Legislature.

CHARGES BRIBERY.

Deputy McMillan testified that Chu Che of the firm of Quon Lee Chung had offered him $100 to throw from the Sausalito ferry boat a bag of fish being taken to court as evidence. Wood, it was said, was present at the time, but when testifying along this line, the latter said the proposition was made while going from San Francisco, in contradiction to McMillan, who said that it was made on the homeward trip.

Again McMillan testified that Chu Che had offered him $1300 to "put the other companies out of business." This was on June 7, 1910, and Wood was present. McMillan said the offer was made in this city, but Wood believed it was made in Sausalito.

McMillan said Lew Kan of the California Shrimp Company had offered him $10 a month for each of nineteen boats provided the fishermen were not molested. Other offers of money were testified to, and the witness said that Lew Kan said, "Takum, we pay all time to everybody, policemen and all, otherwise not do business."

CONVICT LABOR BILL DEFEATED

Assemblyman Hamilton's Bill Meets Quick End at Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—Assemblyman Hamilton's bill to provide for the employment of convict labor in the building of the new system of state highways was defeated in the assembly today by a vote of 46 to 20. The debate on the bill occupied two hours.

Assemblymen Hamilton and Bishop urged the passage of the bill, contending that the plan would be the means of saving vast sums to the state, and that it would work a benefit to the convicts in bringing them out of doors. The measure was opposed by Assemblymen MacDonald, Smith, Brown and Griffin. They declared it would be unjust to place laboring men in competition with convicts, and to subject the prisoners to the scrutiny of the outside world.

An attempt was made by Assemblyman Wyllie to have his amended local option bill brought up for passage today. When the bill was returned from the senate, Assemblyman Rosendale moved that it be made a special order of business for Friday. After an extended debate, in which several members asked postponement in order to become familiar with the various amendments, Wyllie withdrew his objection to the postponement.

The committee on election laws of the assembly will take up the Gates recall amendment tonight.

MRS. DARGIE PETITIONS FOR FAMILY ALLOWANCE

Through Attorneys A. A. and Stanley Moore of San Francisco her counsel, Mrs. Erminia Peralta Dargie this morning filed in the probate department of the Superior Court a petition for a family allowance of $1500 a month from the estate of her deceased husband, William E. Dargie.

BRIAND POLICY MAY OUTLIVE AUTHOR

Former Premier's Official Program Demanded by Radical Party Organs.

Resignation of M. Jonnart Creates Sensation in France.

PARIS, Feb. 28.—President Fallieres had another conference today with H. Dubost, president of the Senate, during which it was expected he would designate a successor to Premier Briand.

The profound interest in the situation following the resignation of the Briand ministry yesterday is shown by the fact that though the Chamber of Deputies adjourned to March 6 the entire membership remained in Paris discussing probabilities.

The deputies found a sensation in the resignation of M. Jonnart, governor of Algeira, who telegraphed M. Briand that his sense of duty to the country would not permit him to remain in office after the abandonment of the policies which, he was convinced, were necessary to the welfare of France.

The organs of the radical party are insisting on a ministry which shall continue the Briand policies. This would seem to support M. Briand's intimation that the opposition to him was personal and it is not unlikely that he will have the satisfaction of seeing his legislative program serve his official life.

President Fallieres asked M. Monis, formery a vice-president of the senate, today to form a cabinet to succeed the Briand ministry. M. Monis replied that he wished to consult his friends before announcing whether he would accept the responsibility.

AFTER BUSINESS ENJOY BANQUET

St. Patrick's Alliance Delegates in Convention Here Had Busy Day.

The thirty-first annual state convention of St. Patrick's Alliance of America was held yesterday in Enterprise Hall, Oakland. One hundred and thirty-five delegates were present when the morning session was called to order at 10 o'clock. Thomas McKeon of San Francisco presiding. The session disposed of the reports of the executive council and officers, and the affiliation of the St. Patrick's Mutual Alliance Association of California, the oldest Irish-American fraternity in the West, was accomplished. The reports record a membership in this State of 2650 and a very prosperous financial condition.

After a noon recess spent in touring the neighboring cities via automobile, business was resumed and the election of officers occurred resulting as follows:

President, Thomas McKeon; vice-president, P. H. Flynn; secretary, F. C. Gilbride; treasurer, James Coakley, sergeant-at-arms, J. J. Johnson. Trustees, Thomas F. Alford, James McDonnell, M. J. Ryan, John Hennessy, C. J. Twoomey.

In the evening about seventy-five delegates sat down to an elaborate banquet held at the new Saddle Rock restaurant. This was served shortly after 9 o'clock, after which those present listened to several interesting and amusing speches which came under the general head of "The Good of the Order."

Addresses were made by Past State President James Corley of Oakland, by Thomas McKeon, the re-elected president; by James Coakley, state treasurer, and by Trustee Thomas F. Alford of Los Angeles and others. The topics handled were, "The Order," "Sister Societies," "Absent Brothers" and on the organization of new branches of the alliance, which the members mean to push actively to completion.

RED SOX LEADER COMES ON VISIT

Manager "Tip" O'Neil Here to Arrange for Team's Stay.

Manager Norris O'Neil, of the Boston Red Sox, was at the director's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this morning and was assured of the co-operation of that body in the endeavor now being made to find suitable training quarters for the Bostonians besides hotel accommodations at reasonable rates.

D. H. Bradley accompanied O'Neil on an investigation tour roundtown to try and find hotel quarters for the team, who will be here tomorrow or next day.

A royal welcome for the visitors will be arranged for by the Progress and Prosperity committee on their arrival. Secretary Denison, of the Chamber of Commerce is aiding in getting the Grove street ball ground placed at the disposal of the Red Sox as a training ground.

STEPS FOR LIBERIA'S REHABILITATION TAKEN

LONDON, Feb. 28.—R. P. Falkner will sail for New York on the steamer Oceanic from Southampton tomorrow, having completed on this side all preliminaries for the Liberian loan, which is the first step in the American plan for the rehabilitation of Liberia.

GENERAL DEFICIENCY BILL BEING CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The general deficiency bill, always the last of the big supply measures brought into Congress, carrying $9,052,185, was brought up in the House today under suspension of the rules.

MINIMUM RATE DEMANDED BY S. F.

Merchants' Association Takes Stand Against Tide Land Grant.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—In the following telegram received in the senate this morning, San Francisco through her Merchants' Association, insists upon the establishment of a minimum rate by the state in wharfage charges in the harbors of the state.

This stand is hostile to that taken by the representatives of the harbors of Oakland, San Diego and Los Angeles, now here seeking a cession from the state to the several tide lands in those harbors. The telegram is as follows:

"SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Hon. E. I. Wolfe, Senate Chamber, Sacramento, Cal.: With reference to the bills pending for cession of tide lands to the cities of Los Angeles, San Diego and Oakland, the Merchants' Association of San Francisco desires to co-operate with these cities in any reasonable effort for the improvement and maintenance of their harbors.

"The association, however, believes that the cession of tide lands to these cities, with opportunity for them to assure control of their respective harbors and regulate charges on shipping, and, with the power that they would have of raising funds for improving and maintaining the harbors by taxing the property of their citizens instead of by raising funds by charges on shipping, would give them an opportunity of entering into unfair competition with the harbor of San Francisco which is now under state control and can be maintained only by charges upon shipping.

AFFECT REVENUES.

"If such unfair competition were to be permitted or encouraged by the state, it might seriously affect the revenues that could be raised in San Francisco harbor from the charges upon shipping and would affect the bonds which have been issued and which have been authorized and would reflect on the credit of the state.

"We, therefore urge that, in any cession of tide lands to any of those three cities, some scheme be provided for state control and the state be given authority to fix at least a minimum charge on shipping.

"For similar reasons we are opposed to any law being passed with reference to pilot charges except a uniform law affecting all harbors alike. We would request you to present the views to the appropriate committees and would request that you secure the publication of this communication in the Senate Journal.

"(Signed) MERCHANTS' ASSN. OF S. F.

Joaquin Miller Takes Short Walk Outdoors

Has Gained in Strength and Hopes Soon to Return to His Home.

Accompanied by his daughter, Juanita, and his nurses, Joaquin Miller, "Poet of the Sierra," who has been confined in the Fabiola hospital for nearly three weeks, took a short walk out of doors this morning and occupied the time in conversation with those who attended him.

The aged poet has so far recovered in strength that the physicians believe that he will be able to leave the hospital and return to his home later on in the week.

'COREA IN TRANSITION' BISHOP'S LECTURE THEME

"Corea in Transmission" was the subject of the address delivered by the Rev. Merriman C. Harris, Bishop of the Methodist church of Corea, at the First Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday evening. Bishop Harris, in the course of his address touched upon both religious and political conditions existing in Corea, stating, among other things, that within the last twenty-five years alone over 300,000 natives had become Christians, an evidence of the marvelous awakening of the Orientals. Nor are the people behind in material development, for many schools, railroads, telegraph and telephone lines have been opened up within a very few years.

As to the war feeling of the Japanese toward this country Bishop Harris held that talk of such feeling was absurd, entirely contrary to the prevailing spirit among the Easterners who were rather coming together in the interests of peace. Beside Bishop Harris upon the platform were several prominent men interested alike in religious and Oriental work here on the coast.

WOULD-BE SUICIDE FAILS IN ATTEMPT

Mrs. Jessie Farris, residing at the Dunde Hotel, Seventeenth street and San Pablo avenue, attempted to commit suicide about 8 o'clock last night in her room by cutting her throat with a razor. Despondency over illhealth and financial matters led to her rash act.

The woman made a gash in her neck about eight inches long, but missed the jugular vein although the wound indicates that she tried to sever it. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital where Drs. Irwin and Rice stopped the bleeding and sutured the cut. The chances for her recovery are good.

THREE TIMES AND OUT MADE OFFICE VACANT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—At a meeting of Fremont Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, held last night, the office of president was declared vacant by resolution of one of the members. A rule of the order is that an officer absent three meetings is subject to such a proceeding and Mrs. F. Crane was thus deprived of her office.

Hardly had the resolution been put through however, when the secretary read a letter from Mrs. Crane in which she stated that she would be unable to attend to her duties in the order.

JOHN HAYS HAMMOND TO REPRESENT U. S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. — John Hays Hammond has been selected to represent the United States as special Ambassador at the coronation of King George V.

Mr. Hammond, who is a native of San Francisco, was a member of the famous party led by Dr. Jameson which invaded the Transvaal before the outbreak of the Boer War. He was arrested and sentenced to death, but was afterward pardoned by President Kruger.

OAKLAND PIONEER CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL DIRECTOR

CHARLES QUAYLE, who is a candidate for school director.

Under the designation of School Director No. 3 petitions are being circulated nominating Charles Quayle, 570 Jones street, for the office of school director. Mr. Quayle has been a resident of Oakland for over twenty years; was educated in its public schools, and later graduated from Stanford University Law School. For seven years he has been engaged in practice of law here with offices in the Bacon building. He is at present a member of the Board of Free Library Trustees.

DAY AND NIGHT MUCH TOO SLOW

Wanted 'Em to "Gallop Mabel to Him," and Now Hubby Seeks Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The cooing love letters of an ardent affinity were laid bare in Superior Judge Mogan's court this morning during the hearing of the divorce suit of William Wolff of the Hirsch & Kaiser Optical company, against Mabel Wolff to whom he was married in Sacramento on September 30.

The alleged affinity, Robert Gordon Duncan, is said to reside in Portland, and while Mrs. Wolff was in Los Angeles on a vacation trip last year, wrote a multitude of amorous epistles which were later discovered by her spouse.

"There is a difference in a kiss by mail from a kiss by moonlight," reads one of the extracts; another equally affectionate says "Come day, come night, gallop days and nights on swift steeds of time and bring to me my Mabel."

Duncan, as would appear from the missives was considerable of a poet. The hearing is still going on.

WANT LAND OFFICE TO REMAIN HERE

Directors of Chamber of Commerce Will Take Action at Once.

At a directors' meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this morning Secretary Denison was instructed to make every effort to keep the United States land office on this side. At present it is probable that it will be moved back to San Francisco, where it was prior to the fire. The cause of the proposed move is that there is not room for the other departments of the federal service in the post-office building.

A resolution from the Irish-American Political Club, denouncing the Wolfe bill was read by the secretary.

The question of requesting congressmen at Washington to use their influence in having the ships of the navy take on fuel coal on the Pacific coast instead of carrying it from the Atlantic, was discussed.

SUBPENAS ARE ISSUED FOR OHIO TRIUMVIRATE

CINCINNATI, Feb. 28. — Subpoenas were issued late today for August Hermann, chairman of the National Baseball Commission, and R. K. Hynicka, a former county treasurer, who with Hermann and Cox made up what was known in political circles here as the triumvirate.

In its supposed investigation of gambling the Hamilton county grand jury earlier summoned as witnesses local managers of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and the Bell Telephone Company, as well as John H. Payne, former head of a news bureau, which dealt largely in racing news and several former brokers.

CLAIMS DESERTION; WANTS SEPARATION

Alleging willful desertion H. S. Elliott of Oakland brought suit this forenoon in the Superior Court for a divorce from Clara B. Elliot, a non-resident. The couple were married in New York City in December, 1905, and Elliott charges in his complaint that his wife deserted and abandoned him at Louisville, Ky., in December, 1908. He owns property in Ely, Nev., valued at $2500, which he claims is his separate holding, and real estate in San Mateo in which his wife has a community interest.

DIVISION OF $20,000,000 SURPLUS FUND UPHELD

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 28.—Vice-Chancellor Howell filed today a decision in the Chancery Court in which he upheld the proposed division of a $20,000,000 surplus fund by the Prudential Insurance Company of America among deferred dividend policy holders.

NO CHOICE FOR SENATOR.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 28.—Two ballots were taken for United States senator in the Montana Assembly today, both resulting: Carter (Rep.) 74, Conrad (Dem.) 23, Walsh (Dem.) 23, scattering 8. Necessary for a choice, 50.

MISTAKE IS PAINFUL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Mistaking carbolic acid for peroxide, Miss N. [illegible] Fitzgerald of 836 Potrero avenue was badly burned today about the face and hands.

STUART W. BOOTH STATES PLATFORM

Candidate for Commissioner No. 4 Outlines Principles Upon Which He Stands.

Stuart W. Booth has announced his candidacy for the office of commissioner No. 4 under the new charter. Following is the platform upon which he bases his claim to that position:

Believing that the voters of Oakland have a right to expect a statement of the intentions of each candidate for office, I herewith submit the following to the consideration of the electorate.

PUBLIC ECONOMY.

I will do everything possible to insure an economical administration, but I believe that the people of Oakland are perfectly willing to undertake and maintain desirable improvements provided that a hundred cents worth of value is received for every dollar expended.

AGAINST ANNEXATION.

Being absolutely satisfied that nothing but depreciation of property values, decadence of civic spirit and a lowering of the standard of public and private morals would follow any governmental alliance with San Francisco I pledge myself to use every legitimate and honorable means to prevent any such retrograde movement.

THE NEW CHARTER.

Fully satisfied, after an exhaustive study, that the new charter will keep the city government out of politics and will insure the progressive and economical administration of the affairs of Oakland I do hereby pledge myself to assist in carrying out all its requirements both in the letter and in the spirit.

TO ENCOURAGE INVESTORS.

The immediate future of Oakland depends upon the coming of new capital. I favor the extending of a liberal policy toward all private and corporate investors, but will always demand that the rights of the city and her citizens shall be fully protected. Either party to a public contract is best served by impartial, business-like methods.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

I am convinced that Oakland should acquire an adequate water supply and I will do everything possible toward that end. In the meantime I believe that the minimum rate of $1.50 for water meters is too high. I can find no valid reason why it should be higher than the minimum gas rate—sixty-five cents per month.

I believe the time is opportune and conditions are right for following the example of other large cities in arranging for half fares on street cars for pupils during certain hours of the day. Especially should this practice be advocated for high school pupils.

CIVIL SERVICE.

I pledge myself to assist in putting into complete operation as soon as possible the admirable system of civil service as outlined in the new charter.

STUART W. BOOTH.

DESPERATE JAIL BREAK IN MEXICO

Forty-Two Prisoners at Chihuahua Overpower Guards and Escape.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—A private telegram to the Associated Press from a reliable source at Chihuahua, Mex., confirms the report of an outbreak of long term prisoners in the penitentiary in that city. Forty-two prisoners, including one American, participated.

Despite the fact that the prison is a modern one, the prisoners overpowered the corridor guards, seized twelve rifles and a large amount of ammunition and after dispersing the outer guard made their way into the street.

Police and soldiers, led by Governor Ahumad in person, engaged the fugitives. Fifteen prisoners were killed and five wounded and the remainder escaped.

Among the slain prisoners was the American, who was serving a ten year sentence for murder. Two policemen were killed.

$25,000 ESTATE GOES TO ADOPTED DAUGHTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Fannie M. Platt, who was adopted by Captain Hans Madison when she was three years old, after her mother had died leaving her orphaned and destitute, was given the entire estate of Mrs. Henry Johannsen, formerly Mrs. Madison, by decree of Judge Graham this morning.

Captain Madison, a pioneer seafaring man, died in 1869, leaving a $50,000 estate to his widow, who, the following year, married her husband's lifelong friend, Captain Henry Johannsen. It is declared that he, during her lifetime, brought incompetency proceedings against her, and when she died in 1909 she left her property to her adopted daughter. Johannsen contested, but today the court dismissed the contest and awarded the estate to Mrs. Platt. She will receive $20,000 invested in schooners and $5500 in money and jewelry.

OPPOSITION TO COUP OF SAN FRANCISCO GROWS

The following resolutions were passed at the meeting of the Irish-American Political Club last night:

"Whereas, Constitutional amendment No. 15 is now before our legislative body at Sacramento and is apparently designed for the sole purpose of forcing a disagreeable union between the city of San Francisco and the East Bay cities, and

"Whereas, Such action on the part of the legislative body would be detrimental to our people's interests, therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Irish-American Political Club of the city of Oakland, are utterly opposed to any act now or hereafter taken that may have a tendency to bring about such an unfortunate result.

WOOD ALCOHOL CAUSES DEATH OF THREE INDIANS

LANDER, Wyo., Feb. 28.—Wood alcohol, obtained from some unknown source, caused the death today at Fort Washakie of George Enos, his son, George, Jr., aged 18, and Susette Sercile, all Shoshone Indians. Luke Smith, another Shoshone, drank the poison, but the post physician hopes to save his life. George Enos, Jr., was a Carlisle student and a football player of note.

Oakland Harbor and Bond Issue.

Last fall the State voted a $1,500,000 bond issue to improve San Diego harbor. On this matter State Controller Nye says in his annual report:

"As regards the San Diego harbor bond issue, the situation is more serious, because the revenues of that harbor up to this time have been merely nominal—about $6000 a year, which entire amount has been consumed by salaries and incidental expenses. No way has been made known by which those receipts can be largely increased in the near future, but it is evident that a bond issue of $1,500,000 cannot properly be put out until these conditions have been materially changed."

Does not Controller Nye believe in the referendum? The people have voted for the bond issue without reservation or condition, and who has the power now to interpose reservations and conditions? What does the Controller propose to do about it? Does he think the popular mandate should be ignored and disobeyed?

Two years ago both houses of the Legislature voted by a two-thirds majority to submit various bonding schemes to the electorate. One was for the improvement of San Francisco's port facilities, another for the improvement of San Diego's water front and a third for a system of State highways. These measures were log-rolled through the Legislature, San Francisco voting for San Diego and San Diego voting for San Francisco. The intelligent electorate endorsed all the propositions at the polls, each voter having qualified himself by intelligent study to decide whether the great sums involved should be voted, thus giving glorious evidence of the wisdom of the referendum and direct legislation by the people.

Is Controller Nye going to subscribe to the dictum of the Fresno Republican that the people do not know what they want and did not know what they were doing when they voted the $18,000,000 road bonds? The Fresno paper expressed the opinion that the popular mandate in the matter of road bonds should be disobeyed? Is the one respecting the San Diego harbor bonds to be disobeyed also? The referendum is faring badly in the house of its friends.

But the objection raised to the San Diego harbor bonds is a convincing argument why Oakland should be permitted to retain her municipal independence. Oakland has a harbor and a water front. She owns her water front and is spending millions voted by her citizens to improve her port facilities. She does not ask the State to issue bonds to provide facilities for shipping here. She is making her own improvements at her own expense. Now San Francisco wants to take away from her the control of the water front on this side of the bay and the improvements now in progress. The purpose is clear. It is predacious and unjust and an invasion of every right held sacred by the Decalogue and the canons of popular government.

The State will be the loser if San Francisco is permitted to swallow up all the towns in her vicinity. Bond issues will be asked for San Francisco at every session of the Legislature, and the log-roll for them will work through money grabs for a multitude of projects. If Oakland is allowed to preserve her independence port facilities on San Francisco bay will be provided without calling on the State for bond issues that will provide fat contracts for contractors with a pull and easy berths for political workers.

The Sacramento Union butts into the controversy regarding the Wolfe annexation job with the statement that "despite all the hysteria with which the business and political interests of Oakland are fighting the Wolfe amendment designed to make possible a consolidation of the bay cities, there seems to be nothing intended for anything but the general good." Then it goes on to show that the writer of the article does not know what he is talking about. If he has ever read the proposed amendment he has never analyzed it, else he would not say it allows Sacramento to absorb Broderick, Washington, Boruck or whatever the village across the river in Yolo county is called, on the same terms that San Francisco is permitted to absorb towns adjacent. Broderick and Sacramento have not jointly a population of 175,000. No matter how tempting Broderick may be to the predatory instincts of Sacramento, the Wolfe amendment is not designed to gratify them. We supposed that our esteemed contemporary at the capital was too wise to take "dope" from Eddie Wolfe, but apparently it has been slipped a counterfeit by the agile statesman from the sandlot. If the Union thinks Sacramento is to be let in on the grab it is mistaken.

The Griffin Eight-Hour Law.

Widespread opposition has developed to the bill limiting the hours of labor for women to eight per day. Much of this opposition comes from people who favor the principle of the bill, but who declare that it will inflict unnecessary hardship on many and fail to achieve the results it is designed to accomplish. The bill is entitled "an act limiting the hours of labor of females employed in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel, or restaurant, or telegraph or telephone establishment or office, or by any express or transportation company; compelling each employer in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel or restaurant, or other establishment employing any female to provide suitable seats for all female employes and to permit them to use such seats when they are not engaged in the active duties of their employment; and providing a penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of this act, and permitting or suffering any overseer, superintendent, foreman or other agent of any such employer to violate the provisions of this act."

It is provided in the act that each violation of the act shall be punished by a fine of not more than $200 nor less than $50.

This is a very drastic measure. It is contended that it will throw out of employment many women now engaged in various departments of human activity. Many women view the proposed law with fear and misgiving, or are opposed to it on the ground that it will decrease their earning capacity. For instance, the women employes of the California Cotton Mills are opposed to the bill because it interferes with their liberty of contract and will curtail their earning capacity. They are mostly employed on piece work and work nine hours a day. Cutting down their working hours will reduce their wages by more than ten per cent.

It is argued also that women's wages, now too small, will be made smaller by the operation of the proposed law, with no power of expansion to earn additional money in periods of rush to make up for and tide over the dull season when necessarily out of employment. All retail stores, confectioneries, canneries, fruit packers, etc., have their seasons of activity and dullness. At one period everything is necessarily done at a rush while at another nothing is done. To shorten the hours of labor will have the effect of reducing earning power of women and encouraging the employment of Oriental labor, which is exempt from the provisions of the proposed law. Women will be displaced by coolies, and the cost of canned fruits and vegetables increased to the consumer.

A prominent merchant well known for his sympathy with the laboring class writes to THE TRIBUNE that this bill is not really in the interests of labor but against it, inasmuch as it will curtail the employment of women and increase the employment of coolies. He says it will handicap every productive energy in the State without conferring any corresponding benefit. He points out that a great number of women are employed as cashiers and stenographers in a great variety of establishments. These women sit habitually in performing their duties; their work is not arduous, but their hours range from ten to twelve and vary much at times. Sometimes the work is light and the hours short; at other times, there is more work and the hours longer.

To meet the objections urged by the producers, manufacturers and business men generally the following exemptions are proposed:

1—Exempting perishable food industries. This principle has already been recognized and accepted by the proponents of the bill in an amendment exempting the great fruit industry of this State. We approve of this and simply ask the extension of this principle to its logical conclusion, to wit: to the other perishable food production of this State.

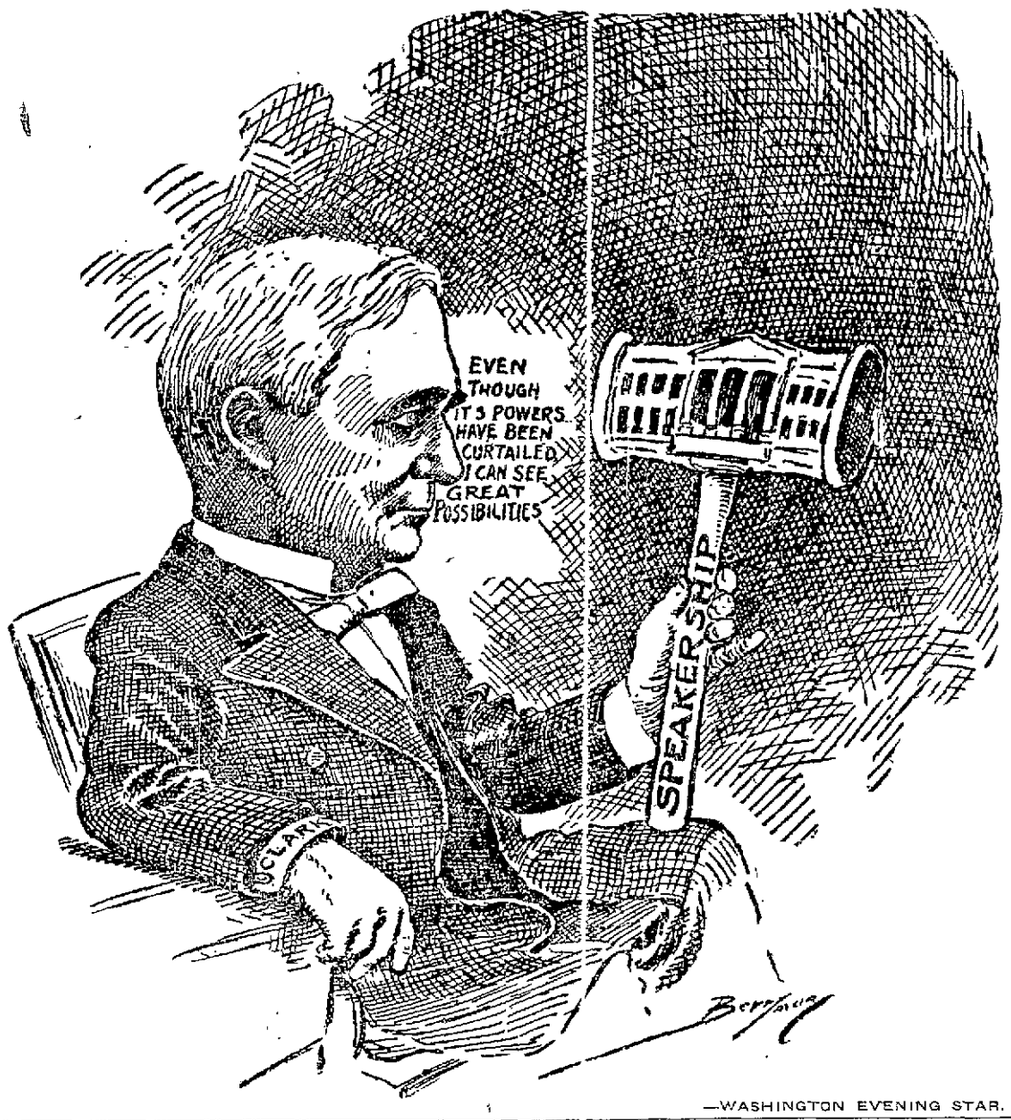

2—The extension of the daily hour limit from eight to nine hours, and the weekly limit from forty-eight to fifty-four hours. This change will not affect many industries that already work eight hours in the main, but certain responsible positions in those same industries require additional hours. We believe further that the maximum nine-hour plan is a sufficient step for the present and will cure all real abuses of long hours, that may exist or are likely to arise.

3—An emergency extension amendment that permits, for limited periods only, extra time, but then only upon a sworn statement that a necessity exists therefor, and then too only upon pay and one-half for such overtime. This amendment provides respectively for the needed elasticity for the holiday trade, for spring and fall rushes, and harvest periods, or unusual or unforeseen emergencies that arise in all business and enterprises.

The suggestions presented by the employers are worthy of examination. While every right-thinking and humane person should desire to give women all the rational and necessary protection the law can throw around their health, morals and general well-being, it is folly to enact laws so drastic and ill-considered that they will throw women out of employment and injure the industries of the State. Laws of that character will have the very opposite of the effect intended. Let us guard women from overwork, oppression, under-pay and all the abuses they encounter in the industrial world, but let us not injure them under pretense of improving their condition. The task of regulating the hours of labor and conditions of employment of women is not an easy one. It presents a complex problem that should be approached with wide-open, observant eyes and dealt with in a spirit of caution and humanity. The women workers are asking for bread, let us not give them a stone.

Senator Boynton should understand that there is a broad distinction between a lobbyist and a leader. A reformer never lobbies, he leads; and his leading is sometimes mistaken by the indiscriminating for bossing.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE

—WASHINGTON EVENING STAR.

The Task of Religion

By REV. J. R. PERKINS,
Pastor of First Christian Church, Alameda.

The rationa of Paul's assertion in Hebrews xiii 8, was never clearer than in modern life: "Jesus Christ, today, yesterday, and forever, the same." These words were spoken at a time in Roman civilization similar in some respects to our own. Society seemed to be sinking back into barbarism. The decadent ecclesiastical institutions were powerless. Society felt the need of a new regenerating force, the wisdom of the world had failed.

To the Jewish nation in death throe, and to the Roman in the midst of great ethical and social confusion, Paul, the only man who did not lose his poise, speaks a heartening message. The lilt of his symphony rose above the sardonic discords of multitudinous philosophies and ecclesiastical pageants. Civilizations might break up and pass, but the eternal need of every social order would be the eternal Christ.

And now, as then, the task of religion is to fit a changeless Christ into an ever changing society and civilization; to make itself indispensable to antipodal racial peculiarities, manners, and customs, to retain its poise in an ever-balanced social order. What a task! Indeed, the project seems delirious. As regards the Pacific coast the greatest problem of religion is around San Francisco bay. Here are men of all nations, of divisive creeds; of multiplied vagaries. Here we find the most unique social order in the world's history. Unique in its manners, morals, its art, literature, and in its faith and cynicism.

One of the most interesting facts is, this coast civilization that the church must either fight or fit in to, is very much like the one the young church faced in the first century of our era. Paul saw clearly; saw that with the changing order there must come a corresponding change in emphasis. He set his face like flint against the institutionalizing of Christianity, and presented a new conception of religion as a force moving through every phase of Roman life.

And now, on this Pacific coast, the seat of the future, the church is fronting one of its greatest tasks. And our problem is grave, because the materialism of this new order is as bald as that of twenty centuries ago. San Francisco is the reincarnation of the city of Rome not only in its vices, but in its virtues as well. But if Ferrero has correctly interpreted Roman society, we are greater than the Romans in everything, including our sins, and thus the task of religion is the most gigantic in modern life.

The Latin poets seemed to think that the intemperance, extravagance, social evil, low political ideals, and disregard for human life were the evils that worked the ruin of the empire; then, if we have gone them one better, what is to become of us? What a task for religion to put the ethics of the cross working powerfully at the heart of our great cities!

And yet, there is no reason for pessimism, for we possess something in this modern crisis that the Roman did not, or, at most, were just beginning to note—the changeless Christ. His religion is splendidly vital: it is dynamic—dynamite is the meaning of Paul's expression, "power," used in that scripture, "the gospel is the power of God unto salvation." The salvation of society, not simply a regenerated individual, is meant. Hence, this dunamis of Paul's is, literally, dynamite that will ultimately explode among all evils that vex society and clear it even as the explosion of powder will clear the atmosphere. And the task of religion is to move itself from the cloister, temples, and churches and attach itself to the street, the factory, and the market place.

FORKS AND KANSAS

Higher education is hitting snags in Kansas. It would turn practical. At least, if a dispatch from the land of the Long Whisker can be trusted, the State Agricultural College has found a means of cultivating at once aesthetics and the soil. One hundred young men, seniors of that institution, have taken a solemn oath to submit themselves to tutoring in table manners. This is, indeed a break with tradition. On visits to the metropolis did not the chief distinction of the Kansan reside in his dextrous use of the knife when eating peas? Whole restaurants were paralyzed with the fascination of the sight. And this course is designed avowedly "to discourage sword swallowing feats at the table." But nearer our own door the knife is, according to the testimony of Mr. George Ade, late of Indiana, an accredited implement of forage. Says the college freshman to his visiting sire: "If you want to travel with me, pa, you've got to cut but eating with your knife." Retorts pa: "I've et with my knife as long as I've et with anything, and never cut myself yet. I guess I'll keep on a while," or words to that effect.

They used, out in Kansas, to resent social polish as the first overtures of the tempter. They believed that once the primitive manners of robust sires had departed virtue could not abide. The fork bore the mark of the beast. They preferred their beast in a more honest and obvious form, where it could be recognized on sight. But alas! culture is creeping in. The young men of the Agricultural College will go home and break their parents' heart by refusing to drink out of their saucers. Even the "mustache cup," that ingenious invention of the Whisker Belt, will repose on the shelves of the shiny closet, gathering dust. For higher education has embraced table manners and the august traditions of the primitive plainsmen have to go.

What ethical confusion may result an eastern brotherhood can only guess. Hitherto, at the play, and elsewhere, Kansas detected the villain by his table manners. The hound used a fork! The miscreant could plainly be seen to cut his pie with it. One knew all men by these presents.—Boston Transcript.

MEN AND WOMEN

The people of Washington will, in all probability, think little enough of the opinion of one of their ministers, who is quoted as saying that women "are bigger and worse liars than men."

From the standpoint which we presume the Washington preacher took, in employing the word liar, we should say that there are two classes of liars—those who are not thoroughly developed and those who are developed in the wrong direction.

To tell a lie is to make an improper use of certain materials. Giant powder is exploded by anarchists, and by awkward workmen. The results are equally hurtful; but one does not blame the awkward workman as one does the dynamiter.

These women who do not tell the truth are in a majority of cases, we believe, like awkward workmen. The man who lies is on a par with the dynamiter.

What is the painter, the sculptor, the poet and the novelist but divinely gifted falsifiers? The painter would be no better than a photographer if he put into his picture only the things which exist. He puts into it the things that ought to be there—and wins our praise.

The sculptor might as well leave his marble uncut, if he does not mean to give it the beauty, the pathos, the dignity, the witchery which are his own, and not the marble's.

The woman who tells you you have done well may have falsified; but she has put heart into you, and when you have another opportunity you may really succeed in doing well.

We have listened to many and many of the lies of women; and for this we are thankful, and hope that they will not become utterly discouraged from continuing their good work.—St. Louis Times.

WORK VS. FLOGGING

The counsel of the governor of Michigan, that violent corporal punishment should be employed for the disciplining of refractory prisoners will not command general approval. If there were no other reason for deprecating it, the danger of abuse would be sufficient. It is well known that men who in prison or asylums exercise authority over others have a strong, involuntary and some times seemingly irresistible inclination toward increasing harshness, so that some have doubted whether it is well to retain a man in such a place for a long time. If the principle were established that a keeper or warden might inflict physical punishment on his wards, the liability to serious abuse would be dangerously increased.

It is far better to discipline prisoners by compelling them to do useful work. Everybody knows that idleness engenders evil. Unemployed prisoners are usually inclined to be disorderly. Hard work is often more dreaded than the lash, while it has these immense advantages that it does not brutalize but rather humanizes and elevates, and that it is not an unprofitable if not actually expensive system, but, on the contrary, is profitable to the state and appropriately makes the wrongdoer make substantial amends to the community which he has injured. It is encouraging to know that not only is labor the rule in most state prisons, but that it is being employed also on an increasing scale in county penitentiaries and jails. Work is better than flogging.

THE TAHOE WATER GRAB

Congressmen Englebright is very evidently trying to muddle his constituents in the First District in this matter so that they will either favor the control or be so divided in sentiment that they will passively permit its execution. He has succeeded to the extent that the Nevada County Promotion Committee has telegraphed Congressman-elect Baker at Washington that Englebright has written that Kent's friends are favoring the Tahoe contract. The committee naturally asks "what does this mean?"

If Congressman Englebright can be penned down to the facts he will acknowledge that the "friends of Kent" to whom he refers are officials of the Federal Reclamation Service. They are favoring the contract because it offers the only apparent means for remedying some very bad blunders made by the Service in the Truckee-Carson reclamation project. After spending millions of dollars they find they cannot secure the necessary amount of water because of Hammond's control of the outlet of Lake Tahoe at the dam on the Truckee river. They are quite willing to sacrifice California's rights and concede valuable privileges in perpetuity to Hammon if thereby the blunder of the Service can be repaired.—Sacramento Bee.

Bachelor Musings

Heaps and heaps of people can improve their morals by getting very sick.

You can always prove a man is wrong in an argument by letting him do it.

Many a fellow's head swims the next morning from trying to drown his sorrows the night before.

It's easy for a pretty young widow to make a man think he wants to marry her.

The minute a girl marries she wants some other girl to begin the same trouble.

Cardinal's Coach

A cardinal must not walk in the streets of Rome or in the populous districts beyond the walls. He goes in a closed carriage drawn by ambling and well-groomed black horses. Before the loss of the temporal power the carriages were scarlet, drawn by four or six horses, surmounted by a gilt railing resembling a crown. Valets and coachmen wore gorgeous liveries and three other carriages conveyed the secretaries and chaplain of His Eminence. These equipages were laid down in 1870, and some of them may be seen taking farmers and their families to the Roman market. Vegetables are packed on the roof and where the valets stood behind.—London Truth.

And many a man never realizes the value of his home until he has occasion to collect the fire insurance.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

A number of Oakland ministers have formed a census bureau to keep track of all the new arrivals in the city. The plan is to divide the city into districts. If a Presbyterian minister hears of a Methodist or family of any other church affiliation living in his district he promptly notifies the pastor of that church.

The following took part in the Longfellow program at the Lincoln school this afternoon: Mabel Applegarth, Josie Hatter, Fannie Stone, Norman Halsey, Brownie Brownell, Alice Forstner, Vera Marvin, Helen Hagar, Florence Mellon, Paul Runke, Blanch Dreling, Gladys Rosenberg, Estelle Carpenter, Lillie Baker, Eliza Hough, Lizzie Harrington, Walter Dayton, Lulu Everett, W. Rutherford, May Cohen, Fred Eleroy, Ethel Bates, Sloan Russell and Mabel Pelton.

With impressive services the remains of the late Mrs. Lucy Harlow Peterson were consigned to the grave yesterday afternoon. The pallbearers were: J. Brussell, William Abel, J. S. Walters, G. L. Berger, O. I. Fox and W. J. Clark.

Nathan Rosenberg has commenced an action in the Superior court against James N. Van Winkle to quiet title to a lot on the north side of Twelfth street near Grove.

Attorney T. F. Graber, at the request of Mrs. Emily Webster, formerly Mrs. Smith, has applied to administer upon the estate of Joseph Smith, who died intestate, leaving property worth about $1200.

A raid was made on youthful train jumpers yesterday and the following youngsters were gathered in: Charles Kehoe, Charles Mahoney, Thaddeus Dupras, Clarence Fredericks, August Rohrbacher, Raymond Peck, Alfred Peratt, Ed Forster and John Burke.

Phiny Bartlett is talked of as councilman from the Fifth ward on the local option ticket with D. W. C. Gaskill for school director. It is thought that this combination will be opposed to a ticket which has been agreed upon to support M. C. Chipman for mayor, Johnston for councilman and J. A. C. Macdonough for councilman-at-large.

William H. Sears died today in San Francisco at the age of 51 years. He was at the time of his death collector of internal revenue, having been appointed by President Harrison. He was collector of the port in that city in 1884 and served several terms in the Assembly and State Senate.

Louis Schafer, who was a prominent candidate before the Republican convention last fall for the office of sheriff, will remove his residence from Livermore to the Sixth ward of Oakland next Wednesday.

NEW Nemo TRIPLEX

SELF-REDUCING CORSET WITH THE NEW $4

№408

LASTIKOPS LIMSHAPING EXTENSIONS

What does that broad band of semi-elastic Lastikops Webbing do?

It re-shapes and reduces the upper limbs to natural size, and prevents the flesh from bulging out below.

Long corsets drive the flesh down where you don't want it, making an unsightly ridge under a tight dress.

Lastikops Limshaping Extensions completely cure this evil; give you slender limbs with the fashionable "in-slope"—your gowns will fit like the skin of an apple.

They let you sit down with comfort; and the elastic bands will outlast the corset.

Long and short models:

No. 408 (HIGH BUST)
No. 406 (LOW BUST) $4

Both have Nemo Self-Reducing front—the only perfect abdominal support.

OTHER NEMOS

SELF-REDUCING, Nos. 319 (low bust) and 321 (high bust), with hip-confining bands of Lastikops Webbing $3.50

SELF-REDUCING, Nos. 522 (high bust) and 523 (low bust), with the wonderful Lastikops Band-let $5.00

LASTIKOPS CORSETS, for slender and medium figures, No. 330, with supporting bands of Lastikops Webbing across the front..... $3.50

ATTORNEYS BRAND ANITA TURNBULL BOGUS HEIR

Counter-Assault Begun on Case of Girl Who Seeks Fortune.

WAS CUT OFF BY WILL, LAWYES DECLARE

Motion Made That Judge Instruct Jury to Render Adverse Verdict.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—The counter assault on the case of Miss Anita Baldwin Turnbull, suing for a daughter's share of the $11,000,000 left by "Lucky" Baldwin, was begun today by the attorneys for the Baldwin estate, with a motion to have Judge Rives instruct the jury to return a verdict against the girl claimant.

Attorney Garret McEnerney presented the motion after declaring that Miss Turnbull was a "bogus heir," and that the testimony of her mother, Mrs. Lillian Ashley Turnbull of Boston, regarding a contract marriage with Baldwin was "unparalleled in this state for fraud and deceit."

MOTION WRITTEN.

The motion was in the form of a written document, presenting ten reason why Judge Rives should instruct the jury to return a verdict for the estate. Most important of these reasons were:

That no marriage ever occurred between Mrs. Turnbull and the turfman.

That the evidence disproved Mrs. Turnbull's sworn statement that she and Baldwin entered into a contract of marriage in March, 1893.

That Miss Anita Turnbull, the 17-year-old claimant, was not therefore a legitimate daughter of Baldwin.

WAS CUT OFF.

But that even if it were decided that she were his daughter, Baldwin purposely cut her off, and "all other bogus heirs," by incorporating in his will a provision that "ten dollars and no more should be given to such persons as may be adjudged by a court heirs at law."

Prior to the presenting of the motion for an instructed verdict, the jury was excused at the request of the attorneys for Miss Turnbull, and it will remain out of court during the three days set aside for the argument on the motion. If the court denies the motion of counsel for the estate, the arguments before the jury on the merits of the case will be begun immediately thereafter.

Academy Honors a 13-Year-Old Sculptor

Avard Fairbanks' "Fighting Panthers" Accepted by National Organization.

NEW YORK Feb. 28.—The youngest sculptor who has ever secured recognition at the hands of the National Academy of Design is Avard Fairbanks, 13 years old, whose group, "Fighting Panthers," has just been accepted. The boy is the son of John Fairbanks, the artist, and was born at Provo, Utah, though he has lived the greater part of his life in Salt Lake City, where his brother is director of drawing in the public high schools. His father is a landscape painter, who studied in Paris under Jules Lefevre, Benjamin Corstant and John Paul Laurens.

GERMAN UNIVERSITIES TO TEACH AERONAUTICS

BERLIN, Saturday, Feb. 18.—It is unofficially announced that not fewer than eleven German universities and technical schools will institute lectures on aeronautics during the summer half year. Special atention will be given to technical problems connected with the flying machine, its structural principles and practical management.

Lectures will be given at Berlin, Breslau, Goettingen and Strassburg universities and at the technical institutes in Charlottenburg, Aachen Brunswick, Danzig, and Munich. Two professors will deliver such courses of lectures at Charlottenburg and at Danzig and three at Munich.

HUSBAND CRUEL, SAYS MRS. LANGE

Wife of Biscuit Company Distributor Files Amended Complaint in Suit.

Luella Lange has filed in the Superior Court an amended complaint in her suit for a divorce from J. J. Lange, distributor for the Standard Biscuit company and the Mutual Biscuit company, that also involves the partition of about $12,000 worth of property, which sets up against her husband additional brutalities.

The wife charges that on Thanksgiving Day, 1909, Lange went home in an intoxicated condition. Going into the kitchen where his wife was busy, it is alleged, he picked up a glass and threw it at Mrs. Lange with great force, striking her on the forehead. She would have fallen, she says, had it not been for the wall. Then she declares Lange went into the pantry and pulled glassware, food and tinware off the shelves.

OTHER CHARGES.

A few days after this incident, the amended complaint alleges, Lange went home again under the influence of liquor and used unbecoming language in the presence of the minor children. She stood the alleged abuse as long as she could and then left home and took refuge with a friend. Shortly afterwards Lange called at the neighbor's house, it is asserted, and ordered his wife to return home with him. When she refused, the amended complaint states, Lange struck her violent blows upon the head, neck and shoulders with his clinched fist so that she was severely bruised and battered.

After this Mrs. Lange remained away from home for two weeks and then returned to her husband upon his signing an agreement that he would cease his cruel treatment of her. For a short time, the amended complaint says, Lange kept his promise and then he returned to his old abuses.

The delightful creamy flavor of "Banquet" cheese is most pleasing to the taste. 10 cents.

SUSPENDED HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS ARE REINSTATED

Clifford McElwrath and Gordon McDonald, who were alleged to have been mixed up in the fistic affair which brought the junior dance of the Oakland High school last Saturday evening to an abrupt close, and who were temporarily suspended, have received permission from the Board of Education to be reinstated by the principal in their respective classes in the John C. Fremont High school, where they are seniors and members of the football team in good standing. They were requested by the Board of Education to refrain from attending any of the functions given at the Oakland High school and also never to appear on the Oakland High school grounds during the remainder of their high school life.

Yesterday morning C. E. Keyes, principal of the Oakland High school, communicated with Principal Rossiter of the John C. Fremont High school and secured the suspension of McElwrath and McDonald.

Principal Rossiter interviewed the boys as to their behavior in the hall on that occasion and at the close of the talk requested them to take a short vacation until the matter could be settled to the satisfaction of Principal Keyes. Through the efforts of Professor Rossiter the boys were permitted to continue with their studies today.

'THE ARCADIANS' TRULY ENGLISH

Original Musical Comedy at Macdonough; Proves Its Merits.

"THE ARCADIANS."

A musical comedy redolent of mutton shops and afternoon tea. Tuneful, but not so much so that you will whistle it. Staged far better than expectation and well cast. Englishy throughout, but original and above the average melody production. Compares with the best sent West this season.

(By LEO LEVY.)

"The Arcadians," a musical fancy in three acts, is every bit as English as afternoon tea at a cricket match, or a mutton chop. Luckily it is more substantial than either in single portions, which is probably why the producers allowed all that is British to remain and did not attempt to inoculate it with our own musical comedy serum. A careful play doctor can Americanize a Viennese light opera, or even a home-made New York bang-bang affair, but your genuine British product defies all attempts at mangling. "The Arcadians" we saw at the Macdonough last night when it opened a four-performance stay, had some things to marvel at, much to enjoy and little to sleep through.

All honor to the men who painted the stage pictures, or rather, built them. Even Arcady was never like that first act. Wear and tear of the road has failed to mar the cloudless sky or blight the flowers. And although the grass is too green and the well of truth dry, there was nothing we wanted to ask for in stage settings. Askwood race track in act two, and the Arcadian restaurant, London, all showed the result of an expert's hand. "The Arcadians" comes very near being the acme of stage building.

PALM FOR ORIGINALITY.

There isn't much of a plot to the thing, and the action doesn't move much faster than the proverbial Englishman, but the palm should be awarded for originality. James Smith, a London caterer drops in on the Arcadians when his aeroplane bucks and throws him. He is joyously received by the simple, world-ignorant shepherds and shepherdesses, who would know more about London and its "monsters." Smith, in the natural course of things, tells a lie and is dropped into the well of Miss Truth, where he meets the lady, is rejuvenated shaved, regarbed, and sent forth to the footlights to gambol in the calcium.

Accompanied by Sombra and Chryses, Smith, now Simplicitas, goes to London to spread the propaganda of Truth among the natives. What happens there to the trio gives material for two acts.

GROTESQUE ENOUGH.

Johnny Osborne, a comedian truly British, gives to Simplicitas a touch of nonsense that is not overdone. Osborne is grotesque enough to carry off the part, knows the limits of the thing and, unlike the American comedian, stays inside them. Wolverton Thomas' portrayal of the mournful jockey, Peter Doody, won him many rounds of applause, and five encores on his song. Thomas jumped into the part when Gilbert Childs, the original Doody, was taken ill. He had carried Doody through the two acts only twice before, and yet, last night an Oakland audience accorded him a reception that would not have been heartier if Childs was togged out in jockey garb. Thomas will be more than an understudy when his present contract expires.

WOMEN IN CAST.

Of the women in the cast, Ruth Thorp, Alice Russon and Moya Mannerin as Sombra, Eileen Cavanaugh and Chryses, respectively, had voice and personality that fitted well into the general idea of goodness that pervades the production. The other principals—and there is more than a score of them—are almost all that you have vainly asked for in many musical comedies of the past.

The chorus is well drilled and its members manage to smile without much effort.

Like all British melody since Sullivan's pen was put away, there is little in "The Arcadians" that you grope for the day after. It ripples along the same level, never approaches a cheap catchiness, and while pleasing when the orchestra thrums it out fails to exist long enough in your mind's ear to hum when you dislodge your collar an hour later.

VERBAL BATTLE TAKEN TO COURT FOR SETTLEMENT

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 28.—A long drawn out verbal battle between the Multnomah County court and the steamboatmen navigating the Willamette river, over the action of the court in keeping the drawbridges of the city closed during the rush hours morning and evening, has come to a direct issue and will be fought out in the Federal courts. Yesterday County Commissioners W. L. Lightner, D. V. Hart and County Judge T. J. Cloten, who constitute the County Court, were placed under arrest on a bench warrant, issued by the Federal Circuit Court, which charges violation of a federal statute prohibiting the obstruction of navigable streams. The County Court was released on its own recognizance.

Any Live Kid Plays Hookey, Declares Attorney-General

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Feb. 28.—D. A. Preston, Attorney General of Wyoming, hasn't forgotten his school days. At least so it is the inference to be drawn from a very informally worded but intensely human opinion which he has given to Superintendent of Public Instruction Mose A. Bird, regarding the advisability of punishing a scholar for truancy on a legal holiday.

"It is doubtful if a kid can be punished for playing hookey on a holiday," the Attorney General said in his written opinion, "so give the kids the benefit of the doubt."

"Any live kid plays hookey when the signs are right," was Preston's comment on his opinion.

RIP'S SUCCESSOR WEARIES SPOUSE

Mrs. Viola Scott Declares It Took Hubby 20 Years to Wake Up.

Robert E. Scott was so slow in everything he did, according to the testimony upon which his wife, Viola, secured an interlocutory decree of divorce late yesterday afternoon in the Superior Court, that he always reminded Mrs. Scott of Rip Van Winkle.

Scott is a traveling salesman and Mrs. Scott told the court that he frequently boasted to her about the "fluffy-ruffles" he captured while away from home. He also complained of his wife's cooking, declaring that it was about the worst he had ever seen.

DIAMONDS STOLEN ON SHASTA LIMITED

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 28.—Diamonds worth $800 were stolen from a Pullman sleeping car in the Shasta Limited, at or near this city on February 24. The loss came to light when the Pullman officials requested Captain of Detectives Moore to have his men watch for the expected offering of the jewelry for sale here.

C. F. Bratmeyer, a passenger on the train en route from Seattle to San Francisco, was the owner of the diamonds, which he left in a handbag in his berth on the car Brazito. With them was $16 in money.

Bratmeyer was absent from his seat but a short time and is confident that it was within this period that his valuables were taken. He announced the loss to the train officials.

A WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE

With Newbro's Herpicide.

While there are no thrills in the narration of Mrs. P. T. Nichols, 628 Broad St., Beloit, Wis., her story is nevertheless one of amazing interest. "Stricken with neuralgia and erysipelas, I lost all my hair. My doctor recommended Newbro's Herpicide. I used six or eight bottles and now have a fine head of slightly curly, light brown hair. Not a gray hair in my head. This is the more remarkable as I am middle-aged."

While the results which follow the use of Newbro's Herpicide are always more or less astonishing, they are always natural. Herpicide destroys the dandruff germ, stimulates the flow of blood to the hair follicles and keeps the scalp perfectly healthy. It makes possible a natural and luxuriant growth of hair, except in cases of chronic baldness.

While remedies said to be "every bit as good" as Newbro's Herpicide are frequently offered, one should insist upon having the original germ destroyer, Herpicide. That is genuine. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

For sale at all drug stores. One dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications may be obtained at good barber shops. Send 10c in postage for sample to The Herpicide Co., Dept. E, Detroit, Mich.

FIAT CARS AMONG THE EXHIBITS AT AUTO SHOW

Other Machines Are Arriving for Coming Exhibition in 'Frisco.

When the San Francisco Motor Club opens its automobile show next Saturday evening the Fiat will be among those attractions that are expected to draw motor enthusiasts to the Pavilion Rink, where the exhibition is to be held. A telegram from the Pacific Coast Motor Car Company of Los Angeles, coast distributers for the Fiat, has just reserved exhibiting space at the show, and advised that cars for exhibition will be shipped at once from the Southern California headquarters. The Fiat's decision to display is one of the most interesting features of recent developments in connection with the local show. The car has a following the world over, and its numerous racing victories, won in both this country and Europe, embellish many a chapter of motor car history. As with several other cars this will be the first time that the Fiat ever exhibited in a Pacific Coast show. Among the other makes which will be seen for the first time in an exhibit here are the S. G. V. and the Amplex.

A number of the exhibits for the show have just arrived or are en route, and in close proximity to San Francisco. The Premiers are among the cars that have arrived, and E. C. Collins reports that the new Cartercar fore-door and truck models will be here before the Pavilion opens its doors for the show. The Matheson is to have a car for exhibition brought especially for the occasion from the Chicago show. A big yellow American car has just arrived from Chicago, where it was on display at the automobile show, and it will be among the cars on the local show floor when things begin next Saturday. According to the Motor Sales Company of California, the interstate exhibit will be almost a duplicate of their famous display at this year's Madison Square Garden show in New York City.

MONTAGUE ESTATE INVOLVED IN SUIT

SAN JOSE, Feb. 28.—Alleging a questionable manipulation of the estate of the deceased wife of W. W. Montague, former postmaster of San Francisco and one of its leading merchants, Harison H. Roundtree, a relative of the dead woman, yesterday began a suit in the Superior Court of this county for the possession of the Riverside farm, the country home of Montague.

The history of the case dates back to the sixties, when P. T. Southworth, then a hardware merchant of San Francisco, owned the property, which lies adjacent to the Agnew State Hospital for the Insane along the Guadalupe creek.

CROKER SCORES MURPHY'S STAND

Old Tammany Chief Declares Sheehan Should Be Removed From Fight.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20. — A contribution from Richard Croker, predecessor of Charles A. Murphy as head of Tammany Hall, was added to the controversy over the New York senatorial deadlock in New York in a dispatch to the World today from Palm Beach, Fla. Croker, who has for years been practically silent on politics, is quoted as follows:

"The present situation ought to be relieved at once for it is going to be a calamity to New York and the country.

"Why does Murphy keep behind Sheehan, instead of withdrawing him? He knows he can get eighty votes but what good are they if it won't mean an election?

"Tammany is in the wrong to expect to wheel all the men into line without discussing the situation thoroughly, and I say that the welfare of the party, the state and the nation, demands Sheehan's withdrawal, for Murphy's insistence on Sheehan's nomination will surely weaken the New York state democracy."

BELLS TO CHIME FIRST DAY LENT, TOMORROW

Forty days of penitence, marking the lenten season, will commence tomorrow, Ash Wednesday, and will continue until Easter, in all the Catholic and Episcopal churches throughout this city, where sacred music by choirs and sermons by the pastors will be the order of service. During Lent no social functions will be enjoyed and the members of society will devote themselves to serious thoughts and withdraw from the worldly pleasures. They will prepare for Good Friday and Easter, the latter to be celebrated April 16 in all the Protestant as well as the Catholic houses of worship.

Masses will be celebrated tomorrow in all the Catholic churches.

ST MARY'S SERVICES.

The whole period of Lent will be especially observed at St. Mary's church, Eighth and Jefferson streets. During Lent on week days morning masses will be offered at 7:30 and 9 o'clock. The blessing and distribution of ashes on Ash Wednesday will take place before the 9 o'clock mass and after the evening service. On all the Sunday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of Lent there will be special devotion, a sermon and benediction. These services will commence at 7:45. The sermons at the Sunday evening services will be preached by the rector, Rev. E. P. Dempsey, and will be liturgical in nature. The subjects to be treated on the Sunday night services are "External Worship," "Why in Latin?" "Sacred Vestments," "Lights and Bells," Sacraments," "Holy Week" and "The Empty Tomb." On the Wednesday evening of Lent the sermons will be preached by the Rev. Father Kennedy and will treat on various phases of life. The subjects will be: "The Beginning of Life," "Life's Meaning," "Life's Evils," "Life's Illusions," "Life's Afflictions," "Home Life," "Our True Life."

PHASES OF PASSION.

Phases of the passion will form the theme of the Friday evening discourses, which will be preached by the Rev. Father McGratton. On the Friday evenings Father McGratton will treat of the "Via Dolorosa," "Mental Suffering," "The Condemnation," "To Calvary," "Dereliction of Christ," "The Last Words" and Calvary." On the Friday afternoons of Lent, commencing at a quarter after 3 o'clock, there will be special devotions. These afternoon services are intended especially for children, but adults who cannot attend the evening devotions will be very welcome. The Friday afternoon services will consist of the Way of the Cross, a short sermon on the Suffering of Christ and benediction. The music at the week-day services will be given by the members of the children of Mary Sodality. On the Sunday mornings of Lent mass will be offered every hour from 8 until noon. The last mass will be at 11 o'clock. This will be a solemn high mass. The music at these last services on Sunday mornings will be given by the Oakland Conservatory of Music choir under the direction of Professor Adolf Gregory.

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES.

St. Francis de Sales, Hobart and Grove streets—Mass at 9 o'clock, distribution of the blessed ashes. Evening at 7:45, devotions, sermon, benediction and re-distribution of ashes. Friday evening at 7:45, stations of the cross and benediction of the blessed sacrament. Every Wednesday and Friday afternoons at 4 o'clock services will be conducted.

Sacred Heart church, Fortieth and Grove streets—Devotions every Wednesday evening at 7:45 and Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. There will be music at both services.

St. Mary's College chapel—Ash Wednesday morning at 6:30 o'clock, blessing and distribution of the ashes. Evening devotions at 7 o'clock Wednesday, Friday and Sunday evenings. Services conducted by Father Cranwell of St. Mary's college.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

St. Paul's church, Grand avenue and Webster street—Devotions will commence at 10:30 with a holy communion service and sermon. Full vested choir. Offering for widows' and orphans' fund of deceased clergymen. Morning sermon by R. Franklin Hart, assistant rector of St. Paul's church. Evening service and sermon at 8 o'clock by Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of St. Paul's church. With the exception of every Wednesday afternoon services will be held every day at 4:30 in St. Paul's church. Every Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and every evening at 8 o'clock. Visiting clergymen will deliver addresses every evening. There will be no services on Saturday.

CHURCH OF ADVENT.

Church of the Advent, Twelfth avenue and East Sixteenth street—Wednesday morning at 10:30, litany and holy eucharist. Friday evening at 8 o'clock, solemn evensong and sermon. Every Friday evening services will be held in the church and after ash Wednesday devotions at 4 o'clock every Wednesday afternoon. At 8 o'clock tomorrow evening there will be evening prayer and penitential offering, with music by the vested choir. Every Thursday morning there will be holy eucharist services.

ST. ANTHONY'S CHURCH.

St. Anthony's church—Ash Wednesday, masses at 7 and 9 o'clock; blessed ashes distributed at 9. Mass and evening devotions. Evening devotions at 8 o'clock Wednesday and Friday. Masses on Thursday and Saturday at 7 and 8:30 a. m. Masses Friday (first Friday) at 5:30, 7 and 8:30. Mission opening Sunday.

PRESENT COLD SNAP IS NOT ONLY ONE

Temperature Has Been Lower in This Neck of Woods, But Not Much.

Also, Approaching Fruit Season Promises Big Things, So Cheer Up.

Everybody has been complaining the last few days about the cold, calling it "very unusual" and feeling much abused accordingly. To find out just how much cause there is for such complaint the records at Chabot Observatory have been consulted and probably to the great disappointment of many, these reports show the temperature is not much below the ordinary for this time of the year.

Records kept at the observatory since 1894 show that on the last three days of February the thermometer has in general lowered about in the forties.

COLDER IN 1907.

For instance, in 1907, the last three days of the month were respectively 40, 40 and 45 degrees, not much below this year's record of 36 degrees for the 26th, 37 degrees for the 27th and this morning's record taken at 7 o'clock of 40 degrees.

In addition, though, the past few days have been colder, the mean temperature for the month is almost identical with that of past years. For example, the Chabot records show the following:

Mean temperature for—

February, 1901	55.43
February, 1902	55.2
February, 1903	49.8
February, 1904	50.6
February, 1905	53.05
February, 1906	55.03
February, 1907	55.15
February, 1908	49.9
February, 1909	50.8
February, 1910	49.7

AVERAGE IS ESTIMATED.

As yet the average for this month is not completed, but the Chabot attendant estimates it will be in the neighborhood of 49 degrees.

Another interesting point is that on three other days this month, the 14th to 16th inclusive, the temperature has been inclusive, the temperature days, 32 degrees being registered on the 16th. But as there was no cold wind blowing few people were conscious of the drop. Moreover, in sixteen of the seventeen years recorded, the temperature was as low or lower at some time during the month than it has been since Saturday.

When asked if the cold and snow had or would have any bad effects on vegetation, the Chamber of Commerce official said there had been no reports of such damage, nor is the cold snap unusual, since every year a frost is expected at this time.

This opinion was reiterated by the Chabot attendant, who held conditions as unusually favorable this year, with the ground well soaked and the air cold enough to prevent too early blossoming of fruit trees. Detailed reports of conditions in the mountain fruit districts are yet to come in, but it is unlikely they will be unfavorable.

EVERYBODY LOVES A FAT MAN, SAYS HEAD OF HEAVYWEIGHTS

If you wish to be a loved man, don't be pretty; be just fat.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—If any one had been standing in the front o New York today at the after-breakfast hour, with ear delicately attuned to catch the harmony of the universe, he would have heard, escaping upward, pleased sighs like little jets of steam from a radiator. If he had questioned some all-knowing spirit he would have got the answer:

"That is the chorus of the grateful fat men."

The gratitude was due to the address delivered by W. D. Quimby, president of the New England Fat Men's Club at its dinner in Boston. Quimby proved to the world that the phrase "Nobody loves a fat man" is a lie; that everybody loves him, and that it is fat that makes the world go round.

"What would home be without a fat man?" asked Quimby.

"Empty," responded the grand chorus.

"What would be the condition of the jails and divorce courts if all could be fat?" was another point of Quimby.

And the chorus made the same response.

GLORY AT LAST, SAM SAYS.

A reporter also slightly inclined to embonpoint, went out to confer with the chesty hefty ones who were echoing the thoughts of the fat one of Boston.

The first member he bumped into was Sam Wolf the 215-pound clerk of the Court of General Sessions.

"How about it eh," chuckled Sam. "We've got glory after all. And it's true, too, especially that part about the criminals. In the eight years I've been in the General Sessions I've seen nearly 7000 criminal's get sentences, and I scarcely remember a fat one. They're mostly little shrimps."

"What is the matter with equipping justice in this way she is pictured?" was suggested. "Have scales in tailed in the court room. Let the prisoner get aboard and if he tips them at more than 200, let His Honor say, 'Discharged,' without further bother."

Sam looked up and said he would suggest it to Judge Swann this morning.

The next man met was "Diamond Dan" O'Rourke, prominent dispenser and philanthropist of Park Row. It has been while since Dan can train down to 300

DAN WILL TREAT HIM.

"That is up in Boston," said Dan, "save for the hair on the head, as I want to extend him a invite to call around. As everybody knows, I haven't got a mean bone in my body, and if anybody ever touches me, why, I always give up."

"Big Bill" Edwards, our leaning street commissioner, wore a broader smile than usual.

"Ha, ha," he exclaimed, glancing out of the window. "Ho, ho, again! Looks like snow."

That was all, each man in his position, facing trouble so lightly, was sure some fat man.

Judge Mulqueen, also in the two hundred class, was able to shed more light on statistics concerning the corpulent.

"We are all good fellows," said he. "Of course our class is somewhat select. Nevertheless I agree with the Bostonian that fat men love their homes, make the most indulgent fathers and somehow escape the divorce court and penitentiary."

Al Ullman, the genial publicist, familiarly known as "The Great Ham Bird," who boasts he has not a hotel to build below 250, since he attained his majority, was strolling—somewhat heavily, it is true, but still strolling—along Broadway.

ULLMAN REFUSES TO SLAY.

"Would he were fatter," he was heard to mutter, "but I fear him not. I do not know a man I would avoid so soon as that spare Cassius."

"How now?" asked the reporter. "Haven't you heard the news from Boston concerning our guild?"

"I was about to slay an editor," responded the publicist, "but now it may not be. Our reputation shall not be tarnished. Lets have another—er—pardon, I mean 'What'll you have?'"

Three aldermen, mighty of girth, as all aldermen are fabled to be, were questioned. They were Frank Dolliver of the Sixth District, James Smith of the Fourth and Samuel Marx of the Thirty-first. All were thinking up resolutions offering the freedom of the city to Quimby. So fine a fellow must be honored, they felt.

"Big Bill" Devery, the "best chief ever, &c.," who in bygone days reminisced at the Pump, Twenty-eight street and Eighth avenue, but who now reminisces on Riverside Drive, had the following to relate, and said every word of it was true:

IN FATNESS LAY SAFETY.

"There are so few fat crooks that once when I caught a fellow just trying to pull off a 'job'—caught him all alone and on a dark night too—I saw him stuffing a fat man entering the house the 'cop' wouldn't arrest him.

Captain "Bill" Hodgins of the Elizabeth street station, who was retired by Police Commissioner Bingham for excessive weight, and who was reinstated after proving to a jury, with tables, chairs and other paraphernalia, that he was as good as he ever was, almost burst a button off his uniform with laughter.

"Just another sign of the times," said he. "Just another little sign. All we need boys is just to stand together. That's all."

Other heavyweights in private and public life who said Quimby was "the real stuff" were Aaron Hanover, known as "Humpity," the Mayor of Avenue C; Eugene McGuire and "Big Tom" Foley, who went into training at Muldoon's recently and got grouchy with loss of pounds, but who have the pounds all back and are happy again; John S. Shea, short, fat and jolly, and known as the "best brother of "Charlie," fat contractor and sheriff ever, &c.;" "Jack" Murphy, fat man, Magistrate Moses Herrman, who is on the road to the 200 class, and is known as the "best natured judge, &c.," and "Walter Jones, who is now so corpulent that it is a wonder he has not engaged to play Falstaff.

PRESIDENT TAFT HAPPIER.

From many parts of the country word was received last night that statistics showed the correctness of the Quimby report. From Washington word was received that President Taft enjoyed his dinner more than usual. From Chicago came glad tidings that while there are a few fat malefactors of great wealth whom some regard as criminals the ordinary garden variety are mostly "runts" who train down to carry on their business.

Pittsburg disagreed slightly because so many high-up confidence men are "there with the front," but from Sing Sing came the reassuring news that the only really fat criminal that they had in years was "Big Bill" Green, and he escaped several months ago.

Warden McGinness of the Essex county, N. J., jail, agreed with Quimby as follows.

"The typical 'crook' is a nervous, restless chap, furtive and dissatisfied, or else he is cold blooded and devoid of the quality of human sympathy. He lacks the very things that a man grows fat upon. By the way, McGinness weighs 225 pounds.

Chief of Detectives James H. Smith of St. Louis, Mo., says that porch climbers seldom work after getting past 160 pounds, as they lose their agility; the transom thief is lank and the pickpocket is thin, so that he might squirm easily out of crowds.

The records of Auburn prison show that in its present 1400 fewer than forty men weigh more than 250 pounds apiece. But the woman's prison contains more than the normal proportion of heavyweights. One keeper suggests that obesity means prosperity and it is difficult to land prosperous evildoers in prison.

WOMAN MAKES GRAVE CHARGE

Accuses E. A. Loftus of Serious Crime; Was Stranger in City.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Viola Heuer appeared today as principal witness against E. A. Loftus, arrested by the police and charged with a felonious assault. According to Mrs. Heuer, she came here with her husband from Tacoma and went to reside temporarily in Haight street.

The graver charge came up before Judge Deasy and was continued, and before Judge Conlan Mrs. Heuer told her story up to the point of her own arrest for entering a questionable house and had her case dismissed. The charge against Loftus in this court was also put over.

Young Woman Kills Mother and Nephew

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—Miss Jeannette Lewis, 27 years old, murdered her mother, Mrs. Sarah Lewis, aged 57 years, and her nephew, Edward B. Midden, Jr., aged 9, by administering cyanide of potassium today and committed suicide by taking a dose of the same drug. Miss Lewis' sister died last night and it is believed the young woman was crazed by grief.

IMPROVERS RECOMMEND NEW AUDITORIUM SITE

The Broadway to Market Improvement club at a recent meeting adopted the following resolutions:

"Whereas, The city of Oakland is to submit to the voters of Oakland the proposition of a bond issue for the building of an auditorium to cost $500,000, and

"Whereas, Said city council is looking for a suitable site to erect such auditorium in anticipation of the bond issue carrying; be it

"Resolved, By the Broadway to Market Improvement club that we recommend to our honorable mayor and city council of Oakland that Lafayette Square be used as a site for such auditorium, as it is centrally located, handy to all car lines, hotels and places of amusement. (By placing the observatory in the dome of the auditorium the grounds would be used for the purpose for which they were dedicated to the city and at the same time better quarters would be available.) Be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the honorable mayor and the city council of Oakland."

CORPORATION DISSOLVES.

R. A. Leet, Seth R. Talcott, Earle L. Burpee and L. C. Leet, directors of R. A. Leet & Co., photographers of Oakland, whose business was recently merged with that of the Bowman Drug Company, this morning petitioned the Superior Court for permission to dissolve the corporation.

Earl of Percy Walks Ties Hundred Miles to Ottawa

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 28.—The Earl of Percy, aide de camp to Earl Grey, Governor General of Canada and for years a member of the British Parliament, walked the ties into Ottawa last night from Montreal, thus completing the last stage of a journey from New York, where he was an usher at the wedding of Lord Decies to Miss Gould.

The long walk was the result of a wager made in Montreal. Earl Percy started from that city Saturday morning and covered the 111½ miles to Ottawa in three days, at the rate of more than thirty-seven miles a day.

Fire in Lumber District Entails Loss of $150,000

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 28.—Fire originating from a source as yet unknown today destroyed the Oregon-Washington lumber company's plant in South Portland, damaged the Gold Medal Shingle Mill and the Multnomah Lumber Company plant and burned a residence. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

BERKELEY EDUCATOR SPEAKS IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Elinor Carlyle, a member of the Berkeley Board of Education and president of the Bay Federation of Mother's Clubs, addressed the principals and vice-principals of the Alameda schools at 4 o'clock this afternoon on "The Value of School Mother's Clubs."

Many advisable plans for benefitting the school children and increasing the interest of the parents in clubs were divulged by the speaker.

PLAYGROUND HEADS TO ENTERTAIN YOUTH

The first of a series of entertainments for boys and girls who work during the day has been arranged by the Playground Committee for next evening. It will be held at the Washington school, Sixteenth street and Shattuck avenue and its purpose is to give recreation to such children. This first entertainment is for residents in the vicinity of Bushrod Park.

DIANA, Tenn., Feb. 28.—A duel was fought between Dr. George Lowe and William W. Collins today. Dr. Lowe was killed and Collins was wounded in the arm.

SAN FRANCISCO MASONS WILL ABANDON CEMETERY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The Masonic Cemetery Association took the first step in abandoning its old cemetery in this county this morning by petitioning for permission to sell the graveyard property to the extent of 40 acres, just north of Golden Gate Park. It was stated that the bodies would be removed to the present cemetery in San Mateo county. It is expected that other associations will follow the lead of the Masons in this connection.

SNOW IN NEW MEXICO.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 28.—Five inches of snow fell throughout Central New Mexico last night and it is still falling. Stockmen and ranchers are now assured of a good supply of water for next season.

One Killed, Two Hurt In Tennessee Fight

CLYDETOWN, Tenn., Feb. 28.—Barricaded in a houseboat, Dan Warre and his wife held off a posse in a gun fight late yesterday. Warren suffered a wound that rendered him helpless. W. F. Rust, a Chicago salesman, was killed and another member of the posse was seriously wounded. The battle took place near Clydetown, on the Tennessee river.

HATCH DECLARES THAT HE HAS BEEN LIBELED

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Willard P. Hatch, chief probation officer of the juvenile court, was denied a warrant for criminal libel against C. W. Hornick and Ernest S. Simpson, general manager and managing editor of the San Francisco Call, today. Hatch was told that District Attorney Fickert would have to pass upon the matter before the bond and warrant clerk would issue a warrant for their arrest. Hatch declares that he was libeled in a story printed by the Call.

SURELY SETTLES UPSET STOMACHS

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia Go and You Will Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

DECRY SURGICAL TEST ON BRUTES

Doctor Says What Passes for Cancer Research Is "Utter Moonshine."

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. — Twenty-nine years practice as surgeon in the London Cancer Hospital so thoroughly convinced Dr. Herbert Snow of London that "What passes with the public for cancer research is utter moonshine," that he stirred the members of the Anti-vivisection Society meeting here last night with a condemnation of "The whole system of experimentation upon the sub-human animals."

"It is," he said, "both unscientific and futile.

"No inference can be drawn directly," he declared, "from any phenomena in the sub-human animal to mankind. The fundamental differences of structure in every direction are enormous."

As an instance, he pointed out that lemonade, a healthful and refreshing beverage for man, was deadly poison to cats and rabbits.

"Salt," he said, "is fatall to chickens. Prussic acid promptly kills man and elephants, but horses and hyenas take it with impunity. Rabbits eat belladonna. Pigs are fond of the tobacco plant and conium, the hemlock which killed Socrates. And so in a hundred cases one sees the mischievous character of drug experiments on the lower animals."

In conclusion he sayys, "the cancer research now stands here and abroad as the reduction ad absurdum of the whole system of living animal experimentation."

The only sure path to scientific instruction, was, he continued, by the observation of the actual disease in the human being, living or dead.

SANTA ROSANS OBSERVE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

SANTA ROSA, Feb. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. John McMinn will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary today. They were married on February 28 half a century ago, the bride having been Miss Elizabeth Blair. The ceremony was performed at Willits, in Mendocino county, and the wedding journey was taken on horseback to this city. McMinn came with his parents to the vicinity of Fulton, five miles north of this city, when a child, and Mrs. McMinn's parents resided on an adjoining ranch.

A feature of the celebration will be a golden wedding family dinner, at which the eleven children of the happy couple will all be present. The three daughters who are at home, the Misses Jess, Carand Allette McMinn, have planned to make the day a particularly delightful one, and hours have been set apart when friends of the family will call and felicitate the couple on the attainment of the golden wedding anniversary.

SAVANT FINDS NEW SPOT ON OLD SOL

SANTA CLARA, Feb. 28.—Father Rickard of the College observatory, last night gave out the following:

"What may be considered a novelty in solar observations was visible today in the shape of a rather large sun spot on the eastern limb, surrounded by a large body of faculae. The spot is situated in two degrees and one-tenth south latitude and 65 degrees east of the solar axis. It measured 21,540 by 18,804 square miles.

"The facular region measured 78,894 by 57,828 square miles. This will swell the atmospheric disturbance of March 4 and 7, which will be followed by another March 7-11, with a grand clearing after that."

SUNNY MONDAY

Sunny Monday contains a dirt-starter which has a two-fold virtue—it saves rubbing and saves your clothes. Moreover, the dirt-starter in Sunny Monday stays there — it will do just as good work with the last wafer of the cake as when the bar is new. You get the benefit of it, too, in any kind of water, at any temperature. Sunny Monday contains nothing to harm the hands or the clothes. It is the most economical laundry soap made.

RATE IS THORN IN HARBOR BILL

Acceptance of Minimum Provision May Be Revoked by Mayors.

Water Front Measures Recommended for Passage by Committee.

(By EDWARD A. O'BRIEN.)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—The two bills for the cession by the state to the city of Oakland to tide lands on the western waterfront and in East Oakland basin in the harbor of that city, have been recommended for passage as amended by the subcommittee of the judiciary committee of the Senate.

Similar action was taken by the same committee with respect to the tide-land bills of the cities of Los Angeles and San Diego, which were also before the subcommittee. The hearing took place last night. There were present Senators Hewitt, Cartwright, Tyrrell, Wright and Stetson.

The present lessees of the tide lands in East Oakland were represented by Attorney C. E. Snook and the interests of Oakland by City Attorney Ben Woolner, who had introduced a number of new features in each of the Oakland bills.

REPORT THURSDAY.

The report of the committee in question will be made to the main body on Thursday. There is no doubt that the committee proper will accept the recommendation of the minor organization and send all the measures to be discussed on the floor of the House.

No opposition is expected, save from the senators from San Francisco, and yet Senators Wolfe and Welch, who are from San Francisco, announced several days ago, after hearing the statement of Mayor Mott of Oakland, as also that of Mayor Cornad of San Diego, to the effect that each of those cities desired to have control of the tide lands in trust only for the state, they would be satisfied to have the state set a minimum rate for wharfage, beyond which rates could not be established.

The statements of Mayors Mott and Cornal on the subject, however, were made by way of reply to questions of Senator Wolfe on the subject. Neither of the mayors, however, realized that the establishment of a minimum rate would, as has since been demonstrated, be disastrous to the commercial enterprise of their respective cities. Mayor Mott has not been here since and has not, therefore, had an opportunity of revising the statement of his willingness to have the city of Oakland stand for a minimum rate of wharfage.

CITY MAY OBJECT.

Mayor Cornad of San Diego is here and advises that when he made the statement in question, there were conditions involved which he had not taken into consideration and those conditions, after having been duly weighed, impelled him to say that he knew San Diego would not stand for a minimum rate.

Los Angeles has already set her face against a minimum rate. These three cities, therefore, are of a mind on the subject. It remains to be seen whether Wolfe will fight their bills as a consequence of the stand the cities in question have taken, as also as to whether he can impede their passage if he should fight.

One of the factors that has operated against accepting a minimum rate is that there are several charges incidental to the wharfing business which have to be taken into consideration in establishing such a rate.

Another matter to be considered is the fact that, with a state minimum rate established, private wharves would underbid for business, which their owners unquestionably would do, and thus destroy the business of the municipal wharves.

BILLS AMENDED.

Last night the Oakland bills, as also the bill of San Diego, were amended in some particulars, and when they come before the judiciary committee, other changes decided upon last night will have been incorporated. It was recognized that the Oakland bills were the most complete of all the measures offered. Considerable elaboration will have to be given the Los Angeles measure because, at the present time, it is deficient in features which are deemed essential in the others.

Since the publication of the Tyrrell bill governing the cession of the western waterfront of Oakland to the city of Oakland the measure has been amended by lines showing that the property is to be held in trust for the city and, at the same time, determining who is to have charge of the revenue from the wharves of the municipality, as follows:

ALL RIGHTS GRANTED.

"The interests of the State of California in and to all submerged and overflowed and tide-lands . . . and the right to wharf-out therefrom are hereby granted to the city of Oakland, a municipal corporation, in trust, however, for the following uses and purposes, etc. . . . This grant shall carry the right to the said city of Oakland of the rents, issues and profits in any manner hereafter arising from the lands and wharfing-out rights, hereby granted."

The bill was further amended reserving rights to the city to extend streets, drains, conduits, etc., to the tide-lands and to the building of a belt line railroad, all of which are provided for in the bill for the cession of the tide-lands in East Oakland.

At the suggestion of Senator Wright of San Diego, it was decided that there should be a uniform method of expressing the idea of a trust for the state, and the terms used in the Oakland bills were decided upon to be used in that connection.

The chair was occupied by Senator Hewitt of Los Angeles, who asked what steps Oakland had taken to enable her to reach the tide-lands sought.

City Attorney Woolner of Oakland read from the Oakland bill, showing the reservation to the city for streets, sewers, pipes and conduits.

AS TO STATE'S RIGHTS.

Senator Hewitt said that he had understood that the speaker of the House and some of the members, had expressed the hope that the bills would specifically set forth that the state would be at liberty to use any of the wharves provided for and, acting upon this suggestion, it was decided to incorporate the following in each of the bills of the three cities:

"The state hereby reserves unto itself, at all times, the right to a reasonable use of and access to all wharves docks, piers, slips and quays constructed under the provisions of this act, for any vessel or water craft owned, leased or operated by the state."

Today the senators referred to above and the representatives of Oakland will discuss the subject with Governor Johnson.

The Best Cough Syrup is Easily Made at Home

Costs Little and Acts Quickly. Money Refunded If It Fails.

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup and saves you about $2 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It stops obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—in a hurry, and is splendid for sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) in a pint bottle and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guiacol and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this recipe, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CHARGES MONEY BARREL HAS BEEN TAPPED TO BEAT BILL

KEHOE ACCUSES SLOT MACHINE BACKERS

Lighter Punishment for Violation Set Aside; Work of the Legislature.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 28. — Assemblyman William Kehoe, of Eureka, declared before the assembly labor and capital committee last night that he knew positively money had been raised to defeat the slot machine bill, introduced by Assemblyman Kennedy.

Partly as the result of Kehoe's statement, the committee allowed a provision fixing the penalty for violation at from one to three years' imprisonment, to remain, having previously considered a lighter penalty.

Assemblyman Kehoe made the assertion regarding the fund in opposing an amendment proposed by Assemblyman Young providing imprisonment from one month to one year for violation of the law.

"I do not base my information upon newspaper accounts," he said, "but I know, absolutely, that this fund was raised. I think the best answer we can make is to put this penalty as high as we can."

REFUSES INFORMATION.

When questioned later as to the source of his information, Kehoe refused to give any information. The committee passed out the bill, as amended with a favorable recommendation.

Senator Hurd's bill revising the medical practice act was defeated in the senate by a vote of 15 to 24. Its author announced that he would move a reconsideration.

The bill, in its essentials, provides for a state board of medical examiners of eleven members to be appointed by the Governor; for admission to practice in California of physicians holding certificates from other states with equivalent standards, and for admission to practice, without examination of graduates of medical schools who have served a hospital internship, and that an applicant failing to pass some of the subjects of the examination shall be entitled to reexamination which shall cover only the subjects in which he has failed.

Following the vote Senator Hurd said he was willing to amend the bill except as to the Governor's appointing power, and the examination plan.

VOTE ON BILL.

The vote on the bill, which has stirred up much excitement throughout the state among physicians and disciples of many schools of healing, was as follows:

Ayes — Senators Beban, Boynton, Bryant, Cassidy, Curtin, Finn, Hare, Hewitt, Lewis, Regan, Rush, Stey, Sanford, Welch, Wolfe, Wright—15.

Noes — Senators Avey, Bell, Birdsall, Black, Burnett, Caminetti, Campbell, Cartwright, Cutten, Estudillo, Gates, Hans, Holohan, Hurd (x), Juilliard, Larkins, Martinelli, Roseberry, Shanahan, Stetson, Strobridge, Thompson, Tyrrell, Walker—24.

(x)—Senator Hurd changed his vote from aye to noe in order to move reconsideration.

Senator Roseberry, chairman of the senate committee on attaches, says that a weeding out process among senate employes will begin shortly, and will be based to a considerable extent on what sort of work they have done thus far.

The senate is running about $15 per day behind and it is considered necessary not only to stop this deficit but to accumulate at least $1000 for work to be done when the session is over.

TO CUT CLERKS.

The force at the disposal of the senate secretary, Walter N. Parrish, is not to be tampered with, and the numerical force of stenographers is immune, under present plans, but it is thought possible to reduce the total number by a cut somewhere among the bill filers, committee clerks, or sergeant-at-arms. The necessary reduction can be made, Senator Roseberry said, within the last two weeks of the session.

Assembly public morals committee recommended favorably a bill by Senator Boynton, prohibiting the sale of liquor within a fixed distance of the State University agricultural farm at Davis. The bill, against which a number of Davis hotel keepers and liquor men appeared, provided that no liquor could be sold within one mile of the farm. In an amendment adopted by the committee, the distance was fixed at three miles. Senator Boynton, Professor Leroy Anderson and Professor A. M. Cleghorn of the University farm, appeared in favor of the bill. Against it were Captain T. Tuttle, J. E. Fitzgerald, George Weher and Mrs. N. Greaves, of Davis.

LOTTERY ADVERTISING.

A bill by Assembly Becket, prohibiting the publishing of lottery advertising, was passed upon favorably. Mr. Beckett also introduced a bill against slot machines, similar to Kennedy's, but the latter was the only one acted upon.

Assemblyman Gulli's poolroom bill also received the committee's approval. The bill prohibited, as originally drawn, proprietors of poolrooms from allowing boys under 16 years of age to enter such places. The committee amended it, making the age 18 years.

Assemblyman Benedict's board of control bill was the subject of an extended debate at the afternoon meeting of the Senate judiciary committee. The bill would abolish the State Board of Examiners, leaving its duties in the hands of an appointive board, assisted by a staff of fiscal agents, to be employed at the board's discretion. Assemblyman Benedict and Controller Nye urged the approval of the bill. They declared that leading financial experts of the country had been consulted in its drafting, and that it embodied the results of the experience of a number of states.

WEBB IS OPPOSED.

Attorney General Webb opposed it, chiefly on the ground that it would make possible the building up of a formidable political machine. The committee decided to refer the bill to a committee of three for amendment.

Assemblyman Griffith's bill for authorizing managers of state institutions to employ regularly ordained ministers for spiritual duties and ministrations in such institutions was defeated in the Senate.

Assembly bills passed by the Senate, besides the Wyllie bill, were:

Approving amendments to the charter of the city of Sacramento.—Bliss.

Providing that promotion expenses of insurance companies shall not exceed 15 per cent of the total amount actually paid on its capital stock, exclusive of surplus.—Kehoe.

Prohibiting fishing by seines, traps or like devices in portions of Monterey Bay.—Mahon.

AUDUBON SOCIETY WILL OPPOSE THIS MEASURE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The bill now before the Legislature introduced by Senator Stuckenbruck of Acampo, removing the protection from the meadow lark, will be opposed by the Audubon Society of California. Speaking of the bill yesterday, Dr. Frederick W. d'Evelyn, vice-president of the society, said:

"The meadow lark is one of California's few songbirds. It has some bad marks against its reputation as being destructive of early peas, etc. On the other hand, it has many marks to its credit as an insect destroyer. France is today spending vast sums trying to recover what she lost by the senseless destruction of the birds. California, whose greatest asset is agriculture, might one day have to do likewise."

Backache, Rheumatism, Sleeplessness.

Result from disordered kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills have helped others, they will help you. Mrs. J. B. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., says "For a long time I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had severe backaches and felt all played out. After taking two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills my backache is gone and where I used to lie awake with rheumatic pains I now sleep in comfort. Foley Kidney Pills did wonderful things for me." Try them now.

DOUBT STILL EXISTS.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 28.—Dr. Bolivar J. Lloyd, government expert on bubonic plague, who returned from Spokane yesterday where he went to investigate the mysterious epidemic which has broken out there, says that although the indications are that none of the suspected cases are bubonic plague, it will take several days to exclude all doubt.

A heavy cold in the lungs that was expected to cure itself has been the starting point in many cases of disease that ended fatally. The sensible course is to take frequent doses of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. It checks the progress of the disorder and assists nature to restore normal conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Wishart's drug store, 10th and Washington sts.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY BILL REPORTED FAVORABLY

Senate Committee Sends Labor Measure to Solons for Consideration.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—By a vote of three to one, the Senate committee on labor and capital last night reported out the bill for an eight-hour day for women. Senators Cutten, Bryant and Larkins voted in favor. Senator Hurd, who voted against it, said he would offer amendments raising the time to nine hours and excluding offices and hotels from provisions of the bill.

Lieutenant-Governor Wallace appeared before the Senate committee on finance and advised the University of California alumni who were there to oppose the bill under which the state would take over Throop Polytechnic Institute at Pasadena, to withdraw their opposition.

Members of the committee on public health and quarantine, declared last night individually that they would eliminate from Senator Cassidy's oyster bill the provision that oysters more than four days out of the shell could not be sold within the state.

The Assembly judiciary committee reported out with a favorable recommendation Assemblyman Kinkle's bill appropriating $250,000 for a school of agriculture and forestry at San Diego.

DELEGATES BOOST HOME RULE BILL

Stetson and Strobridge Jump to Rescue of Caminetti's Measure.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—Secretary Stetson of Oakland and Senator Strobridge of Hayward came to the rescue of the bill suggested by Senator Caminetti providing for home rule for counties. The committee to which the measure was referred recommended a committee substitute which, however, contained all the principal features of the Caminetti measure.

Regardless, however, the bill was given some hard blows by Senators Sharaban, Bell and others. The measure provides for the formation, after the usual manner, of a board of freeholders, who shall frame a charter for the county after the manner that charters are formed for cities. This charter is to define the powers of supervisors, determine how many of them shall be elected and whether the election shall be by districts or at-large. It will also determine whether certain county officers are to be elected or appointed, though it provides that some shall be elected.

The amendment was made a special order for next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

HEWITT MEASURE EARNS PROTEST

Bad Features of Bill Pointed Out by District Attorney Donahue.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—The members of the Alameda county delegation have received a letter from District Attorney Donahue of Alameda county, protesting against the passage of senate bill No. 1136, by Hewitt, against the employment by district attorneys of special detectives for the purpose of working up criminal cases which come to that officer's attention, save such as may be permitted on a written application for assistance to the supervisors of the county, stating the purpose and the necessity for the employment.

District Attorney Donahue says the bill, if it should become a law, would be a serious blow to the prosecution of criminal cases. Ninety-five per cent of the men who commit crime, do so, he says, with the belief that they can not be convicted. They do all they can to cover up their tracks. If the district attorney must make public his plans on detecting such men, he would be unable to accomplish anything.

FOR YOUR HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

When Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do as above stated, it is not strange that we have such great faith in it, and that we claim it will prevent baldness when used in time. It acts scientifically, destroying the germs, which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it only at the Owl Drug Co., Inc., Tenth and Washington, Thirteenth and Broadway, Sixteenth and San Pablo.

OPPOSES DIVERSION OF COLLEGE FUNDS

W. R. Davis Makes Strong Protest Against Aiding Throop Institute.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—W. R. Davis of Oakland made a strong protest before the finance committee of the senate against any attempt to divert the funds of the University of California to the support of the Throop Polytechnic Institute at Pasadena, which some people in the southern part of the state are grooming with a view to having a state university in the southern as well as in the other extremity of the state.

Mr. Davis takes the view that there ought to be but one state university in California. That university, he holds, should be a part of the public school system of the state. He also holds that such a desideratum is now supplied by the university, that the connection between it and the public school system of the state is becoming closer and more perfect year by year and that, as a consequence, greater education achievements mark the harmonious progress of both factors of the system.

He takes the stand that to divide the university fund of this state, the great educational institution which, even now, regardless of its record, is still in but a formative state, would cripple the old and do little good to a new institution, and in fact, later but double the expense of the people.

YOUTHFUL ARDOR STERNLY REBUKED

Chinese Students' Memorial to Peking Meets Wrath of Elder Statesmen.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The Chinese Students' Alliance of the United States, which recently cabled a memorial to the Chinese government urging the calling of a special session of the national assembly of the empire to resist Russian aggression, has received a stern rebuke from Pekin. As most of the students are here under government appropriations, the rebuke comes with extra force.

The proclamation rebuking the students informs them that "the Peking government considers itself entirely capable of handling the present situation, and that there is no occasion for the youthful enthusiasts in America to tax themselves with the expense of advising the imperial council as to any concrete problem. It is recommended that the students had better be just students and not create for themselves prejudices in Peking which may prove inimical on their return.

Lay Khang of the New York University chapter of the alliance declares that the students will accept the orders from Peking.

"I think," he said, "that what the imperial council decrees about the students in stories is the result more of an unfortunate circumstance than any real prejudice.

"When Russia began to threaten China the Chinese students and merchants' associations throughout all the United States began to get busy. Telegrams were sent from New York, St. Louis, Boston, San Francisco and Los Angeles to the imperial council. The telegrams were all of one voice—they asked that China should not yield to Russia and that parliament be assembled immediately to save this degradation of China by Russia.

"So many telegrams demanding the immediate assembling of parliament bothered the government at home. That issue, you understand, is a burning one in China, and the reactionaries are fighting against parliament with all their strength. So the imperial council published a manifesto forbidding the telegrams concerning parliamentary matters. The rebuke to the American students followed."

RICHMOND TO BOND FOR PUBLIC PARK

RICHMOND, Feb. 28.—Without a cent of bonded indebtedness, this city feels itself able to impose a small bonded tax for an adequate public park, the desire being to acquire land before it reaches too high a figure. The women's clubs started the project and brought the matter before the council some time ago, suggesting a number of blocks south of Macdonald avenue and near Twelfth street that had but a few houses upon them.

John Nystrom has recently offered to the city, through the council, the Cerrites hill property.

The women are determined that their site is the best, and the various clubs sent a delegation to the meeting of the city council last night to protest against any other.

FIND MAN'S BODY AFTER LONG SEARCH

REDDING, Feb. 28.—The body of Christian Stabler, a Redding contractor, who was drowned in crossing the Sacramento river, eight miles above Kennett, on December 3 last, was found by a prospector named McCoy, who will receive $300 reward.

The body lay half buried in the sand in some brush, where it had been washed by high water, and was readily identified by the clothing.

For nearly three months a diligent search had been made by half a dozen friends of Stabler, and it was only last Friday that they gave it up.

Personal Mention

MISS IVA PICKERING has returned from a visit with friends in San Rafael.

MRS ROY WERNER is in Watsonville visiting her parents, Mayor and Mrs. P. K. Watters, and her sisters, the Misses Louise and Lottie Watters.

MAYOR AND MRS. FRANK K. MOTT were recent Sacramento visitors, the mayor having gone to the capital to speak against the Greater San Francisco movement.

GOVERNMENT TO RECOVER TITLE

Brings Suit for Valuable Land Against Colorado Fuel and Iron Co.

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 28.—Fraud, deceit and conspiracy are charged in a suit filed by the federal government yesterday against the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company to recover title to 5800 acres of coal lands in Las Animas county, Colorado, valued at more than $3,000,000. The federal government also asks the federal court in which the suit was filed for an order permitting government agents to examine these lands, and also the Primero mine, owned by the company, through which mine, it is charged, much coal has been taken from the government in violation of law. The Primero mine is one of the big properties of the fuel and iron company and is located near Trinidad, Colo.

According to the complaint, seven persons who had entered lands subsequently included in forest reserves, which entitled them to exchange for other nonmineral bearing lands, knowingly chose in lieu thereof mineral bearing lands, but made false statements as to the character of the lands selected.

The manner in which the fuel and iron company became possessed of the lands in question, the complaint sets out, was by conspiracy in which three persons, all employes of the company, brought about a series of transfers which finally secured title to the land for the company.

Las Animas county is in the heart of the Southern Colorado coal fields and practically all of the mines of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company are located there.

BAY CHURCHMEN MEET AND CONFER ACROSS BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Men of the Episcopal church, diocese of California, to the number of 150, assembled in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association building last night, the occasion being the Bay Churchmen's Conference. Dinner was served and speeches were made on several subjects deemed of importance to the members of the church, among them being foreign missions and the work of laymen in this diocese.

E. A. Young, a member of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, who recently spent four months in China, gave in detail the results of his observations of mission work in that country. Archdeacon J. A. Emery reported on the work in California. J. G. Shelby of Boston, general secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, told of the work that is being done by that branch of the church, and several other speakers made suggestions for future advancement. George E. Butler presided.

AGED G. A. R. MAN KILLS HIMSELF IN SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 28.—George M. Cook, a veteran of the Civil War, 67 years of age, committed suicide at the Judge Mercy hospital by cutting his throat with a razor. Cook came to the hospital Christmas and was given odd jobs of work. He left this note:

"I belong to Lincoln Post of the Grand Army, in good standing, in San Francisco. Please inform the Grand Army Post of Salt Lake, George M. Cook, late of Company H, Fifteenth Kansas Cavalry."

SEATTLE WILL HAVE 42-STORY BUILDING

SEATTLE, Feb. 28.—A permit for a forty-two story office building to be erected by the Smith estate of Syracuse, N. Y., and to cost $2,000,000, was issued today.

A CONDITION THAT CALLS FOR A GOOD TONIC

An Oklahoma Woman Tells How She Was Cured of a Debility That Baffled the Doctors.

General debility is generally due to impure blood. Its causes are worry, overwork, failure of the body to regain its health after a severe sickness, lack of nourishment from a disordered digestion, or some drain upon the system, all of which result in thinning the blood, preventing it from carrying health and nourishment to the tissues of the body.

There is no more perplexing trouble than debility cases in which there is no acute disease but in which the patient sinks lower and lower despite changes of medicine and similar experiments.

That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will restore health under these conditions is no speculation but the fact has been proved in hundreds of cases similar to that of Mrs. E. B. Bailey, of No. 819 South Hudson street, Oklahoma City, Okla. She says:

"Several months ago I was in a general run-down condition as the result of a severe fall. The muscles of my back seemed to be weak and there were dull pains through them. I had severe headaches and was very nervous. I kept losing flesh and was unable to get any refreshing sleep. Although I was up and about the house, I was not able to do much work.

"The doctors advised the use of liniments but these gave me only temporary relief. As I failed to get strong under their treatment, I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I could see benefit in a short time and used the pills until cured. I have been well and have had no trouble with my back since, so Dr. Williams' Pink Pills must surely have cured me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed to be safe and harmless to the most delicate constitution. They do not act on the bowels but they actually make new blood and strengthen the nerves. If you want good health you must have good blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y. A booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," will be sent free upon request.

HEART---TRIBUNE'S PAGE FOR WOMEN---HOME

SOCIETY

THE most elaborate event immediately preceding Lent was the function given this afternoon by Mrs. Harry Maxwell, who entertained seventy members of local society, assisted by her daughter Mrs. Frank Kennedy Jackson, and Mrs. Frank Havens.

The handsome Maxwell home in Piedmont was decorated in spring blossoms, yellow being the prevailing color, and the guests were entertained at bridge tables, after which an elaborate tea was served.

Some beautiful spring gowns were worn. Mrs. Maxwell received her guests in a creation of old rose satin, while Mrs. Jackson's gown was of amber colored satin, made with an overdress of white net. Mrs. Havens wore a Parisian gown of chiffon in variegated colors in the Persian tones, cerise predominating.

Mrs. Maxwell is prominent socially and is an unusually gracious hostess.

COMPLIMENTARY AFFAIR.

Miss Rosselet Henderson entertained today in honor of Miss Deane Tisdale, when fifty friends were asked in compliment to the honored guest.

Mrs. Edward Mastick Otis gave a thimble bee yesterday for the attractive bride-elect, who was presented by the guests with recipes for the cook book which was a souvenir of the occasion. Among the guests yesterday were:

The Misses:	Nourse, Bayard
Tisdale, Deane	Sherrard, McKee
Tisdale, Ruth	Pond, Chauncey
Lemcke, Emmy	Snowden, Raymond
Cramer, Edith	Bacon, William
Foster, Edith	Perry, Harold Dray
Bush, Charlotta	Barnhart, Clifford
Bissell, May	Priddle, S. D.
White, Edith	Collar, F. J.
Sherrard, Evelyn	Dewey, Franklin
Searle, Edith	Van Sicklen, Fritz
Henderson, Roselett	Porter, Ernest D.
Holt, Hazel	Newcome, G. H.
Carpentier, Marguerite	Plummer, Elliott
Searle, Bessie	Rhodin, Carl
Holt, Ruth	McIlroy, Joseph
Bean, Doris	Baxter, Howard
Miller, Ethel	Wellmann, Louis Randolph
Connor, Ione	Pelham, Robert B.
Theobald, Alice	Lamar, Ralph Linthicum
Spalding, Theo	Field, Lawrence E.
Mesdames
Gibbs, Charles E.

STUDIO TEA.

Miss Estelle Franklin Gray will entertain at a studio tea Thursday evening at the Gray home in Telegraph avenue. Miss Gray, who returned to the coast a few weeks ago, has been studying the violin for several years in Europe and has received flattering recognition.

SOUTHERN VISITOR.

Miss Carrie Van Dyke of Los Angeles, who is visiting in this city at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bangs, is being entertained a great deal in an informal way. Miss Van Dyke is a member of the smart set of the southern city and is noted for an unusually charming personality.

She is the daughter of the late Judge Van Dyke and the family home for many years was in East Oakland, where Miss Van Dyke was a frequent hostess. Mrs. Van Dyke moved to Los Angeles a few years ago, where her sons, Will and Harry Van Dyke, are practicing law. The former is United States Court Commissioner and both are graduates of Berkeley University and well known in the bay cities.

Miss Lillian Van Dyke is at present attending the State University and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

AT HOME.

Mrs. I. A. Beretta is asking a number of friends to accept her hospitality on Thursday afternoon, when she will entertain at Ebell clubhouse in honor of her sister, who is spending the early spring here.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rey Sander are receiving congratulations upon the advent of a son and daughter to the family. Mrs. Sander was formerly Miss Lillian Reed and a belle in the bay cities.

MARCH HOSTESS.

Miss Caroline Hall will be a hostess Wednesday afternoon, March 1 at a sewing bee, when she will entertain a score of the younger girls. Miss Hall, since her return from abroad, has given a number of delightful gatherings.

AT BRIDGE TABLES.

Mrs. Samuel J. Eva has sent out invitations for March 1, when she has asked a number of friends to be her guests at bridge at her home in Vernon Heights.

DANCE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

One of the most enjoyed affairs of the late season was given last night in Century Hall in San Francisco, which was adorned with rare tapestries and pictures, which with jardinieres of flowers and palms, formed a picturesque setting for the dancers.

The hostesses included Mesdames William Tevis, Charles Page, Gordon Blanding, Edith Blanding Coleman, Frederick Sharon, Joseph A. Donohoe, W. L. Elkins and Louis Parrott, and a number of Oakland belles and matrons crossed the bay for the affair.

Miss Dorothy Van Sicklen was hostess at a large bridge party which was given last night at the Fairmont, entertaining her guests in a smaller drawing room off the rotunda at the card tables. Later in the evening a supper was served in Laurel Court.

MRS. DIECKMANN HOSTESS.

Mrs. Frederick Dieckmann entertained the members of a bridge club at her home in Linda Vista yesterday, the guests including Mrs. Maurice Walsh, Mrs. Irving Lundborg, Mrs. Henry Lord Chase, Mrs. John Louis Lohse, Miss Alice Knowles, Miss Ilma Couse, Miss May Coogan, Miss Margaret Taylor, Miss Charisse Lohse, Mrs. David McClure Gregory and Miss Elinor Parker.

IN SACRAMENTO.

Mrs. George C. Pardee has been visiting Mrs. A. B. Nye of Sacramento. Another Oaklander in that city is Miss Lillie Evans.

GREENE-MATHES WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Mollie Mathes and Lester Alonzo Greene, solemnized last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dana H. Mathes, was a picturesque affair. The bride, who is one of the most attractive girls in local society, was gowned in a white lace gown, made over white satin, elaborated with pearl trimmings and made in the empire style, with a court train. The bridal veil of white tulle was caught with a half wreath of orange blossoms and fell in graceful folds to the hem of the gown. A shower bouquet of lilies of the valley shaped with a frill of rare lace was a pretty feature of the costume.

Following the ceremony a supper was served, after which the couple left for the south on their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Greene will take possession of the residence on Oak street which, until recently, was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Knight, who have gone to Los Gatos.

MISS SADLER DEPARTS.

Miss Ruth Sadler, the much entertained fiancee of Bertrand York, has gone to Kenwood, where she will visit Mrs. Howard Barbier.

TROY-SCOFIELD NUPTIALS.

The wedding of Miss Marian Troy and Earl L. Scofield will be solemnized next Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Troy, in Alameda.

Mr. Scofield is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Scofield and is connected with the Standard Oil Company.

Only relatives and intimate friends will be present at the ceremony.

HOSTESSES AT DANCE.

Mrs. Thomas Watson Cushing, Mrs. Olive Reed Cushman, Mrs. Elizabeth Barstow and Miss Carmen Ghirardelli are among the hostesses who will entertain seventy-five guests at Ebell Hall next Saturday evening. The affair will be given by the members of one of the afternoon card clubs.

MRS. FRANK KENNEDY JACKSON who assisted her mother, Mrs. Harry Maxwell, today at a bridge party.

Have You $1500? Here's Your Chance

ALBANY.—If any "lady 5 feet 7 inches in height, weighing not more than 140 pounds, well educated, versed in piano playing and with a bank roll of $15,000" wants to wed a Texas ranchman, Governor Dix can give her the name and address of the ranchman.

The Texan wrote the governor a few days ago, and asked him to find him a wife measuring up to the specifications described. The writer appeared to attach more importance to the $15,000 than to any other qualifications demanded, because that part of the letter referring to it was underscored.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 28.—A beautiful house of cards, built by Elizabeth Lefridge to establish the status of herself and her younger sister as white girls, was ruthlessly demolished in the city court yesterday. Both were adjudged to be negroes.

Luella, the younger, was returned to the negro home, while Elizabeth was rebuked by Judge Niles as a teller of falsehoods, who under any circumstances was not a proper person to be intrusted with the care of her younger sister.

Scientists having failed to determine whether the girl is white or negress, the attorney for the negro home called witnesses, including an aunt of the children, to testify that the father was a negro and the family was regarded as negroes in Pittsburg, where they lived.

Man Lags Behind

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—Now cometh the statistician of the state board of health with the observation, based on state vital reports, that the attraction of the widow or the divorcee for a bachelor is far stronger than the affinity between the maiden and the widower or divorced man.

Statistician Leslie reports that during 1910 there were 2782 marriages between bachelors and widows or divorcees, as compared with only 1906 marriages between single women and widower or divorced men. That is a difference of 776, or 36.9 per cent.

This condition is found in all but seven of the 58 counties of the state.

Will Not Contest

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 28.—There will be no contest in Massachusetts over the will of the widow of Ole Bull, the famous violinist and composer. It was learned at the Middlesex county probate court today that Mrs. Ole Bull Vaughn, the daughter who was expected to make a contest, and Edmund M. Parker of Boston, one of the executors, had reached an agreement outside of court and had been made special administrators of the estate.

Feminine Athletes of Paris Are Learning to Box

PARIS. — Boxing is the latest craze among the athletically inclined women of Paris. For a long time they have been interested spectators at boxing matches, but now their passive interest in the sport is leading to active participation in it.

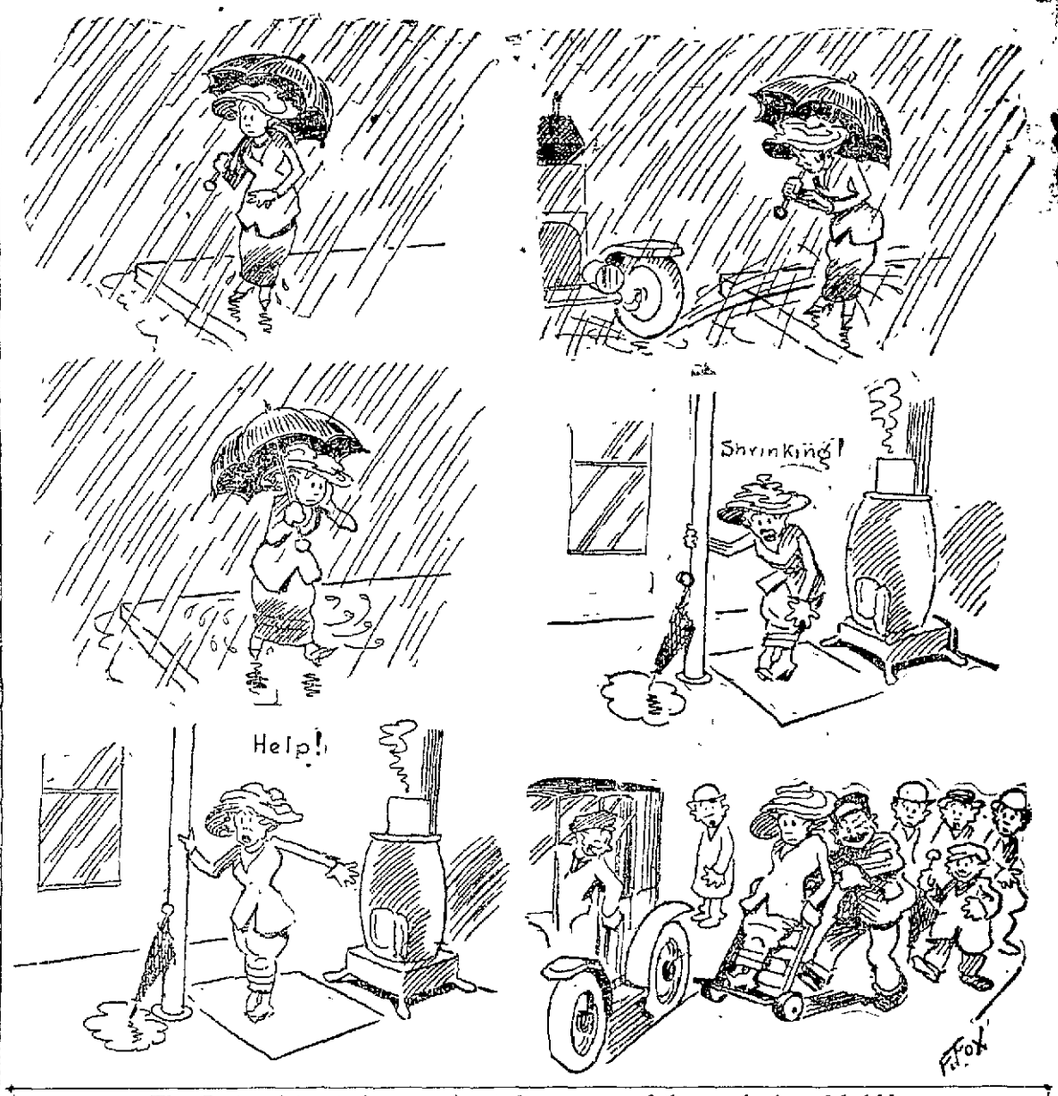

"I have a number of women who are learning to box," said Louis Doerr, the head of one of the biggest schools and trainer of several French professionals. "Several of my new pupils are widely known in the social world, and the reckless way in which they risk black eyes and cut lips is astonishing. They are not all young, athletic girls. On the contrary, most of them are married women between 30 and 40 years old.

"Nothing seems to please these women more than a short bout with their husbands, and as most of them seem to have an innate idea that offense is the best defense the husbands usually have to be fully on their guard against the numerous blows aimed at them. Boxing against a man teaches a woman the science of sparring, but woman again, woman provides one more eventful contest.

"In the matter of hitting straight from the shoulder I do not find women very apt pupils, and when a woman has a man opposed to her to steady her she is inclined to give downward 'hammer' blows precedence over all else. It is amusing, but it is not boxing — 'scratching' is what I call it.

"But if women are not very skillful just yet there is no mistaking their enthusiasm for boxing. Most of my pupils take three lessons a week. They use 5-ounce gloves and dress in blue serge suits and loggish long coats."

THE CHEAP HOBBLE THAT GOT WET

The Cartoonist gets busy again at the expense of the much-abused hobble.
—From Chicago Evening Post.

She Hugged a Snow Man

MONTICELLO, N. Y.—Indignant because of a practical joke played on her by a friend, Miss Gertrude Sharp of Ninth street, Brooklyn, walked today to Fallsburg, six miles, through deep snow in order to catch an early train home. She didn't stop to say good-by, not even to Miss Alice McManus, her mischievous companion.

The trouble arose over a snow man built by Miss McManus after dark and placed on the porch of the house in which Miss Sharp was staying. When it had been neatly attired in clothes resembling those of her suitor, a string was attached to the door bell and Miss McManus, safely concealed, held the other end.

When the bell rang Miss Sharp hastily opened the door. She did not stop to make certain who was there, but threw herself into the arms of her supposed fiance. Instead of receiving a fond embrace Miss Sharp was met with so icy a reception that she fell in a faint.

Dream Brings Her Husband

BOSTON—A romance that dips into the realm of mysticism lies behind the marriage of Miss Elsie Turner to Dr. Lawrence F. Keith of Melrose last Wednesday. Friends did not hear of it until today.

Miss Turner, a teacher of china painting, was stricken ill with a mysterious ailment July 5 last. Specialists treated her with no favorable results. She was finally taken to the home of Doctor Keith. He was baffled until one day Miss Turner calmly told her what the trouble was and prescribed the treatment.

"Why, where in the world did you learn that?" Doctor Keith asked in amazement.

"Dr. —— told me in a dream." The young woman named an old friend of the family long since dead. Doctor Keith summoned Dr. Harry J. Lee, a Boston specialist, who followed out the dream diagnosis. She is now well. The romance began with her remarkable recovery.

SOME THINGS WOMEN ARE DOING

ST. ALBANS, Vt.—Major Seymour Wood, who served in the First Vermont Cavalry in the Civil War, has made to Mrs. Mildred Michell, at Norfolk, Va., a letter taken by Henry C. Pomeroy of St. Albans, a soldier in the First Vermont, from the effects of a dead Confederate when the Vermonters made a charge on the Confederate works at Fisher's Hill, Va., September 22, 1864.

The writer was P. V. Harris of Company A, 42d (or 11th, the address not being entirely legible), Virginia Volunteer Infantry, Terrors Brigade, Gordon's Division, Breckenridge's Corps. Evidently the letter was written the day the Southern soldier was killed. It is addressed to Miss Mittie Snead, Lynchburg, Va., now Mrs. Michell, and to it is affixed a Confederate stamp.

Mrs. Michell is now a widow in charge of the linen room of the Norfolk Protestant Hospital.

Pomeroy mislaid the letter soon after the war, but recently it was found among a collection of war relics.

PHILADELPHIA.—Instead of screaming or fainting when she discovered a burglar in her room, Miss Rose Kohn, 17 years old, of 3404 Market street, ran to catch the intruder and scared him so badly that he fled.

About 3 o'clock Miss Kohn was awakened by a light in her room. She saw a man with a dark lantern looking into a drawer of the bureau. Jumping out of bed she ran toward him. The intruder hastily got out of the house. He took with him a gold watch and chain.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

BOY SCOUTS PLAN MANY TRAMPS INTO HILLS

The junior boy scouts of Piedmont, under the direction of C. U. Martin, will tramp over the hills Saturday and will be prepared to walk many miles. About twenty-four lads will make the trip, which is looked forward to with pleasure.

The senior boy scouts, in charge of Rev. J. E. Stuchell, walked twelve miles last Saturday afternoon and encountered a hail storm, which occurred while they were on Redwood Peak about two miles from the Heights. The boys went through their drills and signals while they were on the hills and attracted the attention of many of the climbers, who started to be walking around on the peaks.

Next Saturday afternoon the regular drills will be conducted within closed doors and the following Saturday they will make another pilgrimage.

AT 5 THESE BOYS ENTER THE RING

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Melville Cowen and Cyril Dillon, each 5 years old, sons of John J. Cowen and Edward Dillon, of the parish of St. John's Roman Catholic church, Orange, N. J., boxed six rounds in Columbus theater, that city. They were seconded by their proud fathers. Tickets for the entertainment sold rapidly.

The little boys trained by eating an extra plate of oatmeal for breakfast and rolling big snowballs in the back yard to develop their wind and staying powers. They went to bed at 6 o'clock every night and the milk they drank was required to be up to the standard. Each used his father as a sparring partner. Their fathers are familiar with the boxing game.

Trophy Is Awarded for Best Drill Work

The silver trophy presented to the Grant school by one of the leading jewelers of this city yesterday has been given to the drill corps of Miss Howard's class, which won the last marching contest held in the school, against Miss L. Grove's class. The soldiers of the various classes will challenge the boys of the different classes and the winning side will receive the cup. Principal H. C. Petray made the presentation yesterday afternoon and stated that drills will be held once a week after school hours. The entire school and the teachers have been invited to witness the marching, which has been made one of the features of the Grant school.

CLEVER COMEDY TO BE PRESENTED BY SCHOOL CAST

MISS GEORGINA SNEATHEN, one of the leading members of the dramatic society of the Oakland high school.

Professor Charles Von Neumayer, instructor of public speaking in the University of California, delivered an address yesterday afternoon before the members of the Dramatic Society of the Oakland High school on "Stage Balance." He has been selected by the members of the club to coach the play, "The Maneuvers of Jane," which will be presented by the society in May. The first try out for the cast will be held next Monday afternoon in one of the rooms of the High school. Among those who will enter the tryout will be Miss Alice Elliot, president of the Dramatic Society and one of the most talented thespians in the school; Miss Helen Audifred, Miss Georgina Sneathen and Miss Grace Ewing.

PRESCOTT CLUB HAS BEST MEETING OF CAREER

Singing by members of the Literary and Musical Club of the Prescott school were features of the program given last Friday afternoon in one of the classrooms of the school, Tenth and Campbell streets. About sixty boys and girls, who recently affiliated with the club, were in attendance. It was one of the most enjoyable entertainments given since the society was organized.

The following was the order of the program: Piano solo, by Olga Ipsen; reading, Evan Williams; charade by Howard Hewes; reading, by Edith Freiberg; recitation, by Ancel Johnson; Piano solo, by Alvina Schumacher; reading, by Anna Siesteck; dialogue by George Swazy, Ben Gould, Stanley Walton, Hazel Johnson, Della Yansen, Ada McDaniel, Mary Reis, Anna Corea, Ione Gray, Edith Neff, Lewis Hewes, Clara William and Gertrude Walton; reading, by Katie Barbira and song, "A Medley," by the club.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON SELECTS MEN FOR THE PANAMA-PACIFIC FAIR BOARD

EXPOSITION OFFICIALS NAMED

Gov. Johnson Appoints State Commission to Handle World's Fair Matters

Sullivan, Rowell, Stimson and Rogers Sent to Senate for Confirmation

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28. — Governor Johnson today sent to the Senate for confirmation the names of his Panama-Pacific Exposition Commission. Those selected are as follows:

NAT I. SULLIVAN of San Francisco, president.

CHESTER H. ROWELL, Fresno.

MARSHALL STIMSON, Los Angeles.

ROBERT CAMERON ROGERS, Santa Barbara.

Mr. Sullivan is an attorney, Stimson a financier and Messrs. Rowell and Rogers are editors, although the latter is more widely known as the author of "The Rosary," a popular song. In announcing the appointments the Governor said:

"The commission embraces intellect possessed by few commissions and a civic idealism or governmental view—if you choose to put it that way—that is of the highest and most advanced.

TO LEND AID.

"The design of the commission, of which ex-officio I am a member, will be to lend every aid and assistance to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, and to make that exposition the greatest in the history of the world.

"The commission, of course, will have charge of the $5,000,000 voted by the people of the State of California. Our first duty will be to see that that money is expended for the exact purposes for which it was voted by the people, and to safeguard in every possible way the disbursements and expenditure of that vast

REGARDED AS TRUST.

"The expenditure of this money we regard as a trust of all the people of the state, and we shall fulfill that trust with the utmost fidelity—even punctiliousness—just as the people of the whole state, as we believe, would wish that trust fulfilled.

"I have indeed been fortunate in obtaining the consent of the members of the commission just appointed to serve. They bring to the enterprise brains, ability, imagination and an absolute and unswerving honesty and integrity."

SOCIETY TO HOLD BIG CONFERENCE

Women's Foreign Missionary Society to Assemble for Discussion.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 28.—An all day district conference will be held by the women's Foreign Missionary Society in the social hall of the First Methodist church tomorrow. Mrs. Eva Brand and Mrs. May Chisholm will be the speakers of the day. The program is as follows:

THE CITY COUNCIL'S WHIST TOURNEY TONIGHT

ALAMEDA, Feb. 28.—A whist party will be given this evening by Isle City Institute, No. 61, the Young Ladies' Institute, at Lafayette hall. Many handsome pieces of hand-painted china will be given as prizes. After card playing light refreshments will be served.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD.

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says: "It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold, cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me." No opiates, just a reliable household medicine. Wishart's drug store, corner Tenth and Washington streets.

ACTRESS, DAUGHTER OF WELL KNOWN SOCIALIST, MARRIES

MRS. JOHN CONWAY, who was formerly Miss Gladys Wilson; she is the daughter of Rev. J. Stitt Wilson, the Socialist leader.

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—Miss Gladys Wilson, daughter of the Rev. J. Stitt Wilson, candidate for mayor of Berkeley on the Socialist ticket, and former candidate for Governor, was married in Santa Ana a few days ago to John Conway, leading man in the Bison Moving Picture Company. Miss Wilson appeared at Ye Liberty theater for a short engagement during the latter part of 1909, being known on the stage as Viola Barry.

Following her engagement in Oakland she went to Los Angeles and became engaged in the Burbank Stock Company. It was while playing in "The Jungle" at that theater that she met Conway, who played the leading male role. A romance developed behind the footlights, and the engagement of the players followed.

Gladstone Wilson, the son of Rev. J. Stitt Wilson, stated this morning at his home on Ridge Road, that the wedding was not an elopement, as the couple had been engaged for two months. Their quiet marriage at Santa Ana, he said, was for the purpose of avoiding publicity and formality. Young Wilson speaks in the highest terms of Conway, whom he declares to be as worthy as he is handsome.

Miss Wilson became a member of the Ye Liberty Stock Company shortly after her return with her family from a European tour. During her stay abroad she was for a year a member of the Benson Shakespearean Company, which toured the English provinces.

BANQUET MARKS REAL BEGINNING OF THE WORK

Exposition Workers Close Season of Rejoicing and Set About Task of Construction

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The last of the series of public functions and festivities associated with the return of the victorious exposition committee from Washington, D. C., took place last night in the Colonial ballroom of the St. Francis Hotel which, for the occasion, was converted into a banquet hall. Four hundred and seventy-two of the best known citizens of San Francisco and neighboring bay cities, and including a sprinkling of representative men from other parts of the state, sat together at the festive board to enjoy the good cheer with which it was laden and listen to the brilliant speech-making which followed.

SEASON OF REJOICING.

In closing the season of rejoicing over the exposition committee's success and the laudation of its work at the national capital, the event also marked the beginning of real work in exposition building which will for the next four years command the undivided attention and the most strenuous efforts of every member of the executive committee of the exposition of 1915 to accomplish. Naturally, most of the speeches were eulogies of the Washington committee and of everybody who aided its members and contributed to the triumph of San Francisco over New Orleans.

KEYNOTE SOUNDED.

The toastmaster was James Rolph, Jr., who sounded the keynote of the evening in a comparatively brief address, in which he said:

"Great events do not accomplish themselves. They must be done by the right men at the right time. To compete for her at once and to fulfill her destiny San Francisco sent to the national capital our chosen champions to measure her strength with the world's credit of the gallant South.

"They have come home to us covered with glory. They bring back to us the prize which they set out to acquire as the goal of their crusade. They are now, every one of them, tingling with enthusiasm at the prospect of adding to the laurels already earned in the preliminary skirmish, the future glory of realizing and accomplishing the promises which we authorized them to make for us to the President and to the Congress of the United States.

"But there is one man whom all Californians unite in proclaiming as the great force who turned the scales in San Francisco's favor at the critical moment, a man whose personality dignifies the high office which he holds as much as the office distinguishes him as a man, the leader of his people, the friend of California. I am sure that you are all ready to rise and with one hearty accord respond to the toast I give you to this man, William Howard Taft, President of the United States."

He then toasted "the California Knights of the Golden Fleece—the men who have brought back to us the Panama-Pacific World's Exposition of 1915," following with another to New Orleans, "San Francisco's brave rival for glory," which drew forth three cheers for the South's commercial metropolis.

ADDRESS BY JAMES McNAB.

James McNab, a members of the exposition delegation sent to Washington, was the first speaker called upon. His speech was devoted chiefly to a sketch of the work which the delegation found awaiting it on its arrival at Washington.

"We found," he said, "upon our arrival in Washington that our advent had been forestalled by the action of the congressmen and United States senators who represented not only our state, not only the city of San Francisco, but the entire Pacific Coast and the West in their demands upon our country that the celebration of the opening of the Panama canal should be held in San Francisco."

He paid a high compliment to the aid received from Senators George C. Perkins and Frank P. Flint, and the California congressmen, but to none was a higher compliment paid that to Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, in the following language:

"There has been some discussion as to a greater San Francisco, as to the amalgamation of all the cities around this great bay. And in that connection I would say that Congressman Joseph Knowland got ahead of the times and certainly represented every interest that could ever be consolidated."

Speeches followed by Henry T. Scott, Mayor P. H. McCarthy, R. B. Hale, chairman of the Washington committee; Ambassador Whitelaw Reid, ex-Governor Gillett, M. H. de Young, Judge W. W. Morrow, Father McQuaid, Joseph Scott of Los Angeles and Mayor Frank K. Mott of Oakland.

MAYOR MOTT REPLIES.

Mayor Mott responded to the toast of "Our Sister City Across the Bay," and the speech was a departure from the line of most of those delivered during the evening, as it gave a brief resume of the growth and development of his city and the momentous progress which it is now making. He spoke as follows:

"Half a century ago before the last of the Spanish dons had surrendered title to his leagues of landed domain upon the shores of San Francisco bay the village of Oakland was born. From that hamlet nestling among the beautiful trees mustering along that magnificent harbor had sprung a city, a city in name, a city in fact.

"Many of you here this evening have been privileged to watch the years roll by and witness the development of that city until of a verity it has become one of the splendid municipalities of our empire state. This development and its lesson should not be forgotten, for it means that around San Francisco bay we have God-given natural advantages that are unsurpassed throughout the length of the western coast of America.

"I am asked by you this evening to respond to the toast, the 'City of Oakland.' I can think of nothing more appropriate, in sentiment, to respond than that of Progress. Progress in population, progress in the building of magnificent public edifices, progress in the construction of modern buildings, progress in the acquisition of territory, progress in a higher standard of citizenship and progress in a commercial way.

"Our city has long recognized that the time would come when additional harbor facilities should be furnished the port of San Francisco. And Oakland has recently commenced the construction by the appropriation, to start with only, of $2,500,000, to construct and maintain on that side of the bay modern wharfage facilities. Not as a menace to San Francisco, but as an aid, a necessary aid, to San Francisco and to this great harbor, the port of San Francisco.

"Now, we are tonight very appropriately celebrating a most magnificent victory. And it is one of the great remarkable things, it is a most wonderful thing that San Francisco a few years ago, laid in the dust, should in one-quarter of the time in which it was predicted that she would rebuild herself, has produced a magnificent city and is proposing—not only proposing, but intending to hold one of the greatest world's expositions at a cost of at least $20,000,000.

"As the toastmaster said, we are not divided in our enthusiasm, in our support, in our endeavor to make this what we expect it shall be, and Oakland and Alameda county intend to go down in their pockets for at least $5,000,000 for making this the great exposition, an exposition that probably will celebrate one of the greatest achievements of all times, of all historical times, to the glory of the United States of America. And when the golden gates of this exposition shall throw open their doors and unfurl within their portals the merchandise from the four corners of the earth, Oakland will be ready to take care of her part of the entertainment and the edification of the crowds of people who will come here and to California."

BATTERY FOR GUARDSMEN HERE

Oakland Given First Recognition by Commander-in-Chief of Forces.

Local Company Will Be Fully Equipped With Guns and Horses.

Oakland will be awarded a National Guard field battery, four three-inch rifles, twelve caissons, 120 horses and 133 men and officers, according to Adjutant-General Forbes. He says that as Oakland has commenced to organize first, this city would be given the first choice.

The battery will be known as the First Field Battery, N. G. C. The State will give $200 a month armory rent.

Guns, limbers, caissons and equipment will cost the United States government $150,000. This will be the only National Guard field battery on the Pacific Coast. A regular army sergeant from the government school at Fort Riley, Kansas, will be detailed as instructor.

H. S. Henion of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, S. L. Hall, who formerly commanded a militia battery in Missouri, and William Farmer, a former regular artilleryman, have been working on the proposition for months and have nearly enough men signed.

Hall has charge of the enlistments at 1120 Broadway, Oakland.

The battery will probably be mustered in by March 15 and Hall has already made arrangements for an armory on Broadway.

The organization of the battery will aid the militiamen of Oakland in securing $200,000 or more from the State for a large armery.

SENATOR CUTTEN GETTING WEARY

Would Have Legislature Adjourn Sine Die Not Later Than March 19.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28. — Senator Wolf's bill admitting to the bar without examination graduates of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A. Law School was passed. It previously was amended to include the law school of Santa Clara College, of which Senators Campbell, Estudillo and Martinelli are graduates.

Senator Cutten offered a joint resolution calling for sine die adjournment March 19. This is a week earlier than some of the leaders have thought possible, and two weeks in advance of the estimates of others. It is thought, however, that the moral effect will be good.

POPULAR OAKLAND COUPLE WILL TAKE VOWS TONIGHT

MISS IRENE COLEGROVE who will wed George Herbert Hildebrand tonight.

Miss Irene Colegrove and George Herbert Hildebrand will be married this evening before the members of the Hildebrand and Colegrove families with a few close friends included in the invitational list.

The marriage is the culmination of a schoolday romance which had its beginning when both were high school pupils. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Colegrove. Hildebrand is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hildebrand of Sixteenth street, old residents of the bay cities.

The announcement of the wedding was made at a 500 party recently, at which a half hundred guests were entertained.

The attendants will include Miss Florence Hill, Miss Ora Root, Miss Ann Beard and Miss Augusta Meilman. Hildebrand and his bride will make their home in Seattle, where an attractive home is being made ready for them. The bride-to-be has many friends here and has been extensively entertained.

VALUE OF SERVICE HELD AN ASSET

Interstate Commerce Commission Makes Important Ruling.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A notable principle was laid down today by the Interstate Commerce Commission in a decision of the case of the railroad commissioners of Iowa against the Illinois Central railroad and other carriers. In brief the commission holds:

"The net revenues of a carrier have often an undoubted important bearing on the question of the reasonableness of its rates; but the fact that they are greater than the returns on ordinary business enterprises is not sufficient in itself to justify a finding that the rates are excessive. The value of the service and other factors that enter into the construction of rates must also be taken into consideration."

In this case the complainant urged that a fare of 30 cents charged by the defendant lines for the transportation of passengers over bridge over the Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company between Dunleith and East Dubuque in Illinois, and Dubuque, Ia., were excessive and discriminatory.

The commission holds that the rate is not excessive "when viewed from the standpoint of all the carriers participating in the tariff."

LIVE SAVED AT DEATH'S DOOR.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson of Wellington, Texas, as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 160 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick, safe, sure, it's the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Osgood Bros.

CROSS DIVORCE CASE TRANSFERRED

Allegations Made by Wife Promise Sensational Testimony at Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Through a transfer for divorce proceedings from Los Angeles to this county there was revealed this morning the story of the differences which has caused a separation in the household of Philip B. Cross, a local real estate man, connected with W. H. O'Bear. He is the son of A. P. Cross, a San Francisco and Oakland millionaire capitalist. Mrs. Clara S. Cross charges her spouse in her allegation with threatening to steal their child, threatening to do her bodily harm and keeping her in a continual state of terror. She avers that he was always fault-finding and complaining.

When the suit was brought in Los Angeles she asked for $60 monthly for support of the child, but on its being transferred here she raises the demand to $100 and likewise increases the request for costs and fees, saying that her husband's only reason for having the action transferred here was to cause her trouble and inconvenience, knowing that she was without funds and must summon her witnesses from the southern metropolis.

600 FEDERALS SEEK REBEL BAND

Mexican Troops on March to Casas Grandes; Find No Insurgents.

Insurrectos Lose Four in Battle of Nazas; One Soldier Killed.

EL PASO, Feb. 28.—The 600 Mexican federal troops which left Juarez Monday night commanded by Colonel Samuel Garcia Cuellar, spent the night at Guzman south of Juarez and left for Casas Grandes today. They met no insurgents en route to Juarez.

Mail advices to the Herald from Torreron say that the recent federal victory over the rebels at Nazas station resulted in one killed and three wounded, four rebels being killed and several wounded.

All trains are held up at Beremejillo because of burned bridges. In the battle of Cuencame, Jose Menesses, manager of a big mercantile house, was slain after killing two Indian revolters.

Mail advices from Parrall state that a band of rebels that took Zarahagosa last week has moved to Olivas, and that 100 calvarymen have been sent out after them.

MIDNIGHT FRIGHT PROSTRATES HER

Returns Home With Husband and Is Confronted by Man With Dark Lantern.

Mrs. C. H. O'Brien, of 2403 Fruitvale avenue, Fruitvale, daughter of John P. Cleu, who died in Fruitvale Sunday, will be unable to attend the funeral of her father, set for tomorrow morning, owing to a severe fright she received at 2 o'clock this morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. Legallet, 2527 Fruitvale, where her father died.

Mrs. O'Brien and her husband were returning to their home early this morning when about half way from the house to the front gate a man stepped out from behind a palm and flashed a light in the face of Mrs. O'Brien.

FALLS IN FAINT.

She fell to the ground in a faint, and was carried to the house by her husband and the man who had flashed the light, the latter of whom proved to be a deputy constable named Reed, who is employed as watchman on the Legallet premises.

Every effort was made to revive Mrs. O'Brien, Dr. Northcott of Fruitvale avenue being summoned finally. In an hour or two she was restored to consciousness, though she was so weakened from the fright that for a time her condition was serious.

It is stated that if she is at all able to attend the funeral, it will be necessary for her physician to accompany her, as her condition is still serious.

SUBWAY BILL WILL PASS, SAYS SOLON

ALAMEDA, Feb. 28.—Secretary Harry Shoramsky of the subway committee received a communication from Assemblyman Crosby this morning stating that he appeared before the county government committee of the Senate in behalf of the subway bill, and that the committee reported favorably on it. He states that the bill will undoubtedly be passed.

As soon as the measure is passed the local subway workers plan to have a big rally and public meeting.

Four Gold $35 Watches

Let the thought of what you can gain by winning more than one Bonus spur you to your best efforts before Saturday evening. Remember the good work you have done so far, and decide that it would be a pity to waste all the effort already made, for lack of a little energy now. It will seem good to you to know how high your vote has risen by the time you have done your best this week.

LITTLE BY LITTLE.

It may not seem like much after the Big Vote Offer to gain only 4000 votes on a New Yearly subscription, but there is a wise old Scotch proverb which says "Mony a mickle maks a muckle," and the English of that is literally, "Many a little makes a much." Many a little yearly, makes a great big Bonus.

Just five of them insure you 25,000 extra votes, and for every New Yearly above this number, you gain 5000 votes in addition to the regular 4000 rate, making a total of 9000 on each New Yearly.

Well—that does not look so small now, does it?

WE KNOW YOUR DIFFICULTIES.

Some of you will tell us that it is hard work to get subscriptions this week, and we know very well what that means.

There is always a natural relaxation after the excitement of the Big Vote. Every one feels more or less "played out." Then it is that subscriptions seem to come hard, and it is for that reason that we are offering you such a reward for making such an unusually hard effort.

ANOTHER THING WE KNOW.

Another fact that experience teaches us is that every day which passes after the close of the Big Vote lessens the apparent difficulty of obtaining subscriptions. Days and days have passed since then, and you will find by this time that you can make the most of the splendid talking point which the Bonus offers you.

It will be a blind friend indeed who cannot see that he should give you a subscription when it may make the difference between your getting only 4000 on a New Yearly, or the fine rate of 9000 votes.

PUT GINGER INTO YOUR WORK.

See so many people that you are bound to win. Isn't there something invigorating in a fair and square tussle? You know there are some good candidates in the field, and that gives a spice of interest. You want to beat the best.

Now what else have you to do before Saturday night? Whatever it is don't do it. Let it go over until Monday. Surely it can wait that long, and meantime you will be earning piles and piles of votes.

Tell each friend that you need only his or her INDIVIDUAL subscription to win the prize you want. Make this statement true by securing so many people that you cannot fail to win.

Hurrah for the prizes! Hurrah for the candidates, too—if they are Hustlers.

Does this include you?

THE VOTES YOU WILL SECURE.

If you secure FIVE NEW YEARLY subscriptions this week you will get 4000 votes on each new yearly. This with the Bonus of 25,000 extra votes, will be a total of 45,000 votes, or an average of 9000 votes on each new yearly. After the first five new yearlies are gained 9000 votes will be given on each new yearly which you secure.

PRICE AND VOTE VALUE OF SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Life's Blessings

For the mother in the home to be strong and well, able to devote her time and strength to the rearing of children, is one of life's greatest blessings. Often the bearing of children injures the mother's health, if she has not prepared her system in advance for the important event. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much of the discomfort and suffering so common with expectant mothers. It is a penetrating oil that thoroughly lubricates every muscle, nerve and tendon involved at such times, and thus promotes physical comfort. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues and perfectly prepares the system for the coming of baby. Mother's Friend assures a quick and natural recovery for every woman who uses it. It is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

WANTS SHARE OF BALDWIN ESTATE

Elderly Illinois Woman Claims That the Millionaire Was Her Father.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—Surprising every person connected with the contest for the millions of E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin, another claimant, Mrs. Laura P. Alsip, who resides in Illinois, yesterday filed in the probate department of the superior court an instrument in which she asserts that she is the dead turfman's legitimate daughter, and asks for a third of the estate.

The new claimant alleges that before 1850 the millionaire horseman was known as William H. Baldwin and that under that name he married one Ophelia Henderson at Chillicothe, Ohio, September 9, 1846. She alleges that she is the issue of that marriage, being born August 13, 1848, and being known before her marriage as Miss Laura P. Baldwin.

ACCUSES HORSEMAN.

Baldwin and her mother, she alleges, lived together as man and wife until 1853, when the horseman abandoned his wife and took the name of Elias Jackson Baldwin.

She states that because no provision was made for her in the will of Baldwin, it does not necessarily appear that such an omission was anything otherwise than unintentional.

Mrs. Alsip states that she is elderly and in ill health, and as she lives in Illinois she did not learn of her alleged father's death until January 11, 1910, or of the present proceedings in court to determine the heirs until February 16 of the same year.

Being ignorant of the laws of California, Mrs. Alsip asks the court to grant her three months in which to prepare her claims for proper presentation.

Meantime, through her attorney, Fred W. Fry, of Oakland, who made a special trip to Los Angeles in her behalf, she formally contests any order for the distribution of the Baldwin estate, in whole or in part.

VICTIMS OF TONOPAH HORROR ARE BURIED

TONOPAH, Nev., Feb. 28.—In the midst of a snowstorm the bodies of fourteen of the seventeen miners who are known to have lost their lives in the Belmont mine fire were laid to rest with impressive ceremonies. At the conclusion of the services, which were held in the Nevada theater, the bodies were conveyed to the grave, over 2000 persons being in the procession. The funerals of the other three victims whose remains were recovered will be held after the inquest today.

CHOLERA KILLS HAWAIIANS.

HONOLULU, Feb. 28. — Four more deaths from cholera have occurred among the Hawaiians isolated at the quarantine station because of contact with infected persons. This makes a total of six deaths since the disease first made its appearance here.

EVERY SEAT GONE FOR NEW OPERA

New York Speculators Getting $50 a Ticket for "Natoma."

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Tonight's production of "Natoma" at the Metropolitan Opera House has aroused extraordinary interest. Not only is every seat sold, but the speculators are getting $50 apiece for them. Governor Dix, Mayor Gaynor, United States senators and other distinguished guests will be present. Charles Mackay has invited the members of the California Society of New York to be his guests, both at the performance and at a reception that will follow the rendition of the opera.

Discussing the initial performance, Mr. Redding expressed himself as delighted with the reception accorded to Mr. Herbert and his work in Philadelphia.

LARGE UNDERTAKING.

"Few people can realize how large an undertaking it is to produce a heavy opera in an organization that is giving opera every night, going to Baltimore and New York twice a week and moving an organization of over 300 people," said Redding tonight. "To obtain adequate rehearsals so as to bring out with distinction and full effect the various incidents of the drama is impossible. The results obtained at the preliminary production at Philadelphia were very remarkable. Out of a chorus ensemble of the stage only forty spoke the English language. All the principals were foreigners except three. The distinguished stage director, Mr. Almanz, speaks no English, neither does Signor Campanini or their several assistants, yet this vast organization lent every energy in producing the opera in the English language before an American audience.

PRAISE FOR MARY GARDEN.

"Miss Mary Garden, above all others, grasped the full depth of meaning of the character of Natoma and she has created a type that will live—brought to life through her marvelous rendition. Ordinarily for a production one-tenth in size the members would have weeks of rehearsals and many performances on the road before coming into a metropolis. 'Natoma' was produced without even one full dress rehearsal. Necessarily some of the moments in the opera fell short of the conception of the composer and author, but this will be remedied in the course of a few productions."

BLAST KILLS FOUR; SIX ARE INJURED

THE DALLES, Ore., Feb. 28.—The premature explosion of a dynamite blast on the bank of the Columbia river three miles east of here yesterday killed four workmen and injured six others.

The men were straightening the channel in the river when the explosion occurred.

Four of the workmen were blown into the river. Their bodies have not been recovered.

THERE SHE WAS WAITING FOR HIM

Mrs. George Law Meets Alfred Vanderbilt at Depot--- Time, 1 A. M.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—"You got my wire?"

With a beaming countenance and this happy inquiring cry, Mrs. George Law gave her hand to Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who had gone to the Paddington station to meet her, at 1 o'clock this morning.

Immediately after the Mauretania docked, the beautiful American widow who sailed so hurriedly from New York that her name did not appear on the list of cabin passengers, had taken train for London.

The four joyous words of greeting gave a new twist to the great society puzzle—the absorbing question whether it is Mrs. Law or Mrs. Smith Hollins McKim whom Vanderbilt is going to marry.

"ENGAGED? NONSENSE!"

Asked whether Mrs. Law intended to marry Vanderbilt, she cried:

"Nonsense!"

"Of course," she added, "Mr. Vanderbilt and I are friends and I suppose I shall see him in London, where I have many other friends."

This casual attitude was not maintained when Mrs. Law reached Paddington station five hours later.

She dashed across the platform to a telephone booth, where she fretted as she tried to rouse a sluggish central.

While she was concealed in the booth Vanderbilt appeared. He had come in his motorcar with a footman. He glanced about, chatted for a moment with Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, and then was asked by the Examiner correspondent:

"Will you make a statement regarding your rumored engagement to Mrs. McKim?"

Vanderbilt smiled. He looked about as if seeking some one, then he replied: "Really, I can't say anything about it."

"OH, POOR MRS. LAW!"

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Sunday Mrs. McKim arrived in New York from her visit to her father's home in the south. Asked if she would say anything about her rumored engagement to Vanderbilt, she replied:

"Really, there is nothing that I can say now. Plans? Oh, dear, I have none. I am free. I am happy, and glad of it. I intend to remain happy."

When told of the rumors that Mrs. Law might be the betrothed of Vanderbilt Mrs. McKim said:

"Oh, poor Mrs. Law! It does appear that one can't go abroad any more without so many stories coming out. The poor dear has my sympathy."

CHILD AND DOG ARE BOTH HEROES

Former Saves Two Girls From Death and Latter Tries to Save Another.

CHICOPEE, Mass., Feb. 28. — A brave little barefooted girl, Josephine Pizroski, 13 years old, rushed into the icy waters of the Chicopee river near her home late yesterday and rescued from drowning two young girl friends, while her collie dog "Beauty" was less skillfully attempting to save the life of a third child, Mary Zybura, aged 13, who was drowned.

From the window of her house, where she was changing her stockings, Josephine saw the girls break through the ice. In her bare feet, she rushed through the snow to the river. Seizing Victoria Karzenowski, aged 13, by the hand, she pulled her to safety and next rescued Mabel Grotowski, aged 14. The collie dove into the water after Mary Seybura, who was farther from shore.

Seizing the girl by the hair, he started for the bank, but the frightened child battled with the dog until the animal released its hold and the girl sank to her death.

KAISER AUTO CRAZED.

BERLIN, Feb. 28. — Emperor William's well known fondness for motoring has just been shown by orders for four new automobiles which he has placed with German firms. With these additions to his garage his Majesty will have thirty machines, including a half dozen motor baggage trucks.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2963 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THOUSANDS PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO GENERAL

PARIS, Feb. 28. — An imposing military funeral for General Brun, the late minister of war, was held yesterday. The entire garrison of Paris participated President Fallieres, the cabinet, the diplomatic corps, members of parliament, and of the French institute and those distinguished in every walk of life assembled in the grand salon of the ministry of war, which has been transformed into a mortuary chapel and where yesterday thousands viewed the body as it lay in state. Among the floral pieces was one from General J. M Dickinson, American secretary of war.

Premier Briand, on behalf of the government and General Michael of the army paid eloquent tributes to the memory of General Brun.

The premier lay special stress upon General Brun's inspiring leadership and his services in building up the French aerial fleet until it had become, the speaker said, the greatest in the world.

ACCUSED BULLION THIEF TO RETURN

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 28.—An hour after their arrival, requisition papers for the return of Charles Barrett, alias C. McCabe, wanted in San Francisco on the charge of stealing 55 bars of gold bullion, valued at $54,000, while in transit on the steamship Humboldt, consigned to the Washington-Alaska bank, were honored by Governor William Spry yesterday. The requisition papers were accompanied by a certified copy of the complaint charging him with the offense, the warrant for his arrest and affidavits of the prosecuting witness, Jacob B. Levison, and San Francisco officers, Charles E. Page and Edward O'Dea. Barrett will be taken to San Francisco tomorrow.

MILITARY COMMANDER ORDERS TRAINS TO RUN

EL PASO, Feb. 28.—The Mexican military commander ordered the regular schedule on the Mexican Northwestern railroad operating from Juarez south to Casas Grandes and Pearson discontinued today and commandeered all cars to take south 500 soldiers and two field pieces tonight.

These men will try to flank Madero, who is reported south of Juarez marching on Chihuahua with 500 federals that left Juarez Friday. This troops movement will leave only 400 soldiers in Juarez.

THINK QUANAH PARKER KILLED WITH POISON

LAWTON, Okla., Feb. 28.—That the death of Quanah Parker, chief of the Comanche Indians, last Thursday, resulted from poison administered by medicine men of the Cheyennes instead of pneumonia, as reported by the white physicians is the belief of medicine men of the Comanches announced here today.

The Comanches will send White Parker, son of the late chief, among the Cheyennes to investigate. Quanah had been among the Cheyennes three days when he became ill. He hurried home and died twenty minutes after reaching there.

LOCAL LIGHTWEIGHT IS IN LINE FOR A BOUT WITH CHAMPION WOLGAST

OAKS DO LIGHT WORK AT HAYWARD TRAINING CAMP

Fifteen Men Report to Manager Wolverton to Prepare for Coming Season

By BERT LOWRY.

THE grind has began. Yesterday morning promptly at 10 the Oakland ball team entered upon the spring training for the season of 1911.

The weather wasn't up to the usual standard of California climate, so no real hard work was indulged in. All the boys did was to take a meander over the hills back of Hayward and then return to the hotel and sit around waiting for the dinner gong to peal forth its welcome call, for, you know, a ball player is always hungry, and especially during training season.

In the afternoon, though, there was a livening up of things around the camp, and shortly after 1 o'clock fully twelve of the old and new men were on hand ready to don the uniforms and get out in the sunshine. A little later Carl Mitze and Bunny Pearce drifted in and they too joined the throng.

Captain Wolverton was the first Oak to face the picture shooters and while he was lining up the men for a snap shot or two it began to shower and for several minutes it looked as if there would be nothing doing in the line of work.

Shortly after 2, though, there came a rift in the clouds and old Sol made his appearance. The men then began a game of pitch and catch on the tennis courts in front of the hotel, Wolverton concluding that it would be too wet to do anything worth while at the Hayward park.

Nearly all of the old men were on hand, Mitze, Pearce, Wolverton, Cutshaw, Ames, Maggart, Christian, Pipgis and Nelson being among those present. Baker, a youngster who hails from Hayward, Green, the Vallejo recruit; Hoffman the Providence outfielder, McGeehan from Atlantic City and Teidman, the Norfolk catcher, being the balance of the men.

Gus Hotling, utility man, and Kitty Knight, the Albany, New York League pitcher were on hand but did not don uniforms as the expressman was a little slow to arrive at the hotel with their baggage. Don Cameron, Wiggs, Pernoll, Bannister, Miller, Bowser and Johnson were those not present.

NO LINE ON NEW MEN AT THIS EARLY DATE.

A fair sized crowd of faithfuls braved the threatening weather and were on hand when the boys began their limbering up process in the afternoon session. While the old members of the team were greeted familiarly and were watched by the bugs, nearly all of the eyes were on Outfielder Hoffman. This new recruit is solidly built on the lines of Frankie Carroll, who was with Oakland last season. In fielding his position he throws with the left hand and in the short time he tossed the ball to Wolverton, gave evidence of having a true whip. At the bat he stands nicely and take a full, healthy swing at the ball. Of course one cannot judge a man on first appearance, but to the writer Hoffman looks pretty good.

Another man that took my eyes was Infielder McGeehan from the Atlantic City team. He is built on the lines of Owen Vitt and handled himself nicely both in throwing and catching a ball and in batting.

Tileman is a great big hulk of a fellow who reminds one of "Sea Cow" Hurlburt, who at one time vaunt for the Los Angeles team. Baker is a big fellow too and handles himself fairly well.

Kitty Knight is a big fellow nearly six feet in height, with a heft of at least 190 pounds. From his looks one would take him for an Indian. Hotling we all know.

HOLDOUTS ARE ON THE JOB FIRST.

Saturday night Mitze, Cutshaw and Wares had the Oakland fans all up in the air with the declaration that they wouldn't sign up a contract under any circumstances unless the boss of the Oaks came through with a better advance than he had already made. Yesterday morning the writer was informed that everything was O. K. and that the boys would be on the job bright and early. This proved to be true for there they were among those present and in uniform, going through the old practice stunts.

This holding out is a yearly occurrence with the majority of ball players, but when the time for reporting comes around they are nearly always on the job and ready for work.

The map out of today's work has not as yet been laid, for Manager Harry is a little apprehensive of the weather. But if old Jup. Pluv. is good and lets the weather remain clear he will take them out to the ball park and let them have an impromptu game of ball.

So that none of the boys may be troubled with sore arms or dinky legs when the season opens, H. P. Parinton, a first-class trainer of men, has been engaged and will be on hand all the time with the arnica bottle and the rub down liniments.

SAN FRANCISCO WILL RETURN HOME WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Down Modesto way J. Cal Ewing's regulars, hope-to-bes and might-bes, are putting in the fleeting hours before the opening of the season polishing up for their first game with the Red Sox on Friday on the ball park over the bay.

A returning wayfarer with a world of baseball knowledge in his red-topped noodle was greatly impressed with some of the men. Of others he declined to speak, which was a practical acknowledgement that they weren't the class.

Tennant looked to the traveler to have it all over Harris at first. Ward at second might do a little more training so Moller looks safe for that job. Weaver is some fielder, says the critic, but he will have to go some to beat out McArdle for the job. Vitt, of course, is the fixture at third.

In the outfield he looks for Melchoir and Lewis to make good with Powell half a chance. Behind the bat he picks Berry and Ryan, for without seeing Schmidt it is the critic's opinion the easterner will have to be a big pumpkin to beat the Alameda boy. Nice boost, this, for the California youngster.

As to the pitchers, he figures on all of the old hands holding the job with Fullerton, Meikle and Ehrenpfort favorable for positions.

As the weather hasn't been of the best it is presumed that J. Cal will bring the boys home tomorrow so that they will get a day's work at Recreation park in anticipation of their game with Taylor's bunch on Friday.

BANNISTER DON'T WANT TO COME AND BOWSER HAS TROUBLE.

Pitcher Bannister of the Waterbury club of the Connecticut league is slow in reporting to camp and gives as his reasons that he does not want to come to our glorious climate. Wolverton has wired the lad that he is wanted here in Oakland and that he had better hurry, otherwise he might find himself numbered among the suspended players.

* * *

Outfielder Bowser is an absent one, but his wife is ill in Flint, Mich., and the outfielder remained over a few days with her.

* * *

Eddie Swander is another player not on the register, at the hotel and it is doubtful if he will be among those present. Eddie and the Missus are doing a little vaudeville turn throughout the state of Ohio and they want to stay on the circuit while the act draws. Then Eddie wants to catch on with some club back that way. Maybe Wolverton will grant his request, we don't know yet.

BEAVERS KEEP AT IT.

SANTA MARIA, Feb. 28.—An early morning hailstorm following an inch of rain retarded the efforts of Manager McCredie to limber up Beaver aspirants yesterday. The work was restricted to jogging around the park and blackboard signal practice. Word was given to report at an early hour hereafter and the lost time is to be made up for.

Neal Ball, the Cleveland infielder, returned his contract unsigned, accompanied by a letter in which he states he intends playing in the East.

The Beaver manager has written him appealing on a Portland contract or to the Outlaws for Ball.

Koestner of Los Angeles will report Saturday and everybody except him and Ball are expected by Wednesday.

PLAYERS ARE RELEASED.

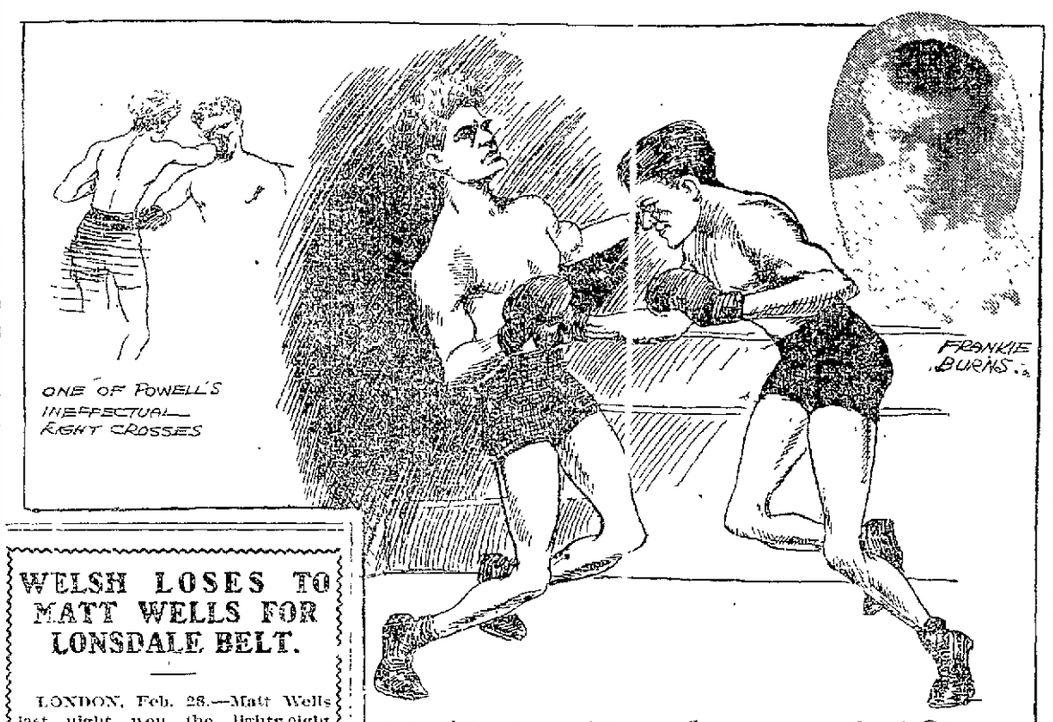

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—President Lynch of the National League announced the following releases yesterday:

By Boston to Chicago National League, David W. Shean.

By Cincinnati to Topeka, Western League, Edward Crempton.

By Chicago to Boston, National League, Frank Pfeffer, W. J. Ingerton.

BODY PUNCHES DID THE WORK.

BURNS' SEEMINGLY "TIRELESS" MANNER OF FORCING POWELL ABOUT THE RING ALL THE WHILE PLAYING A TATTOO WITH RIGHTS AND LEFTS ON HIS BODY HELPED MORE THAN ANY OTHER ONE THING TO WIN THE BATTLE.

WELSH LOSES TO MATT WELLS FOR LONSDALE BELT.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Matt Wells last night won the lightweight championship of Great Britain and the Lonsdale belt by defeating Freddie Welsh in a fast twenty-round contest before the National Sporting Club. Wells won on points.

The men were evenly matched, and it was a gruelling contest from the sound of the first gong until the last one brought the fight to a close.

Welsh had the advantage in a number of rounds, but slowed up in the latter half of the go. Knowing that Wells had a lead on him for points, Welsh made a determined rally in the last round and tried hard for a knockout, but Wells was too strong for him.

COLLEGE MATMEN WILL ENTER WRESTLERS

A three-cornered wrestling tournament between the Olympic Club, Stanford and California is now an assured event. Yesterday Professor Ligda received a list of provisional entries from the Olympic Club and from Stanford showing that much interest has been taken in the event by both institutions.

It is almost certain that the tournament will be held in the Harmon gymnasium, probably on the evening of March 31, which comes on Friday. Owing to the large entry list, it may be necessary to have some preliminary rounds the night before, and have only the semi-finals and finals on that date.

TOURNAMENT TO BE INFORMAL.

As wrestling is a new sport, especially at Stanford, and in order to encourage the sport and give closer competition, the Olympic Club will enter no men who have won either first or second prizes in any of their tournaments. The tournament is to be strictly informal, and it has been agreed that winners of the different classes will not receive any championship titles of any form.

WRESTLERS ENTHUSIASTIC.

Great enthusiasm was aroused among the University of California wrestlers when it became known that the tournament was a certainty. Most of them are in fine condition and will easily make the weights in the different classes. Those showing up the best are R. Lee, 125 pounds, Wells and Lytton, 145 pounds; Smith and Livingston, 158 pounds, and Scott, Black and Lund, heavyweights.

FRANKIE CONLEY IS AFTER ANOTHER GO WITH COULIN.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 28.—Frankie Conley of Kenosha, Wis., who was defeated by Johnny Coulon in a twenty-round bout here Sunday afternoon, today challenged the Chicago lad for a return match.

Conley asserts his failure to beat the Chicagoan was due to the fact that he took off ten pounds in eight days to make the weight.

Diamond Dust

PITCHER PERNOLL REPORTS FOR DUTY.

Yesterday afternoon after everybody had donned the street clothes at the Oaks' training camp, "Piano Legs" Pernoll and his wife reported to Manager Wolverton.

Pernoll looks somewhat heavier than when he was with Oakland, but says he will get right down to work and remove all surplus flesh.

WILLIE HOGAN GOES EAST

Willie Hogan was among those present yesterday afternoon at the training camp saying goodbye to his old team mates. This morning Willie left for the east to join Connie Mack's world's champions.

MILLER REPORTS TO SAN FRANCISCO.

Pitcher Frank Miller, last year with San Francisco, reported to Captain Mohler at Modesto and at once began to round into shape. Last season Miller pitched some good games and some bad games, but at that is rated a fast man in the box.

BUSHER TOSSED UP HIS JOB.

Down at Santa Maria there is grief in the McCredie camp, for his best looking busher, Albert Arlett, has parpet his job and returned home. It is presumed that the youngster didn't like life in the big league club, so concluded to get back to the old fireside.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Twenty seven members of the Chicago American League baseball club departed last night for Mineral Wells, Tex., to begin training for the 1911 season.

RED SOX WILL BE HERE WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—The regular Boston Red Sox players are busy packing their trunks preparatory to leaving Wednesday night for Oakland. The decision to take the regulars at once to the northern cities and bring them back this way when the weather gets warmer, later taking them back home by the warm southern route, was reached by Manager Donovan only after several days of consideration. He has been much worried as to the best course to pursue.

Team No. 1, which leaves for Oakland on the evening of March 1st in charge of Manager Donovan, will consist of Fielders Gardner, Purtell, Lewis, Altenger, Bradley, Hooper, Nebinger and Mahoney, and will be joined by Speaker on Thursday, Outfielders Williams, Madden, Kleinow and Thomas. Pitchers Arellanes, Wood, Whaley, Pape, Pierce, Bedient, Hunt and Cicotte.

This team will play about San Francisco or work down the coast, closing their California engagement at Los Angeles on March 26th, on which date they will begin the homeward journey over the warm deserts into Texas.

Team No. 2, which stays at Redondo to open the Los Angeles ball park, and which will be left in charge of Secretary Cooper and Catcher Carrigan, includes Fielders Perry, Engle, Rupert, Prieske, Janvrin, Yerkes, Myers, Barrick, Thoney; Catchers Sheehan and Nunamaker; Pitchers Frank Smith, Charles Smith, Kaler, McHale, Collins, Moser, Dale, Hughs, Sawyer, O'Brien and Hall.

Speaker will remain with this team for one game, when he goes north with Hugh McElroen to join the regulars. The second team will play about Los Angeles and work north, closing in San Francisco on March 26th and then starting home over the northern route. McBreen will join the second team on the way home.

Light practice is the order of the day until the division is made and the boys begin actual games.

'VARSITY BALL TEAM GETS DOWN TO GOOD HARD WORK.

The University of California baseball team started strict athletic training yesterday, smoking, dancing, etc., being tabooed to members of the squad. The first game of the intercollegiate series is now less than a month off, and the men have been put down to hard work by Coach James Schaeffer of the squad.

Storer, Moulton and Sandman are the stronger candidates for the place as pitchers, Forker, Haskell, Webb and Tuttle for places as pitchers, Rabke, Allen, Grenlaw, Goodwin and Coane, infield, and Berein, Salisbury, Coane and O'Reilly are making the stiffest scraps for the field positions. The team will play its second game with Santa Clara College on the campus here Wednesday afternoon. Saturday afternoon a game with the Olympic team of San Francisco has been arranged.

NAPS GET DOWN TO WORK

ALEXANDRIA, La., Feb. 28.—The first squad of the Cleveland American League baseball team arrived here yesterday for spring practice.

ONE ROUND HOGAN IS MATCHED WITH WOLGAST.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Announcement was made last night by the manager of "One-Round" Hogan, the California lightweight, that Hogan and Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion, had been matched to fight ten rounds before the Madison Athletic Club here on April 18.

Wolgast and "Knockout" Brown, who Hogan fought recently, will meet here Friday night.

BURNS DEFEATS POWELL AFTER STUBBORN BATTLE

Dashing Ring Work of Oaklander Overcomes Science and Skill of Opponent

By EDDIE SMITH.

AFTER having taken the worst of the beating during the early rounds of the contest, after having rallied from what looked like a sure knockout in the twelfth and thirteenth rounds and having made a spectacular dash for victory in the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth rounds Lew Powell finally collapsed under the persistent fire of severe punishment Frankie Burns was raining on him and near the end of the nineteenth round the battle was halted and Burns awarded the decision.

The ending will count as a knockout for Burns. When the lad from the Mission district of San Francisco pulled himself together for the final try he made he was already a beaten man, his strength was fast leaving him and he had every reason to become disheartened.

BURNS AND POWELL STATEMENTS AS TO THE SCRAP.

(By FRANKIE BURNS.)

I tried to make a fair match all the way and there was no intention butting or anything like that. I wanted to win on my merits, and although Powell is a hard man to win from, I am glad that I turned the trick. Now I will demand a chance with either Moran or Wolgast. I have earned that much and want to go after the championship.

(By LEW POWELL.)

All I want is another chance. I wasn't in shape tonight. I was suffering from a bad cold on the chest, but I did the best I could. I know I can do better and I want a return match with Burns just to prove it. I haven't got any complaint to make. Burns won fairly and squarely.

With his face bruised and his body sore from the punishment that had been inflicted by the sturdy little Burns, however, Powell clinched his teeth and like a floundering schooner mastered by a brave man, he stuck his head right up to the toughest of the going and made a battle for pugilistic supremacy in the last three rounds that called forth the admiration of even the severest fans.

When the eighteenth round had been finished, however, and Powell had a little more than held his own, even though he was very tired, he had what is termed "shot his bolt" in the vernacular of the ring.

TOLD TO FINISH IN NINETEENTH.

In the nineteenth round Burns was sent from his corner with the instruction to stop that onward rush of the then underdog.

Burns started with a will and after having closed in on his man, he simply smothered him with rights and lefts to the head and body and Powell was forced to the mat for the count. With this knockdown every bit of the remaining strength left the red-headed boxer, and as he arose at the count of six he was as helpless as a child, with no possible chance for victory.

Powell staggered across the ring after having received a volley of right and lefts and as he leaned against the ropes hopelessly beaten, I called a halt, believing that Burns had given sufficient proof of his superiority and Powell had put forth such manly and admirable efforts to turn the tide of battle with his last remaining strength that he was not deserving of another round of beating by the relentless Burns.

BURNS PUT UP GREAT BATTLE.

To Frankie Burns belongs the spoils of victory. He made a good fight for it and won in a clean-cut manner. Several times the partisan crowd present boo-booed him for what they considered butting tactics and many times he was asked to stand up straight and exchange blows in the fashion best liked by Powell.

The young fellow fought to instructions, however, and by his victory he is one step nearer the goal of his ambition, the lightweight championship. For Powell, there isn't the slightest doubt but that he has either gone back or he was not at his best last evening.

He slowed down early in the contest and did not seem to possess the lasting power of the Powell we knew a few years back. With all, Powell proved one thing last night more conclusively than ever before, that he is as game as any man seen in a local ring in many a day.

To Burns is coming great credit for his win and to Powell a like amount of credit for his gameness.

BOTH MEN WENT RIGHT TO WORK.

When the men started off on their long journey last evening there wasn't a second wasted. Both toed the scratch eager for the fireworks and both led off almost simultaneously.

In the first round Powell had the better of the few exchanges made and landed several straight left-hand leads. In the second round Burns started to set the pace to suit himself and Powell began to pick up. That was the first mistake of the red-headed fellow, for from that time to the rounds in which he made his great dash for victory, Burns almost continually had him backing up, thus breaking the force of his blows and placing him at a disadvantage.

In the fourth and fifth rounds Burns had a good deal the better of the going and it appeared as if he would have an excellent chance to score a knock out in the game.

As soon as this became apparent to the seconds of Burns they held him back with instructions to let Powell tire himself out before trying to put him down for the count.

The result was that the five or six rounds were not overly interesting and many times Powell evened matters with light jabs that had to be counted as points in his favor.

BURNS EVER HAD THE UPPER HAND.

Burns always had the upper hand, however, and in the eleventh round he again started to make things warm. In the twelfth round, as the men were pulling away from a clinch, Powell raised his guard to block what he thought a right-hand punch coming over for his head and with lightning-like speed Burns changed the blow to a left hook for the body, which landed full force in the pit of Powell's stomach, putting him down for the count.

Powell started to get up at the count of eight and at nine he was on his feet, but still crouched over in such a manner that it would have been dangerous to let Burns punch him.

Frankie was anxious but I held him back until such time as I was sure Powell was not going to fall to the floor again, a thing no one could be sure he would not do owing to the manner in which he staggered to the ropes on regaining his feet.

Powell was up at the count all right and was entitled to the protection of the referee until such time as he regained his balance.

There was the chance of Powell again falling to the floor and Burns in his anxiety hitting him while he was down and that was the reason for holding him off.

POWELL HAS ROUGH TIME IN 13TH.

In the thirteenth round Burns gave Powell a rough time. For the full three minutes the Oaklander was at his man in a fashion that bade no good for him and punch after punch was sent out in a search for Powell's chin that meant destruction if they landed.

By masterful blocking and backing around the ring Powell made the target a mighty hard thing to hit, however, and although badly worsted he weathered the storm. In this round Burns made the mistake of not punching more often for the body or changing from the body to head or from the head to the body.

Frankie set such a pace in this round that his seconds advised a little lay off and from then to the sixteenth round Burns slowed down a trifle. From the sixteenth on Powell set the pace and the crowd howled themselves hoarse rooting for the under dog of the scrap.

The end of the eighteenth round found Powell all to the bad physically and Burns almost as good as when he started.

FINISH GAME IN NINETEENTH.

This made it an easy thing for Burns to finish matters when he was sent from his corner in the nineteenth round with instructions to take the pace and make things fast.

Powell was simply overawed with the whirlwind dash of the Oakland boy and in his tired condition put up a weak defense against the rugged winner. Powell ized that he was beaten and after the contest he announced that there would have been no good of letting the uneven struggle continue.

Powell asked for a return match after the contest and Burns seemed more anxious to be assured that he put up a good battle and was not rough and foul than to talk about his victory.

CROWD EVENLY DIVIDED ONE.

The crowd was an exceptionally partisan one. At the outset they seemed to be with Burns but as the battle grew older they switched to Powell and the least infraction of the rules by Burns brought forth the booing of the crowd.

Burns was accused of butting every time the men clinched. Several times during the contest Burns did butt and once or twice Powell did the same. Fact is, Powell and Burns got their bruises from bumping heads. The contest was a rather hard one to handle for Powell is a scientific holder in the clinches and has a knack of bringing up the right elbow that would do credit to the past masters at that art, Mike and Jack (Twin) Sullivan.

Powell held Burns in such a manner that the spectators could not see the locking of arms and he also pulled Burns toward him in such a way that he forced the youngster to lower his head in a way that made people think he was doing it purposely.

With all the contest was a good one and the spectators left the pavilion feeling that they had witnessed a battle well worth the price of admission.

PRELIMINARY BOUTS WELL FOUGHT

In the preliminaries Harry Dell and Roy Moore went ten rounds to what Referee McCarthy declared a draw and Willie Meehan and George Engle boxed six rounds to a draw. The house was packed and it is estimated that about $6000 was taken in at the gate. At least a thousand people were turned away by the police, who refused to allow any more in the pavilion.

SYNDICATE CAUSES ALARM IN BASEBALL FIELD

NEW YORK, Feb 28 —The scheme of a betting syndicate to introduce pool selling into the baseball games of the National and American leagues this summer will be promptly and thoroughly investigated by federal and state authorities here, and it is not unlikely that they will find a method of putting a prompt quietus on the proposed innovation. Copies of the syndicate's circular were placed in the hands of the United States district attorney Henry A Wise and District attorney Charles S Whitman as soon as received by local baseball officials. Both prosecutors announced at once that they would do all in their power to stop the gamblers.

ADVISES NOT TO USE THE MAIL

"The circular carefully instructs subscribers not to use the mails," said Mr Wise, "but nevertheless I am going to turn one of these over to the postoffice inspectors and tell them to watch the mails. I am also going to investigate the use of the express companies for these purposes and see if I can take any action there."

District Attorney Whitman said he would instruct his detectives to watch the express and telegraph companies for bets being made as a result of the pamphlets.

"It is against the law in this state even in another state," said Mr Whitman.

SAYS IT IS AGAINST THE LAW

"The law says that if a whole or a part of a crime is committed in this state the perpetrator can be prosecuted. If I find that any bets are being made with this circular as a stimulus I shall immediately prosecute."

Baseball men will help the district attorney to get evidence against the gamblers. Thomas J Lynch, president of the National league thinks the scheme is a swindle.

LOOKS LIKE A GET RICH TRICK

"It looks," he said, "like a get-rich-quick game pure and simple. Look at the odds offered. They are ridiculous. You can say for us that the National league will do all in its power to break up the scheme because it is a bad thing for baseball. Although I do not think you can hurt the game now still such a plan as this is not going to improve it but it will only mean that a lot of persons who cannot make a living at other gambling enterprises are turning to baseball."

Immediate steps will be taken by officials of the league to check, if possible what they consider a menace to the national game.

GAMBLING HAS LONG BEEN TABOOED

Gambling has long been tabooed in professional baseball and the feeling seems general that if it is brought into the game it will be to the detriment of a sport that is now clean and healthy.

Some persons attribute the new scheme to bookmakers whose revenue has been cut off by the passage of anti-racetrack betting laws.

The syndicate announces in its circular that it is willing to accept bets of $5 or over which shall be sent by express, telegraph or telephone.

BASEBALL MEN WILL FIGHT

"You cannot make my objection to the proposition too strong," said Edward Barrow, president of the Eastern league. "Such a scheme as this lowers baseball from the high plane on which it has been placed after years of efforts. Of course there is nothing that can permanently hurt the game now but this scheme brings the sport down to a lower level and causes the skeptical to look on the sport with suspicion."

ALMOST RUINED GAME YEARS AGO

Years ago baseball came near breaking up because of an open gambling. The layers of odds followed the teams about the circuit and openly made books in the spectators' stands. The players fell in with the gamblers and games were thrown.

This brought the situation to a climax and seeing the ruination of the game facing them the club owners formulated stringent rules against betting in their parks. They even went so far as to refuse admittance to known gamblers.

Almost immediately the situation returned to normal and since then baseball has flourished and is now known the world over as one of the cleanest of professional sports.

RIDICULOUS ODDS ARE OFFERED

According to the book it has planned eight to five is offered that New York will not finish first in the National league race. That the team will not finish second, 3 to 5 is offered, and for third place 1 to 4 is quoted.

In the American league Philadelphia is the favorite at 6 to 5 to win ... to 2 for second place and 1 to 5 for third.

In addition to bets on the pennant races the offer is made to lay odds on the standing of the clubs in mid-season. In fact, every sort of imaginable combination for wagering is offered baseball enthusiasts.

COAST LEAGUE WILL WATCH GAMBLING ALSO

Commenting on the above this morning President Thomas F Graham of the Coast league said: "I don't think the Coast league will suffer through any betting syndicate. There is a stringent law here against gambling and it was the Coast league that secured the first conviction under that law.

"Nevertheless we shall keep our eyes open and the first move made toward betting on a ball game will be vigorously prosecuted."

In these sentiments the judge was backed up by President Walter of the Oakland team, J Cal Ewing of San Francisco and every member of the league staff.

It has always been the policy of THE TRIBUNE to bitterly fight an attempt to foist gambling on ball games and it was THE TRIBUNE that first exposed the attempts of a certain clique to begin betting on ball games.

As in the past, every move made by the gambling element to make baseball their means of living will be fought and it shall be the policy of THE TRIBUNE to expose and ferret out these parasites at all times.

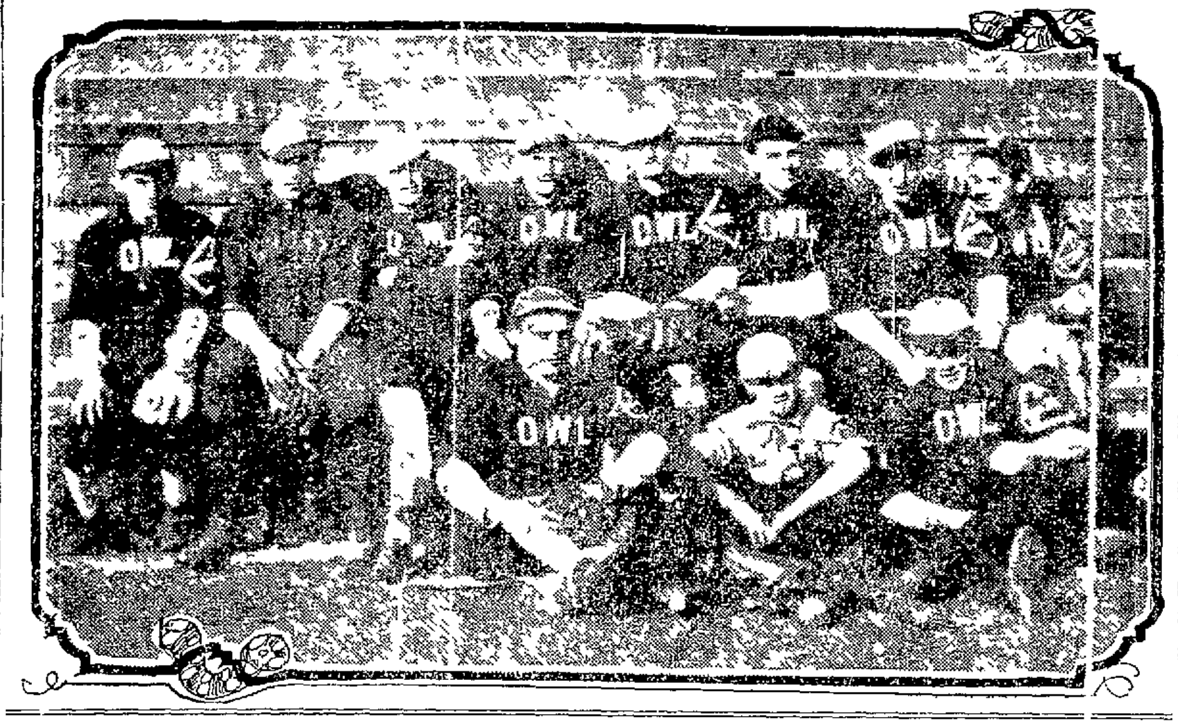

OAKLAND HIGH WILL HOLD INTERCLASS FIELD DAY.

The students of the Oakland High school will hold an interclass field day Wednesday, March 8, on the St Mary's College oval. Each class will be represented by a strong team and will enable Captain Helson and Coach Frank Bock to get a line on the new material for the Oakland High school track squad.

The following men will captain the four teams: Seniors, Eugene Curley; Juniors, Ed Melvin; Sophomores, Red Reeds and Freshmen, Raymond Hanley.

A large number of candidates are training at the high school oval on Market street and a very fast team will undoubtedly represent Oakland High in the Stanford meet the California Interscholastic at the Bay Counties Athletic League field day. If Oakland wins the Stanford meet the cup which he has twice won will be hers permanently.

KNOCKOUT BROWN BOOSTING FOR HOGAN

NEW YORK, Feb 28 —Knockout Brown who is laid up with the grip, but expects to be out by Friday night has a good word for One-Round Hogan, the California lightweight.

"Hogan," he said, "is a better man than Wolgast. He knows more about boxing and is a harder hitter. How do I feel about my go with Wolgast? Why there is only one answer. I'll beat him sure—easier than I did in Philadelphia. I don't say I'll knock him out, but I'm going to try. All I want is a fair referee who won't let Wolgast hold in the clinches or foul me. If he can stand up and box on the square you will see a new lightweight champion."

Wolgast is training in Philadelphia. He says he is much stronger than when he met Brown three weeks ago and will show real championship caliber.

TRACK BURNT UP BY AUTO DRIVERS AT NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Feb 28 — The Mardi Gras speed carnival was brought to a close yesterday when A J Madisonville in a Corbin car won the 10-mile handicap finishing just ahead of Louis Disbrow in a National who started at scratch. The Corbin was allowed a handicap of 45 seconds. Time 10 27 10.

In the fifty-mile race Ralph H Ireland in a Midland had a narrow escape from serious injury when a tire blew out his car smashing a panel out of the fence, hurling Ireland on to the turf. Except for a few scratches, he was uninjured.

Summary:

Event No 1—Five miles free for all motorcycles won by A Mitchell (Merkel) Time 1 57 57.

Event No 3—Ten mile free-for all motorcycles won by S Chappelle (Merkel) Time 10 02 28.

Event No 4—Five miles free for all won by Caleb Bragg (Fiat Cyclone) Time 5 07 19. DIDsbrow (National) was second.

Event No 5—Ten miles handicap free for-all won by A J Madisonville (Corbin) time 10 27 10. Lewis Disbrow (National) second time 10 37 45 (started at scratch).

Event No 6—Fifty miles cars class C (three classes) won by Louis Disbrow (National) time 52 3? ?7. Kulick (Ford) second, Donnelly (Cino) third.

NEW YORK AMERICANS START FOR TRAINING CAMP ON TIME.

NEW YORK, Feb 28 —The campaign of the New York American League baseball team practically begins late today with the departure of Manager Hal Chase, Jack Knight, Ray Fisher and Bert Daniels for Hot Springs, Va, where the regular players will spend two weeks preparing for a season of hard practice at Athens, Ga. In all twenty players are expected to report at the Virginia resort tomorrow.

The preparatory training at the springs will include for each man a course at the baths and several hours each day in a well equipped gymnasium. They will take long walks over the hills and play golf but balls and bats will be tabooed. Regular meals of plain wholesome food with the schedule and regular hours will be required of all. This course of training is expected to take off superfluous flesh, limber up the muscles and perfect the breathing apparatus. At the end of two weeks the men are expected to jump into hard practice without delay.

COLUMBIA IS WINNER IN BASKETBALL TOURNEY.

NEW YORK, Feb 28 —The 1911 championship of the Intercollegiate Basketball League will go to Columbia although the New York Institute will have two games to play. It has a safe lead over Pennsylvania and Yale the only teams which have threatened. Cornell and Princeton are the season's tail enders.

Yale will get some consolation for the loss of the basketball title by her victory in the two aquatic championships swimming and water polo.

One meet remains to be held but it is between the tail enders and will not affect the result. The summary in both championships is the same, Yale leading by 200 points.

FRANK GOTCH SPENDS STRENUOUS NIGHT IN WRESTLING.

NEW YORK, Feb 28 —Frank Gotch, the world's champion heavyweight wrestler undertook to throw three men, allowing them twenty minutes each, last night.

He downed Fritz Mohl, a Swiss in 7 minutes 56 seconds and Yank Rogers of Buffalo in 16 minutes 28 seconds.

The third man, William Demetral, a Greek, succeeded in avoiding a fall in twenty minutes.

Zbyszko, the Pole, and two backers announced from the ring an offer of $20 000 for a match with Gotch with an additional $ 000 for expenses.

OLYMPIC CLUB HIKERS WILL SPEND DAY AT BIG LAGOON.

The second outing of the Olympic Club members in the Big lagoon in Marin county will take place next Sunday. The athletic committee announced yesterday that arrangements had been completed for the tramp from Manzanita station on the Northwestern Pacific to the scene of the festivities on the ocean beach. It is expected that a large delegation of enthusiasts will leave on the 8 45 a m train from the Sausalito ferry to participate in the five-mile hike over the hills.

HUGO KELLY CLAIMS CHAMPIONSHIP OF MIDDLEWEIGHTS.

CHICAGO, Feb 28 —Hugo Kelley, local pugilist, makes claim to the middleweight championship of the world. Kelly broke his hand in New York some time ago when he was getting a good start toward the title and has been in no position to force his claim.

Now that he is ready to fight again his manager said Kelly would be matched with any boxers disputing his superiority.

Since the murder of Stanley Ketchel the middleweight champion four months ago at least four men have claimed the championship.

WHITE SOX ARE TRAINING BIG LEAGUERS SIGN UP.

NEW YORK, Feb 28 —Among the contracts announced and approved yesterday by President Thomas J Lynch of the National League, were

$1 For a Jingle

Write a Jingle, and if it Is Printed in the TRIBUNE You Get One Dollar

Interesting for Young and Old

Write a jingle about an Oakland store, merchant or product. Write about a big store or a little store, send it to THE TRIBUNE. The Jingles that are published earn one dollar each for the writer. Here's an example:

Smith's store is the best in town,
It has gained widespread renown
Everything they sell is best
Buy at Smith's—they'll do the rest

Remember, the above verse is just an example. Be sure and write about an Oakland store or product. Send your answer to the "Jingle Editor," care of THE TRIBUNE. If it's printed you get a dollar. Try your skill. Write plainly on paper 6x9. Use typewriter if convenient. Not more than ten lines nor less than four lines. Write as many jingles as you like about different stores. Each one if printed pays $1.

"Jingles" must be mailed and should reach this office not later than March 1.

It May Be Your Turn Today

A world of opportunity awaits the man or woman who reads the classified columns of THE TRIBUNE each day—They are brimful of the needs of various households and businesses. They are an index of what's most needed in every line. Keeping in close touch with the classified is an education that's productive of much good to the person who can turn the information so secured to account. The classified ads are always alive, intensely interesting news to many who look upon them as the medium of communication between the buyer and the seller, the employer and the employe. In short, "It Pays to read THE TRIBUNE Classified Page."

How to do it

When you write a Classified Ad for an employe, especially in some specific capacity, tell just what you expect of the applicant. It's the eminently fair way to do. Let the one who answers your Ad know just what kind of ability and experience is expected and state the facts plainly. Writing a classified ad is much like sending a telegram—every word should count, but use words enough to convey a plain expression of your idea. Results from classified ads are invariably as speedy as answers from telegrams. The ink is hardly dry on THE TRIBUNE before the returns come in. Try THE TRIBUNE, Oak. 528.

ACTIVE STOCKS OPEN WITH GAINS

Speculation in Wall Street Reflects a Much More Cheerful View.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—A majority of the active stocks opened with gains from last night's close. Lehigh Valley and Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste Marie were the strongest, with gains of a point each. United States Rubber gained 1½, American Chemical ⅝, United States Steel and Reading ⅜ and Toledo, St. Louis and Western ⅝. Stocks moved upward on the response to active buying, much of which was centered in a few specialties. Pacific Telephone advanced 3, Distilleries Securities 1½ and Missouri Pacific 1. Later the active stocks became heavy in tone and receded to about last night's close, with St. Paul selling a point under yesterday's final figures.

Speculation reflected a more cheerful view today, when the stock market seemed to have recovered largely from the effects of the freight rates decision. The undertone was good throughout the morning. Fluctuations were narrow, but most stocks made gains. Selected stocks were pushed up steadily, American Chemical rising 2 and Wabash preferred, Brooklyn Transit and Interborough-Metropolitan a point or more. The improvement which the market showed in the second hour was due in large part to the utterances of Chairman Gary, who stated that general conditions showed improvement and that none of the roads had cancelled their orders with the United States Corporation since the rate decision.

The market closed easy. Taking of profits took the edge off the advance in the late trading and there were short lines put out also by the floor professionals. Reading lost most of its advance.

Bonds were steady.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Gibson says: Amalgamated Copper acts well and there is good buying of this security. This buying is not insistent, however, but all offerings are accepted by people who should know. In the rails the best buying is in Reading. The stock suffered severely in the toy cyclone, but that was because of a very large long interest in these particular shares and it is a matter of history that Reading is the widest mover on the list. Think the stock will sell much higher before long. No change of position. Would buy good stocks at this level or on every reaction of a point or two. Particularly recommend the securities referred to above. Good buying of wheat and corn at this level. Look for higher prices. Think higher figures will be established in cotton before any marked decline.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The indisposition of outside operators to make commitments of even moderate size at present leaves the market in the hands of room traders. They had the market yesterday, but could do little with it. The interests which have the stocks will probably protect the market against drives and even endeavor to work prices up a little at times and special issues may be advanced, but unless something unexpected happens we are apt to have a trading market pending court decisions. The prospect of a change in attitude of the German government in the potash matter is said to be the reason for advance in the fertilizer stocks.

SUMMARY OF THE MARKETS.

RAILROADS GIVEN FIVE YEARS' TIME

Agreement Reached Regarding Enforcement of Safety Appliance Equipment Law.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. — Railroad equipment now actually in service will not have to be rebuilt to confirm to the safety appliance regulations promulgated last autumn by the Interstate Commerce Commission for five years.

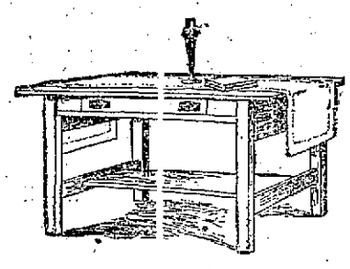

Committees representing the special agents of the railways and railway employes submitted to the comission today an agreement as to a suspension to be granted.

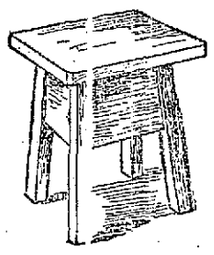

The agreement provides that the carriers shall have an extension of five years from July 1, 1911, to make their equipment conform to the regulations respecting brakes, end and side, ladder clearances and other appliances on freight cars; an extension of thre years from the same date to make the required changes on passenger cars, and an extension of two years to change locomotives except switch engines, which must be made to conform to the regulations within one year.

INSTALLATION OF NEW CLERGYMAN

Rev. Monroe Drew Assumes Pastorate of San Leandro Church Tonight.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 28.—Rev. Monroe Drew, who for the past ten months has filled the pulpit at the San Leandro Presbyterian church, will be formally installed in the position tonight with appropriate services.

Rev. Mr. Drew came to San Leandro from Menlo Park, and he was formerly the pastor of one of the largest congregations in Michigan. He was elected to his present position at a meeting of the congregation on February 15.

At the services to be held tonight, Rev. G. G. Eldridge, of Berkeley, the moderator of the Oakland Presbyterian church, will preside. The sermon will be preached by Rev. H. K. Sanborne.

OLD MISSION PEAK IS CAPPED WITH DEEP SNOW

NILES, Feb. 28.—For the past three days and nights snow has been falling almost continuously throughout the town of Niles and over the surrounding mountains. On Mission peak, about six miles from the center of town, the white drifts reach the depth of nearly a foot on the level and in some of the drifts about two feet. All during Sunday afternoon the small boys of the town pelted with snowballs and snow men to their hearts' content.

Nature's Way

Nature in her wisdom requires eight days to properly sprout barley when planted in the ground.

In the making of malt for Pabst Blue Ribbon beer, every grain of barley is allowed to grow for eight days, as Nature intended it should. This insures the proper developing of every particle of the rich food value in the grain, all of which goes into this famous brew—

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The Beer of Quality

For 60 years Pabst Beer has been famous because of its high food value and low alcohol percentage. It is an ideal winter beverage, stimulating to the appetite and an aid to digestion.

Made and Bottled Only by Pabst at Milwaukee

Pabst Blue Ribbon has a delicate flavor and delightfully smooth taste found in no other beer.

DEATH WAS DUE TO INFECTION

Autopsy Over Body of Captain Madison Will Result in Murder Charge.

HAYWARD, Feb. 28.—That death was due to an infection caused by a gunshot wound in the back of the head, was the conclusion reached at the autopsy over the remains of Captain B. H. Madison, the aged ship owner and banker, who was shot in the hallway of his beautiful home on Castro street, Hayward, about a month ago by Gus Borries, a ship-carpenter. After a consultation and a very close inspection of the wound by Dr. J. Browning of Hayward, who attended him throughout his illness, and Dr. H. C. Moffit of San Francisco, which took up the greater portion of two hours, the verdict was finally reached which will in all probably result in Augustus Borie's being tried for his life.

Directly after the shooting, Dr. Browning, who was called in attendance, reported that the aged man was on the rapid road to recovery. Some three days later, however, he began failing and before the week was up it was necessary to administer stimulants in an effort to prolong life. This procedure was kept up for two weeks, and despite the captain's advanced age the spark of life was kept flickering until Friday evening at 4 o'clock.

AGED HAYWARD RESIDENT DEAD

Mrs. Marie Mueller Passes Away of Heart Failure After Long Illness.

HAYWARD, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Marie Mueller, mother of Mrs. Jewel M. Madison, divorced wife of Martin J. Madison, eldest son of the late Captain B. H. Madison, died yesterday afternoon at the home of her daughter from heart failure.

Her death occurred at the exact time that the Madison funeral was being held from the First Congregational church in Oakland, causing a great shock to her friends and relatives. She was 82 years of age and had been ill for several months.

In addition to Mrs. Madison, her other daughter, Mrs. Ida Richardson of St. Paul, Minn., was present. Herman L. Mueller, a son, is a business man in Detroit, Mich. The funeral will be held next Wednesday from the Madison home in Hayward, and the body will be taken to Oakland for cremation.

NEWARK PROGRESSIVES ORGANIZE FIRE COMPANY

NEWARK, Feb. 28.—In view of the number of manufacturing plants which have been constructed throughout Newark recently, the residents of the town have at last awakened to the fact that if they desire to keep them they must organize a fire company. At a meeting of the representative citizens last night the issue was brought up and resulted in the following officers for a fire company being elected: Louis Ruschlin, chief; Roger Dorgan and Ray Cuttler, assistant chiefs; Otto Schiessinger, secretary; S. A. L. Bachannam, treasurer; and F. Falk, trustee.

WHO STOLE TOWN FLAG OF CENTERVILLERS?

CENTERVILLE, Feb. 28.—"Who stole the town flag at Centerville?" This is the question that has been going the rounds in every household and upon every street corner in the little valley town since Sunday afternoon, when the natives looked in the accustomed resting place of Old Glory and failed to find it. A search throughout the town failed to locate it and all the force of amateur detectives and the reserve force of the police was called upon, but up to date the flag is still among the missing.

BOARD OF TRADE HOLDS SESSION

Elmhurst Civic Body Met Last Night and Transacted Important Business.

ELMHURST, Feb. 28.—At the meeting of the Elmhurst Board of Trade last night, Philip Riley, Ben Wilson and T. C. Tilman, the committee in charge of the sewer question, reported to the members the action taken by the city council in regard to calling a bond election for the installation of the drains. The report was met with great favor by all the members, and many of the residents who had waited anxiously to hear the news. The chairman of the organization reported that he had received word from District Freight Agent Townsend of the Western Pacific railroad, that the request for a new freight station for southern Elmhurst would be met with favorably.

Reports received and read from the members on the committee of fire commissioners stated that the new fire house would be completed by the first of June. This fire house will be one of the best equipped and best built in the annexed district.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD OVER CAPTAIN MADISON

HAYWARD, Feb. 28.—The last rites over the remains of the late Captain B. H. Madison, the victim of a gunshot wound inflicted with murderous intent more than a month ago, were held yesterday afternoon from the late home on Castro street, Hayward, and later from the First Congregational Church of Oakland. Many friends paid their last respects to a man noted for his straightforwardness and honesty.

The home was filled to its capacity with floral offerings, and the casket was hidden from view by a great blanket of violets, the gift of his brother business men and friends in San Francisco. Rev. B. Dent Naylor, pastor of the Congregational Church of Hayward, and a personal friend of the deceased, conducted the services, both at the house and at the church, which was crowded to the doors long before the funeral procession arrived.

For the present, until a family vault can be constructed, the remains of Captain Madison will rest in a private vault at Mountain View Cemetery. The pallbearers, all friends and associates of the deceased, were Captain J. C. Eschen, Captain Robert Minor, Captain William Matson, Captain F. J. Thorce, Captain Spencer, J. S. and E. C. Hutchinson, Edward Sellers, William Angus, F. T. Cooper, F. C. Hermannson and J. Tyson.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

PLEASANTON, Feb. 28.—After a period of comparative inactivity, the Pleasanton Chamber of Commerce has taken on new life with its annual election of officers, which resulted as follows:

President, Dr. S. J. Wells; vice-president, Lee Wells, and secretary, Thomas H. Silver. Following the election the members of the chamber mapped out a strenuous campaign for improvements for the next few months. C. Lathem, Lee Wells and Charles Graham were appointed a committee of three to secure the graveling of the principal streets of the town.

PARK VANDALISM SCORED IN LETTER

Commissioners Address Officials and Enlist Assistance to Suppress It.

Despite the strenuous efforts that are being made by the park and playgrounds commissions and the large amount of money that the two organizations are spending for the improvement of the West Oakland and De Fremery parks, an unaccountable spirit of vandalism has broken out in that section which is manifesting itself in the destruction of property and in negativing the efforts of the commissions. So serious have matters become that Park Commissioner Edoff has addressed a letter to each of the following gentlemen on the subject: Councilman A. Steifvater; J. Keating, secretary of the Third Ward Republican club, and Supervisor John Mullins. The letter reads thus:

"Dear Sir: The park and playgrounds commissions are spending thousands of dollars in improving De Fremery and West Oakland parks. Notwithstanding the fact that these improvements are made for the public at large, there is a great deal of persistent and malicious vandalism.

"Trees, flowers and shrubs are broken and pulled up by the roots. Electric light globes have been broken on the electroliers in the park. Where new grass has been put in, the temporary fences have been broken down and the newly seeded ground has been trodden upon. Windows have been broken in the field houses and in West Oakland park water pipes have been broken and the faucets stolen, causing the loss and waste of large quantities of water.

"Knowing that you are interested in the betterment and welfare of West Oakland, I am writing this to secure your help in putting down these evils.

"Kindly do all you can to bring about a more appreciative attitude on the part of the boys and young men in your neighborhood."

A scald, burn or severe cut heals slowly if neglected. The family that keeps a bottle of BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT on hand is always prepared for such accidents. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. Sold by Wishart's drug store, Tenth and Washington streets.

WORLD'S PEACE ADVOCATES MEET

President of Stanford University Presides at Important Conference.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., Feb. 28.—"Canada will never be annexed to the United States," said Dr. James A. MacDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, at the Riverside peace conference yesterday.

"Neither will Canada and the United States ever oppose each other in war. The peace that has lasted between our two nations for a century past will last through all the centuries to come."

The conference was attended by several persons of national reputation, including Dr. David Starr Jordan, who presided; Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice-president of the United States; John Burroughs, the naturalist; Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts; George Wilder of Everybody's Magazine; George Thompson, owner of the St. Paul Pioneer Press; Dr. Robert J. Burdette; Miss Ida Tarbell, the magazine writer; Albert K. and Daniel Smiley, the Lake Mohonk peace conference evangelists.

Dr. Jordan, as chief trustee of the world's peace foundation, in opening the session said:

"International peace means mutual respect and mutual trust, a condition in which the boundary line between states is not a line of suspicion and hate. There is nothing of which the two greater North American nations have a greater right to be proud than this boundary of trust and confidence."

Dr. Jordan then reviewed the course of war through the centuries, drawing the picture of appalling waste and its onslaught upon the people of the world.

LA GRIPPE COUGHS

Strain and weaken the system and if not checked may develop into pneumonia. No danger of this when Foley's Honey and Tar is taken promptly. It is a reliable family medicine for all coughs and colds, and acts quickly and effectively in cases of croup. Refuse substitutes. Wishart's drug store, corner Tenth and Washington streets.

Speedy Relief from Kidney Trouble.

"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, and dizziness," says Mrs. Cora Thorp, Jackson, Mich. "A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcome the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish everyone could know of this wonderful remedy."

PIANOS WANTE

Take Advantage of [illegible] Predicament—Pia[illegible] at a Premium

No doubt you have taken notice when on your summer vacation, that at most all resorts, you have found a Square Piano or an old Upright. There is a reason for this. The proprietors have found it not advisable to buy high priced pianos, on account of their being subjected to much dampness and exposure and getting absolutely no attention during the closed season.

For years past the House of Curtaz has supplied the different summer resorts with Square Pianos and old Uprights and, at this early date, we are receiving orders for the coming season and at this time we have not a single Square Piano or any old Upright on hand.

As we are under contract to fill each and every order, we are obliged, under the present conditions, to extend ourselves to supply the demand. We must have square pianos and a few old Uprights and, to get them quickly, we know that we [illegible] the price.
